Eastwood, MD, 2019-02-01 Death is the destiny we all share and this will not change Yet the way we die which had remained the same for many generations has changed drastically in a relatively short time for those in developed countries with access to healthcare For generations if people were lucky enough to reach old age not having died in infancy or childhood in childbirth in war or by accident they would take to bed surrounded by loved ones who cared for them and fade into death Most likely they would have seen their parents and grandparents die the same way and so this manner of dying would be familiar it was part of the natural cycle of life Now less than 25 per cent of Americans die at home having reached much older ages than people would have dreamed of in past generations often after surviving many illnesses and even diseases that would have been terminal for their grandparents We are fortunate to live and die today supported by myriad scientific medical and technological advancements however we also face new problems as a result of the new way in which we die We can no longer anticipate a peaceful waning at home with family We know our lives will likely end in hospitals likely after we have endured grueling treatments to prolong life We have to decide what decisions we want our loved ones or caregivers to make when we cannot choose for ourselves We have to think about whether in any circumstances we would seek physician assisted death We know we face other questions as well but we may not even know where to start In the face of these decisions we can feel daunted and afraid The best remedy is information and planning In this book Gregory Eastwood a physician who has cared for dying patients served as an ethics consultant and taught end of life issues to medical and other health profession students draws from his substantial experience with patients and families to provide the information that will help us think clearly about the choices and issues we will face at the end of our own lives and when faced with the deaths of our loved ones With sensitivity and profound insight Eastwood guides us through all the important questions about death and dying in straightforward clear language enhanced by real life stories Throughout he shows us how we can take ownership of the way we want to die when we must die and feel more in control as death approaches His Story, My Story, Our Story Brian Ahearn, CPCU, CMCT, 2024-06-04 His Story My Story Our Story is a heartrending tale that illuminates the stark realities of war from the battlegrounds of Vietnam to the emotional frontlines at home Following a Marine veteran the narrative intricately unravels his grapple with PTSD and the profound ripple effect it has on his family particularly his son Crafted from the personal wartime accounts of Brian Ahearn Sr and juxtaposed with his son's Brian

Ahearn Jr candid reflections on growing up under the shadow of trauma this story bridges two generations marked by war s enduring scars The dual lens through which His Story My Story Our Story is told provides a first hand account of war and its aftershock within a family setting Through raw storytelling it seeks to guide Marines in evading service related pitfalls fortify understanding between Marine families and mend the delicate fabric of father son relationships Addressing the often unspoken emotional challenges faced by military families this profound and insightful work serves as a healing blueprint for those navigating the intricate dance of love duty trauma and legacy standing as a beacon of hope and resilience Our story, by C.A.B. C A. B,1888 The Hero of Our Story Edwin Faust,2022-09-30 When we know who we truly are rather
