A Literary History of Reconciliation Jan Frans van Dijkhuizen, 2018-09-06 From William Shakespeare to Marilynne Robinson this book examines representations of interpersonal reconciliation in works of literature focusing on how these representations draw on the language of divine forgiveness Christian theology sees divine forgiveness as conditional upon a sinner's remorse and self abasement before God but also as a form of grace unconditional and rooted only in divine love Van Dijkhuizen explores what happens when this paradoxical forgiveness paradigm comes to serve as a template for interpersonal reconciliation As A Literary History of Reconciliation shows literary writers imagine interpersonal reconciliation as being centrally about power and hierarchy and present forgiveness without power as longed for but ever elusive Drawing on major works of literature from the early modern era to the present day this book explores works by John Milton Virginia Woolf J M Coetzee Ian McEwan and others to craft a literary history that will appeal to readers interested in literature religion and philosophy

On Biblical Poetry F.W. Dobbs-Allsopp, 2015-08-19 On Biblical Poetry takes a fresh look at the nature of biblical Hebrew poetry beyond its currently best known feature parallelism F W Dobbs Allsopp argues that biblical poetry is in most respects just like any other verse tradition and therefore biblical poems should be read and interpreted like other poems using the same critical tools and with the same kinds of guiding assumptions in place He offers a series of programmatic essays on major facets of biblical verse each aspiring to alter currently regnant conceptualizations in the field and to show that attention to aspects of prosody rhythm lineation and the like allied with close reading can yield interesting valuable and even pleasurable interpretations What distinguishes the verse of the Bible says Dobbs Allsopp is its historicity and cultural specificity those peculiar encrustations and encumbrances that typify all human artifacts Both the literary and the historical then are in view throughout The concluding essay elaborates a close reading of Psalm 133 This chapter enacts the final movement to the set of literary and historical arguments mounted throughout the volume an example of the holistic staging which Dobbs Allsopp argues is much needed in the field of Biblical Studies Literary Research and British Modernism Alison M. Lewis, 2009-11-25 Focusing on work produced between 1880 and 1945 Literary Research and British Modernism Strategies and Sources provides scholars with the necessary methods and tools for studying the literature of this period This reference guide will facilitate research into the works of such major modernist writers as James Joyce T S Eliot Virginia Woolf E M Forster Joseph Conrad and Somerset Maugham as well as lesser known or forgotten authors of the era The book discusses research methodology and the best practices for the research process especially regarding the research challenges unique to works of British modernism This resource includes commentary on general literary reference materials library catalogs print and online bibliographies indexes and annual reviews scholarly journals contemporary reviews period journals and newspapers microform and digital collections manuscripts and archives and Web resources This book is an important and helpful guide for researchers of British Modernism and general interested readers alike Sufism and Transcendentalism Elham Shayegh, 2020-03-09 The rhetoric of cultural identity generally goes in two potential directions One a universal line that insists on an overall pattern of integration and harmony among all peoples regardless of their differences and the other a line which suggests that various cultures are so specific and different that they will eventually enter into clash violence and war Drawing upon Derrida's concept of difference I will point out that such rhetoric as examples of current political discourses fail to open the concept of cultural identity through redefining its relationship with otherness This will be accompanied by poetry of Rumi and Whitman to suggest that their literary language through its non dialectic characteristics is familiar with the problematic of identity and has the ability to form a cross cultural dialogue Sufism And Transcendentalism envisages the possibility of dialogue against the background of political conflict A History of World Literature Theo D'haen, 2024-05-29 A History of World Literature is a fully revised and expanded edition of The Routledge Concise History of World Literature 2012 This remarkably broad and informative book offers an introduction to world literature Tracing the term from its earliest roots and situating it within a number of relevant contexts from postcolonialism decoloniality ecocriticism and book circulation Theo D'haen in ten tightly argued but richly detailed chapters examines the return of the term world literature and its changing meaning Goethe's concept of Weltliteratur and how this relates to current debates theories and theorists who have had an impact on world literature and how world literature is taught around the world By examining how world literature is studied around the globe this book is the ideal guide to an increasingly popular and important term in literary studies It is accessible and engaging and will be invaluable to students of world literature comparative literature translation postcolonial and decoloniality studies and materialist approaches and to anyone with an interest in these or related topics Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair, 2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of
