Our World, Lands and Cultures: Workbook (teacher's ed.) ,1983 For Land and Culture Peyman

Vahabzadeh,2024-10-23T00:00:00Z For Land and Culture offers the first comprehensive account of a long forgotten and neglected grassroots movement In the wake of Iran s 1979 revolution Turkmen peasants collectively occupied their ancestral lands which had been seized through colonial modernization land registry and land reform under the Pahlavi monarchy The book chronicles this movement using theoretical and historical engagement with the modern councils and offers a detailed account of the land question in Iran s colonial modernization The book describes the systematic dispossession of Turkmen communities from some of the most fertile areas in Iran Vahabzadeh shows how Turkmen land occupation in 1979 led to a sophisticated council system that offered a practical politics of semi autonomous democratic self governance in the face of hostile militias and other forces of the nascent authoritarian Islamic Republic With social justice as one of its unshakable pillars the Turkmen council movement took back land as commons and abolished capitalist private ownership of land providing an alternative to top down politics until it was defeated by the state through a combination of military terror and assimilation Although short lived the radically democratic movement connected with global struggles of Indigenous Peoples and autonomous movements that had broken away from patriarchal state forms and capitalist domination Responsibility and Cultures of the World Edith Sizoo,2010 This book brings together eleven contributions by authors from all parts of the world who have examined the notion of responsibility in their respective countries In the first part Edith Sizoo presents a comparative analysis of those texts which reflect a rich variety of worldviews and traditions harmony with the earth and relational ethics in the Maori culture of New Zealand juridical approach in France responsibility in Confucian thinking in China individualism in the face of collective duty in the United States duty and responsibility on the shores of the Congo responsibility in Arab Islamic culture encountering the sense of responsibility in Germany This book thus presents an intercultural vision of responsibility that is all the more interesting because the final texts are the outcome of an intense dialogue between the authors This exchange enhanced a more explicit expression of their respective points of view thus making these more accessible to people from other cultural backgrounds The Land of Many Faces Pasquale De

Rediscovering the Spiritual in God's Creation was held at the Serafino winery complex in the McLaren Vale region of South Australia. The aim of the conference was not to seek consensus but to survey the landscape with a view to intentional responsible action in caring for God's creation. Delegates were challenged to recognize their own worldviews and to widen their horizons to encompass the enormity of the transcendence and immanence of God's presence in all creation. A group of leading international scholars and experts in the fields of science, ecology, theology, and ethics participated in a multidisciplinary conversation on the spiritual in creation with the aim of discovering fresh horizons with regard to creation, care, liturgy, justice, and discipleship within the Christian community. The chapters in this volume reflect the diversity of perspectives summarized in The Serafino Declaration, which was crafted towards the end of the conference. This declaration, which opens the volume, outlines a range of views relating to the presence of the spiritual in creation, views that are both traditional and radical. This volume highlights the current concern over ecological destruction and finds sources of inspiration in the deepest roots of our traditions and forms of spirituality to sustain efforts towards custodianship of the land and care for God's creation. How to Thrive as a Solo Librarian Carol Smallwood, Melissa J. Clapp, 2011-09-16. How to Thrive as a Solo Librarian is a compilation of chapters by librarians offering advice to colleagues who must work alone or with very limited help. The contributors come from schools and colleges, special and corporate archives, public libraries, and seasoned LIS faculty across the United States and abroad who are familiar with the vigor, dedication, and creativity necessary for solo librarians. As noted in the Foreword, in many ways solo librarianship demands more communication and collaboration than librarians might experience in larger, multi-employee libraries. Despite the fact that most of the authors are currently working alone in their library or archives, they do not work in a vacuum. These chapters aim to help librarians thrive in the demanding environment that exists for the solo librarian. Topics covered include time management, community involvement, public relations, and marketing, professional development, internet-based ideas, administrative tasks, assessing and moving collections, and general overviews. How to Thrive as a Solo Librarian will be useful for all professionals and students in the field of librarianship.

