Our Stories Our Lives:

Our Stories, Our Lives Wahida Shaffi, 2009 In the opening years of the 21st century we see a number of Muslim women who have achieved positions of influence Women who care about the society in which they live and bring up their children and who increasingly find a voice together to promote values and who work together to make things happen The Art of Narrative Therapy: Retelling Our Stories to Heal Our Lives Pasquale De Marco, In this transformative book we embark on a journey of self discovery and healing through the power of narrative therapy Drawing inspiration from real life stories we explore how the stories we tell ourselves about our lives shape our experiences and influence our well being Narrative therapy is a collaborative approach that empowers individuals to challenge and rewrite the unhelpful stories that hold them back It recognizes that people are not simply victims of their circumstances or past experiences but rather active participants in the stories of their lives With the guidance of a skilled therapist individuals can uncover new perspectives reframe their experiences and create new more empowering narratives Through engaging case studies and practical exercises readers will learn how to Identify the stories that are causing them distress Challenge and deconstruct these stories Develop new more helpful stories Take action to create a more fulfilling life Narrative therapy can be used to address a wide range of challenges including anxiety depression trauma relationship problems and addiction It can also be helpful for people who are struggling with life transitions such as divorce job loss or retirement Whether you are facing a specific problem or simply seeking greater fulfillment in your life this book offers a roadmap for change With compassion and insight it guides readers on a journey of self discovery helping them to rewrite their stories and create a life that is truly their own This book is an essential resource for anyone seeking to overcome adversity heal from trauma and live a more meaningful and authentic life It is a testament to the power of narrative therapy and its ability to transform lives If you like this book write a review Our Lives - Our Stories Roland Pfau, Asli Göksel, Jana Hosemann, 2021-01-18 Sign languages are non written languages Given that the use of digital media and video recordings in documenting sign languages started only some 30 years ago the life stories of Deaf elderly signers born in the 1930s 1940s have except for a few scattered fragments in film not been documented and are therefore under serious threat of being lost The chapters compiled in this volume document important aspects of past and present experiences of elderly Deaf signers across Europe as well as in Israel and the United States Issues addressed include i historical events and how they were experienced by Deaf people ii issues of identity and independence iii aspects of language change iv experiences of suppression and discrimination The stories shared by elderly signers reveal intriguing yet hidden aspects of Deaf life On the negative side these include experiences of the Deaf in Nazi Germany and occupied countries and harsh practices in educational settings to name a few On the positive side there are stories of resilience and vivid memories of school years and social and professional life In this way the volume contributes in a significant way to the preservation of the cultural and linguistic heritage of Deaf communities and sheds light on lesser known aspects against an

Hammack,2014-01-13 If it ain t broke don t fix it But it s no secret that the Christian church is broke and does need fixing Despite great effort things are going badly for us We ve tried trendy and tech savvy entrepreneurial and coffee house gritty They re not helping Our problem is deeper than that Our problem is our instincts instincts informed by our story There was a time when the Christian church was a powerfully transformative presence in society It can be again but it will require radical rethinking of the story that informs our instincts And it s time It s been five hundred years since the Reformation our last major update Today is a pivotal moment in history With our worldview upended by quantum physics history is demanding we renew the Christian story for our times Rethinking Our Story reframes the elements of the Christian narrative for the new era It explores quantum ways of thinking about God human nature Jesus salvation and the afterlife The future of the church and the health of our society depend on our willingness to rethink retell and live out a better story We will either update our instincts and contribute to the earth s well being or disappear into oblivion Our Stories John Martin Fischer,2009-05-06

In this collection of essays on the metaphysical issues pertaining to death the meaning of life and freedom of the will John Martin Fischer argues against the Epicureans that death can be a bad thing for the individual who dies He defends the claim that something can be a bad thing a misfortune for an individual even if he never experiences it as bad and even if he does not any longer exist Fischer also defends the commonsense asymmetry in our attitudes toward death and prenatal nonexistence we are indifferent to the time before we are born but we regret that we do not live longer Further Fischer argues against the immortality curmudgeons such as Heidegger and Bernard Williams that immortal life could be desirable and shows how the defense of the possible badness of death and the possible goodness of immortality exhibit a similar structure on Fischer s view the badness of death and the goodness of life can be represented on spectra that display certain continuities Building on Fischer s previous book My Way a major aim of this volume is to show important connections between issues relating to life and death and issues relating to free will More specifically Fischer argues that we endow our lives with a certain distinctive kind of meaning an irreducible narrative dimension of value by exhibiting free will Thus in acting freely we transform our lives so that our stories matter Reading Our Lives William L. Randall,Elizabeth

