When my parents began writing life stories in their writing group I figured a few good stories would make it onto paper Well they did followed by many many more than I ever imagined The family history that emerged makes for exciting and revelatory reading From the family roots in Scotland and England to the shores of Connecticut then westward to Indiana the family grew and flourished The adventures and travels of the Lynch and Cook families span World Wars cross thousands of miles and yielded hundreds of photographs This book will captivate you with its fascinating twists and turns and with its tales of love and devotion It is indeed a feast of a book The Teacher and the Superintendent George E. Boulter II, Barbara Grigor-Taylor, 2015-12-03

From its inception in 1885 the Alaska School Service was charged with the assimilation of Alaskan Native children into mainstream American values and ways of life Working in the missions and schools along the Yukon River were George E Boulter and Alice Green his future wife Boulter a Londoner originally drawn to the Klondike had begun teaching in 1905 and by 1910 had been promoted to superintendent of schools for the Upper Yukon District In 1907 Green left a comfortable family life in New Orleans to answer the call to serve in the Episcopal mission boarding schools for Native children at Anvik and Nenana where she occupied the position of government teacher As school superintendent Boulter wrote frequently to his superiors in Seattle and Washington DC to discuss numerous administrative matters and to report on problems and conditions overall From 1906 to 1918 Green kept a personal journal hitherto in private possession in which she reflected on her professional duties and her domestic life in Alaska Collected in The Teacher and the Superintendent are Boulter s letters and Green s diary Together their vivid first hand impressions bespeak the earnest but paternalistic beliefs of those who lived and worked in immensely isolated regions seeking to bring Christianity and civilized values to the Native children in their care Beyond shedding private light on the missionary spirit however Boulter and Green have also left us an invaluable account of the daily conflicts that occurred between church and government and of the many injustices suffered by the Native population in the face of the misguided efforts of both institutions The New Larned History for Ready Reference, Reading and Research Josephus Nelson Larned, 1922 Bulletin of the Brockton Public Library, 1913 Quarterly Bulletin of the Providence Public Library Providence Public Library (R.I.), 1918 The Commercial & Financial Chronicle ..., 1918 Annual Report of the Director, United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, to the Secretary of Commerce U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, 1918
