discusses how each author was influenced by contemporary events such as the American Civil War slavery the Second Great Awakening and the beginnings of modern psychology how those experiences shaped contemporary intellectual thought regarding identity and how the resulting concern with personal identity was manifested in literary characters who were either in search of or running from themselves

The New Magdalen A. Newton Field,1882

Origins of the Magdalene Laundries Rebecca Lea McCarthy,2010-03-08 The convents asylums and laundries that once comprised the Magdalene institutions are the subject of this work Though originally half way homes for prostitutes in the Middle Ages these homes often became forced labor institutions particularly in Ireland Examining the laundries within the context of a growing world capitalist economy the work argues that the process of colonization and of defining a national image determined the nature and longevity of the Magdalene Laundries This process developed differently in Ireland where the last laundry closed in 1996 The book focuses on the devolution of the significance of Mary Magdalene as a metaphor for the organization from an affluent strong supporter of Jesus to a simple fallen woman

Wilkie Collins Peter Ackroyd,2015-10-06 A gripping short biography of the extraordinary Wilkie Collins author of The Moonstone and The Woman in White two early masterpieces of mystery and detection Short and oddly built with a head too big for his body extremely nearsighted unable to stay still dressed in colorful clothes Wilkie Collins looked distinctly strange But he was nonetheless a charmer befriended by the great loved by children irresistibly attractive to women and avidly read by generations of readers Peter Ackroyd follows his hero the sweetest tempered of all the Victorian novelists from Collins childhood as the son of a well known artist to his struggling beginnings as a writer his years of fame and his lifelong friendship with that other great London chronicler Charles Dickens In addition to his enduring masterpieces The Moonstone often called the first true detective novel and the sensational The Woman in White he produced an intriguing array of lesser known works Told with Ackroyd s inimitable verve this is a ravishingly entertaining life of a great storyteller full of surprises rich in humor and sympathetic understanding

The Fallen Woman in the Nineteenth-Century

English Novel George Watt, 2016-07-22 A sympathetic view of the fallen women in Victorian England begins in the novel First published in 1984 this book shows that the fallen woman in the nineteenth century novel is amongst other things a direct response to the new society Through the examination of Dickens Gaskell Collins Moore Trollope Gissing and Hardy it demonstrates that the fallen woman is the first in a long line of sympathetic creations which clash with many prevailing social attitudes and especially with the supposedly accepted dichotomy of the two women This book will be of interest to students of nineteenth century literature and women in literature Wilkie Collins and Other Sensation Novelists Nicholas Rance, 1991-06-18 Sensation fiction dominated the literary market in the 1860s This book focuses on the roots of its emergence and demise relating its rise to the crisis of faith in the ideology of self help Rance has also written The Historical Novel and Popular Politics in 19th century England The Villainous Stage Marvin Lachman, 2014-11-19 Live theatre was once the main entertainment medium in the United States and the United Kingdom The preeminent dramatists and actors of the day wrote and performed in numerous plays in which crime was a major plot element This remains true today especially with the longest running shows such as The Phantom of the Opera Les Misérables and Sweeney Todd While hundreds of books have been published about crime fiction in film and on television the topic of stage mysteries has been largely unexplored Covering productions from the 18th century to the 2013/2014 theatre season this is the first history of crime plays according to subject matter More than 20 categories are identified including whodunits comic mysteries courtroom dramas musicals crook plays social issues Sherlock Holmes and Agatha Christie Nearly 900 plays are described including the reactions of critics and audiences