McKim,2008-06-03 Against the background of Socrates insight that the unexamined life is not worth living Reading Our Lives The Poetics of Growing Old investigates the often overlooked inside dimensions of aging Despite popular portrayals of mid and later life as entailing inevitable decline this book looks at aging as potentially a process of poesis a creative endeavor of fashioning meaning from the ever accumulating texts memories and reflections that constitute our inner worlds At its center is the conviction that although we are constantly reading our lives to some degree anyway doing so in a mindful matter is critical to our development in the second half of life Drawing on research in numerous disciplines affected by the so called narrative turn including cognitive psychology neuroscience and the psychology of aging authors Randall and McKim articulate a vision of aging that promises to accommodate such time honored concepts as wisdom and spirituality one that understands aging as a matter not merely of getting old but of consciously growing old Story Of Our Lives, The: Homo Sapiens' Secrets Of Success Liat Ben David,2022-03-18 We are a restless world changing species We are the only organism that combines a multitude of abilities to harness the rules of nature continuously manipulating our environment its resources and even our own bodies to fit our ever changing needs and desires What is it that enables us to share some 99 percent of DNA as well as some basic behaviors with other organisms yet at the same time be so different and powerful Coalescing understandings driven from biology psychology anthropology history and more Ben David addresses the above question using a new paradigm The Gordian knot between five human traits imagination creative making complex communication change and intergenerational transfer evolutionary developed and co amplified as the ultra complex system called Homo sapiens Weaving personal stories with professional experience Ben David narrates innovative definitions of technology education science and their co dependence emphasizes their roles in the development of human societies deliberates their implications on everyday life discusses the crucial role of science education and offers a fresh look at who we are as the leading species on this planet Dr Liat Ben David is the CEO of the Davidson Institute of Science Education the educational arm of Israel s acclaimed Weizmann Institute of Science She holds a PhD in Molecular Biology and has more than 30 years of experience in the field of STEM education Ben David teaches regularly in various spheres including academia and TEDx she is an accomplished author who has published numerous articles and books This book is a 2023 Nautilus Book Awards winner This book is an INDIES Award Winning Finalist Living Our Story Larry A. Golemon,2010-12-31 Living Our Story explores how good narrative work the retrieval construction and performance of valued stories takes place in ministry Authors Larry A Golemon Lee Ramsey N Graham Standish Tim Shapiro Carol Johnson Mike Mather Niles Elliot Goldstein and Diana Butler Bass examine this question from a variety of perspectives including the role of the pastor or rabbi as narrative leader the sacred and mundane stories that shape congregational life and identity storytelling as a means of community building and story sharing as a practice of hospitality Through the stories they themselves tell these authors show how stories witness to God s presence in the unfolding of human life and how the best leaders craft stories that reveal how

God is at work among the people and inspire them to become a part of this larger story Psychological Perspectives Paul Avis,2009-12 Burnout to Brilliance Jayne Morris,2015-03-27 Are you ready to transform your life from Burnout to Brilliance Overwhelmed by the fast paced and technologically demanding world in which we live we routinely run on reserves and force ourselves to accept that constantly feeling tired is all part and parcel of living a busy and connected life When the warning signs of an impending burnout are ignored the outcome can be fatal It s time to take a journey of self discovery and awaken to a brilliantly renewed life In Burnout to Brilliance you will discover how to Identify the signs and symptoms of burnout Recover your energy and enthusiasm Regain your power passion and purpose Develop strategies for sustainable success On Living Our Explanations Lee Thayer,2017-02-08 People have always tried to explain whatever they want to talk about or have to deal with in their worlds To explain something to oneself or to others makes it comprehensible If the explanation becomes socially tenable it provides a person or a tribe with a perspective on their world a way of knowing it That perspective becomes their reality It is a virtual reality created by people for the use of those people Virtual realities are products of our talk and our minds which archive and channel the meaning of things First our minds get created and then our minds create us personally and collectively All human worlds that we know anything about function as they do based upon the meaning of their worlds and them in it Most of the other animals on earth dont have much to say about their pasts or their future People do because they invented the concept of the past and the concept of the future in order to think and talk about them Those who superseded us in our particular cultures invented explanations to give virtual reality to everything they wanted to talk about or do something about We live in and through those explanations as we understand them We invent our explanations on top of those we inherit and that we and our progenies will grow up living in and through This counter intuitive premise is that we do not live in any natural world We live consciously and even subconsciously in our worlds as we have explained them or could explain them Physiological or biological events certainly do occur But we deal with them according to what they meant to us Random events like accidents do occur But we can explain them before they occur and after they occur There is nothing that occurs in our worlds that we cannot explain or justify in some way Whether or not it rains is something we do not control But to talk about it or think about it we have to do so in and through our explanations Your lover may be dumping you for his or her own a priori explanations How you deal with it depends upon how you explain it to yourself We live and we die in accordance with our explanations of our worlds and of us in them We live our explanations

