All God's Children Rene Denfeld, 2007-01-30 James Daniel Nelson first hit the streets as a teenager in 1992 He joined a clutch of runaways and misfits who camped out together in a squat under a Portland bridge Within a few months the group they called themselves a family was arrested for a string of violent murders While Nelson sat in prison the society he had helped form grew into a national phenomenon Street families spread to every city from New York to San Francisco and to many small towns in between bringing violence with them In 2003 almost eleven years after his original murder Nelson now called Thantos got out of prison returned to Portland created a new street family and killed once more Twelve family members were arrested along with him Rene Denfeld spent over a decade following the evolution of street family culture She discovered that contrary to popular belief the majority of these teenagers hail from loving middle class homes Yet they have left those homes to form insular communities with cultish hierarchies codes of behavior languages

quasireligions and harsh rules She reveals the extremes to which desperate teenagers will go in their search for a sense of community and builds a persuasive and troubling case that street families have grown among us into a dark reversal of the American ideal

A Garland of Bones Jonah Steinberg,2019-01-08 An intimate portrait of India's child runaways and the sociopolitical forces shaping their lives This intimate portrait examines the tracks journeys and experiences of child runaways in northern India Jonah Steinberg situates children's decisions to leave home and flee for the city in their larger cultural social and historical contexts and considers histories of landlessness and debt servitude in narratives of child dislocation The resulting work is an original perspective on the sociological trends in postcolonial India and a unique treatment of a population of individuals who live on the margin of society

Modern Homelessness Mary Ellen Hombs,2011-04-19 This in depth examination reviews fundamental changes of the past decade that have reduced homelessness in the United States and other Western democracies Focusing on the last decade Modern Homelessness A Reference Handbook examines the issue in the United States and in other nations that have adopted new strategies to address homelessness and achieved notable results in preventing and ending it The handbook covers the unprecedented reductions first announced in 2007 and the crucial shifts in strategy and investment and the results that brought them about These fundamental changes are analyzed to identify the factors that proved most effective in altering the national and local dialogue and response relative to this daunting issue In addition to a brief history of homelessness in contemporary times the handbook examines key developments of the past decade in research policy housing models and service delivery that have been shown to decrease homelessness These include active partnership among the governments of the United States Canada England Australia New Zealand and others that moved the discussion in a new direction The story is brought up to date with a consideration of the effects of the 2008 economic crisis

Supporting Crisis Survivors Everton I. Anderson,2013-07-22 CHAPTER ONE CRISIS AND TRAUMAS V PRESENT EVERYWHERE What are the Distinguishing Traits of a Crisis Research has shown that the Chinese word for crisis involves two characters one means danger and the other means opportunity One psychologist summarized the peculiarities in this manner A crisis is a turning point that usually cannot be avoided They are filled with danger because they disrupt life and threaten to overwhelm the people who are affected Furthermore a crisis also presents people with the opportunity to change grow and develop better ways of coping Since people in crisis often feel confused and helpless they tend to be more opened to receive outside help including the help that comes from rescue workers from counselors and from God CHAPTER TWO THE MULTIFARIOUS ELEMENTS OF LOSS Increasing Number of Loss Individuals seem to cope with losses better when they are occasional Yet after the age of 50 or 60 they pass into a period of increasing number of losses Still grieving from the previous loss it is ever so hard to make sense of the current one Furthermore if one had never learnt to deal effectively or contend with occasional losses then it is inevitable having several will be catastrophic Equally important is that each type of loss brings its own kind of suffering and reaction CHAPTER THREE PURPOSE OF

CRISIS COUNSELING When a visit is made if the crisis counselor does not have an objective the appointment will be unsuccessful Therefore the underlining purpose of crisis counseling is to support the hurting and not to encourage the avoidance of reality This means the counselor advises individuals in crisis to admit the crisis express grief normally and arrive at a healthy resolution

CHAPTER FOUR THE CRISIS OF DEATH AND DYING Although human suffering in multiple dimensions is a factor of life which causes great pain and human anguish it must not be used as a reason for justifying the direct taking of human life K God must always be understood as the Creator and Sustainer of life It was Norman St John Stevas who articulated this view skillfully The value of human life for the Christian in the first century A D as today rested not on its development of superior sentience but on the unique character of the union of a body and soul both destined for eternal life The right to life thus has a philosophical foundation K Respect for the lives of others because of their eternal destiny is the essence of the Christian teaching

CHAPTER FIVE COMFORTING THE SUICIDAL AND VICTIMS FAMILY The following are invaluable principles that are crucial to the helpline counseling methods

The Suicidal X Activity The person needs to feel that something is being done for him or her right now This solemn promise or guarantee can alleviate his or her anxiety X Involvement of others If the caller realizes that others are now involved and caring for him or her the person will be more apt to feel the care and concern and will more likely respond The Family Counselors friends and family members alike feel guilt extreme displeasure and self blame because the death was not averted However ultimately responsibility for suicide rests with the victim who was unable or unwilling to cope with the pressures of life Ways to support Promise to visit the mortuary and advise family members to do the same If possible accompany the grief stricken relatives knowing that the initial shock and denial could be overwhelming X Resist the phrase It was an accident a terrible accident Some may think this is helpful but its more of an expression of ones own anxiety X Do not pass judgment But he or she was up all night drinking They did not understand what they were doing It is not helpful or necessary to give reasons for the suicide X The date on which the suicide took place
