Global Studies Research Pamela A. Zeiser, 2019-06-27 Global Studies Research is a research methods textbook designed for interdisciplinary International Studies majors and their faculty The textbook introduces interdisciplinarity provides basic building blocks of relevant disciplinary knowledge explains a process for integrating knowledge from multiple disciplines and models this interdisciplinary International Studies Research Process in its presentation of the case studies The Oxford Handbook of Global Studies Mark Juergensmeyer, Saskia Sassen, Manfred B. Steger (#d), 2019 Since the end of the Cold War globalization has been reshaping the modern world and an array of new scholarship has risen to make sense of it in its various transnational manifestations including economic social cultural ideological technological environmental and in new communications The chapters discuss various aspects in the field through a broad range of approaches This handbook focuses on global studies more than on the phenomenon of globalization itself although the various aspects of globalization are central to understanding how the field is currently being shaped New international studies on religions and dialogue in education Martin Ubani, 2018 What are the key questions highlighted in religious and spiritual education today Many global processes such as migration pluralism and the redefinition of citizenship challenge the traditional notions of borders concerning cultures states and nationalities ethnicities and even religions Consequently in societies today the distinction in religions or identities between global and local or inside and outside no longer functions well As the many borders in our world are becoming again more transparent and cultures blended there is an increasing and constant need to re examine the conceptions and theories concerning religion dialogue and education This volume brings together 14 new international studies based on selected presentations from the 14th Nordic Conference on Religious Education The topics of the articles include studies on religion dialogue and education in different contexts ranging from policy studies and higher education to home education and research on education about religions to confessional education The volume serves the interests of researchers policymakers practitioners and students of religious and spiritual education Resources in Education ,2001-04

Making the World Global Isaac A. Kamola, 2019-06-07 Following World War II the American government and philanthropic foundations fundamentally remade American universities into sites for producing knowledge about the world as a collection of distinct nation states As neoliberal reforms took hold in the 1980s visions of the world made popular within area studies and international studies found themselves challenged by ideas and educational policies that originated in business schools and international financial institutions Academics within these institutions reimagined the world instead as a single global market and higher education as a commodity to be bought and sold By the 1990s American universities embraced this language of globalization and globalization eventually became the organizing logic of higher education In Making the World Global Isaac A Kamola examines how the relationships among universities the American state philanthropic organizations and international financial institutions created the conditions that made it possible to imagine the world as global Examining the Center for International Studies Harvard Business School the World Bank the Social Science Research Council and NYU Kamola demonstrates that how we imagine the world is always symptomatic of the material relations within which knowledge is produced International Studies in Honor of Tom's Rivera Juliñ Olivares,1986-01-01 Tom s Rivera author of the award winning novel y no se lo trag la tierra passed away in 1985 and is commemorated in recollections by Rolando Hinojosa and Am rico Paredes and studies of his prose and poetry by leading critics of Chicano literature