In Our Own Words Juliet Mousseau,Sarah Kohles,2018 Written by a diverse group of younger women religious from North America In Our Own Words offers a collection of essays on issues central to apostolic religious life today The thirteen authors represent different congregations charisms ministries and histories The topics and concerns that shape these chapters emerged naturally through a collaborative process of prayer and conversation Essays focus on the vows and community life individual identity and congregational charisms and leadership among younger members leading into the future The authors hope these chapters may form a springboard for further conversation on religious life inviting others to share their experiences of religious life in today's world Hidden Treasure Gangaji, 2011-09-01 An inspiring new book from one of our greatest living spiritual teachers All of these stories teach us that we aren't who we think we are How we have defined ourselves is not the truth of ourselves What we think we must have is already present and when we think we have lost the value of our lives it is still here if we know where to look from Hidden Treasure In this life-changing book renowned spiritual teacher Gangaji uses the telling of her own life story to help readers uncover the truth of their own Antoinette Toni Roberson Varner was given the name Gangaji by her teacher Sri H W L Poonja in 1990 Before that meeting she had pursued many paths to enlightenment Brought up in the 1950s in the racially divided south she married young and had a daughter Following the dissolution of her first marriage she moved to Northern California and immersed herself fully in the spiritual culture that was flourishing there but all her efforts to achieve lasting fulfillment ultimately fell short In the wake of her disillusionment she made a final prayer for help In 1990 the answer to her prayer came unexpectedly taking her to India and to the meeting that would change everything There on the banks of the river Ganges she met Poonja also known as Papaji who opened her mind to the eternal presence of being In Hidden Treasure Gangaji guides readers to the realization that once they can uncover and speak the truth about themselves deep and lasting contentment is entirely possible Narrative

Therapy Catrina Brown, Tod Augusta-Scott, 2006-08-03 Narrative Therapy Making Meaning Making Lives offers a comprehensive introduction to the history and theory of narrative therapy Influenced by feminist postmodern and critical theory this edited volume illustrates how we make sense of our lives and experiences by ascribing meaning through stories that arise within social conversations and culturally available discourses The Stories We Are William Lowell

Randall, 2014-01-01 William Lowell Randall explores the links between literature and life and speculates on the range of storytelling styles through which people compose their lives In doing so he draws on a variety of fields including psychology psychotherapy theology philosophy feminist theory and literary theory Circulating Communities Paula Mathieu, Stephen Parks, Tiffany Rousculp, 2012-01-01 Circulating Communities The Tactics and Strategies of Community Publishing edited by Paula Mathieu Steve Parks and Tiffany Rousculp represents the first attempt to gather the myriad of community and college publishing projects providing not only history and analysis but extended samples of the community writing produced Rather than feature only the voices of academic scholars this collection features also the words of writing group participants community organizers literacy instructors librarians and stay at home parents as well In libraries community centers prisons and homeless shelters across the US and around the world people not traditionally understood as writers regularly come together to write offer feedback revise publish and most importantly circulate their words The vast amount of literature that these community publishing projects create has historically been overlooked by scholars of literature journalism and literacy Over the past decade however higher education has moved outward off campus and into the streets Many of these efforts

build from writing and publication projects that extend back over decades are grassroots in nature and are independent of college efforts Circulating Communities offers a unique glimpse into how neighbor and scholar teacher and activist are using writing and publishing to improve the daily lives on the streets they call home It Takes a Child to Raise a Parent Janis Clark Johnston, 2013-04-04 While advice abounds from a variety of sources before parents embark on their parenting journeys the only parent preparation we actually receive comes from our family and peer stories Yet most adults do not realize that in day to day challenges of guiding our children something interesting happens As we steer our children through life we reopen our own childhood roads Just when our child most needs us we become needy ourselves as adults and parents we find that we have unresolved raising issues basic needs that were not met in our childhoods Our needs and memories echo and influence many of the parenting decisions we make even though we re unaware of those influences at times Fortunately children help parents reach their needs as much as their parents help them fulfill their own Our child ends up guiding us by connecting us to some earlier time in our life when we encountered distress We dredge up a lesson and we adapt by adhering to or changing the story that we tell ourselves about who we are We re negotiate the five basic needs that surface from our childhood memories as our youngsters pass through each of the developmental phases The self aware parent focuses on creative problem solving by focusing on one interaction at a time It Takes a Child to Raise a Parent offers an exploration of how our own childhood memories and needs influence and shape our parenting decisions in our adult lives Offering tips stories from a variety of families and step by step exercises Janis Johnston helps parents better understand and grasp the tools necessary to face parenting challenges head on and to explore new ways of understanding ourselves our children and our family interactions Expectant parents and current parents interested in understanding their own personality development as well as the many moods of childhood and their own children will find clear guidelines for understanding their roles in their children s lives as well as concrete suggestions for how to navigate the choppy waters of raising children

Youth Ministry from the Outside In Brandon K. McKoy, 2013-09-13 Brandon McKoy mines social construction theory to redirect our youth ministries from a focus on forming and protecting the private faith lives of students to cultivating an awareness of Christ in our midst in the overlapping relationships stories and spheres of life that make us who we are
