Our Place Of Worship Canadian Conference Of Catholic Bishops:

At the Heart of the Liturgy Maxwell E. Johnson, Timothy P. O'Malley, Demetrio S. Yocum, 2014-12-17 From 1991 to 2012 Nathan D Mitchell was the author of the Amen Corner that appeared at the end of each issue of Worship Readers of Worship grew accustomed to Nathan's columns as invitations to rethink the practice of Christian worship through a liturgical theology that was interdisciplinary, aesthetic and attentive to history. With the soul of a poet, Nathan was always on the lookout for the turn of phrase, image, stanza or metaphor from other classic wordsmiths that could capture the liturgical insight he wanted to explore. For the first time, this volume assembles some of the most important of these columns around the themes of body, Word, Spirit, beauty, justice and unity. In addition, Nathan's former students offer substantive commentary through essays that invite the reader to consider how the themes raised by Nathan might develop in the coming years. This collection is a must read both for those who admired Nathan's contribution to liturgical studies and for a newer generation of scholars seeking to discern the frontiers of liturgical theology. Nathan D Mitchell is an emeritus professor of liturgy in the Department of Theology at the University of Notre Dame. In 1998, Mitchell was presented with the Berakah Award from the North American Academy of Liturgy for his contribution to the field. His many publications include the following books: Meeting Mystery: Liturgy, Worship, Sacraments and The Mystery of the Rosary: Marian Devotion and the Reinvention of Catholicism. An Architecture of Immanence Mark A. Torgerson, 2007-01-22 Torgerson begins by discussing God's transcendence and immanence and showing how church architecture has traditionally interpreted these key concepts. He then traces the theological roots of immanence's priority from liberal theology and liturgical innovation to modern architecture. Next, Torgerson illustrates this new architecture of immanence through particular practitioners, focusing especially on the work of theologically savvy architect Edward Anders Svik. Finally, he addresses the future of church architecture as congregations are buffeted by the twin forces of liturgical change and postmodernism. A Sense of the Sacred R. Kevin Seasoltz, 2005-01-01 There have been many histories of Christian art and architecture, but none written by a theologian such as Kevin Seasoltz. Following a chapter on culture as the context for theology, liturgy and art, Seasoltz surveys developments from the early church up through the conventional artistic styles and periods. Comprehensive, illuminating, ecumenical. That All May Be One Kevin Mannara, 2015 Kevin Mannara examines the relationship between the church building and the parish community, offering practical advice for a collaborative approach. God's House is Our House Richard S. Vosko, 2006 The liturgical reforms that have guided congregations over the last few decades have transformed what different denominations know about themselves and their worship. Worshipers are no longer spectators but active participants in the ritual acts that once were the possession of the clergy. As the liturgy is modified, church buildings are altered. How does all such change affect the architectural style of church buildings? Vosko provides a foundation for building or renovating a place of worship and presents a thorough checklist for spaces, art, furnishings and appointments. He discusses many concerns and offers practical advice He also presents issues that need further consideration in every project

BOOK JACKET Architectural Actions on the Religious Heritage after Vatican II Esteban Fernández-Cobián, 2020-11-09 This book serves to shed some light on several controversial questions about contemporary interventions on religious heritage buildings In the mid 1960s a process of renewal of Catholic churches began which sought to respond to the liturgical modifications implemented during the Vatican II 1962-65 Fifty years later this process continues to be problematic in buildings with a high heritage or historical value From an operational point of view it is stimulating to revisit the most relevant architectures at the international level those high impact works that were generated thanks to an open and serene dialogue between principals architects users artists and patrimonial leaders Thus it is essential to know the criteria that have supported interventions whether legal both ecclesiastical and civil architectural artistic liturgical or pastoral In this sense what references could be used at a time like ours How can we reform what has already been reformed Transcending Architecture Julio Bermudez, 2015 Please fill in marketing copy

Proclaiming Holy Scriptures David H. Pereyra, 2020-12-30 This book provides a comprehensive study on the proclamation of Holy Scriptures as an enacted celebration as well as its function as a performance within sacralized theatrical spaces Scripture is integral to religious life within Judaism Christianity and Islam and these traditions have venerated the reading of texts from an appointed place as a sacred act Thus the study of how these readings are conducted illuminates some vitally important aspects of this widespread act of worship Contributing to an underexplored area of scholarship the book offers an overview of scripture reading in the three Abrahamic faiths and then focuses on where and how the Word of God is presented within the Christian tradition It gathers and summarizes research on the origins of a defined place for the proclamation of holy writings giving a thorough architectural analysis and interpretation of the various uses and symbols related to these spaces over time Finally the listener is considered with a phenomenological description of the place for reading and its hermeneutical interpretation The material in this book uncovers the contemporary impact of a rich history of publicly reading out scriptures It will therefore be of great interest to scholars of liturgical theology religious studies and ritual studies

Water and Sacred Architecture Anat Geva, 2023-05-25 This edited book examines architectural representations that tie water as a physical and symbolic property with the sacred The discussion centers on two levels of this relationship how water influenced the sacredness of buildings across history and different religions and how sacred architecture expressed the spiritual meaning of water The volume deliberately offers original material on various unique contextual and design aspects of water and sacred architecture rather than an attempt to produce a historic chronological analysis on the topic or focusing on a specific geographical region As such this unique volume adds a new dimension to the study of sacred architecture The book s chapters are compiled by a stellar group of scholars and practitioners from the US Canada Europe Asia and Africa It addresses major aspects of water in religious buildings such as rituals pilgrimage water as a cultural material and place making hydro systems modern practices environmental considerations the contribution of water to transforming secular into sacred and future digital cyber context of water and sacredness All chapters are based on original archival studies historical documents and field visits to the sites and buildings These examinations show water as an expression of architectural design its materiality and its spiritual values The book will be of interest to architects historians environmentalists archaeologists religious scholars and preservationists