Is God Done with America? Eric Carlson, 2011-03-24. From the founder of a messianic congregation, a powerful call to fulfill America's destiny by breaking down the barriers between Jews and Gentiles. America, drifting away from God and in a grave moral crisis, stands at a major spiritual crossroads. The truth of how this nation was founded and what its founders believed is being suppressed. Is America a Christian nation? Were America

s founders Christians Does America have a prophetic destiny If so will America fulfill that destiny These questions and more are answered by Rabbi Eric Carlson in Is God Done with America Based upon the One New Man of Ephesians 2:15 America's spiritual DNA was established through a prayer spoken by the founding colonists of the Jamestown Settlement in Virginia the birthplace and spiritual root of America A portion of this prayer exactly as it was written and quoted from the book Lawes Divine Morall and Martiall for the Colony of Virginea printed in the year 1612 was spoken twice daily And call in the Jewes together with the fulnesse of the gentiles that thy name may be glorious in al the world the dayes of iniquity may come to an end and we with all thine elect people may come to see thy face in glorie and be filled with the light thereof for evermore This prayer not only reveals a portion of Americas prophetic destiny it is key to the restoration of contemporary America's dying church Is God Done with America contains critical information regarding Jewish revival the restoration of signs and wonders to the body of Messiah and the reconciliation of Messianic Jews and Christians into one unified body

Designing Spatial Culture Roderick Adams, 2023-11-07 Designing Spatial Culture investigates a powerful experiential dialogue formed between the habitation of space and a diversified cultural realm This creative proposition binds and positions human activity and experience framing its histories currency and future Whilst the book distinguishes between the conditions of the existing urban architecture interior canon it embraces a new agency of space showcasing the encounters assemblies and designs that shape human behaviours and the cultural forms of the built environment Using authoritative case studies the book examines many locations and spaces ranging from new urban landscapes historical domestic spaces and contemporary architecture It embraces the most lavish and flamboyant to the most simplistic and minimal establishing a connected cultural narrative The book shifts the focus in the spatial realm from an object based experience where space is filled with things to a more complete immersive experience combining physical and digital A key part of this exploration is the relationship between the architecture and the interior which is often the most predominant spatial experience and fundamental to the understanding spatial experience and existing cultures Without the architectural enclosure the interior would lose its site context and structure for its existence Without an interior architecture would not fully develop an engaging spatial experience for the user The book rationalises this through extended use of a spatial probe which documents and summarises an evidence based research project capturing spatial culture data from a predominantly domestic setting The book is essential reading for students and researchers in architecture interior design and urban design Gleanings in Bee Culture ,1889 Material Cultures in Canada Thomas Allen,Jennifer Blair,2015-06-08 Material Cultures in Canada presents the vibrant and diverse field of material culture studies in Canadian literary artistic and political contexts today The first of its kind this collection features sixteen essays by leading scholars in Canada each of whom examines a different object of study including the beaver geraniums comics water a musical playlist and the human body The book s three sections focus in turn on objects that are persistently material on things whose materiality blends into the immaterial and on the materials of spaces Contributors highlight some of the most exciting new developments in the field such as the emergence of new materialism affect theory globalization studies and environmental criticism Although the book has a Canadian centre the majority of its contributors consider objects that cross borders or otherwise resist national affiliation This collection will be valuable to readers within and outside of Canada who are interested in material culture studies and in addition will appeal to anyone interested in the central debates taking place in Canadian political and cultural life today such as climate change citizenship shifts in urban and small town life and the persistence of imperialism A Narrative Inquiry into the Experiences of Vietnamese Children and Mothers in Canada Thi Thuy Hang Tran,2023-09-28 This book recounts the understanding of three Vietnamese children and their mothers experiences as they navigate being newcomers to Canada It explores the cultural traditional familial intergenerational personal social institutional political historical community and linguistic narratives shaping Vietnamese children and mothers as they compose their lives The author employs narrative inquiry as a methodological approach beginning by positioning herself through her narrative beginnings delving deep into philosophical and methodological underpinnings The author lays out the three child mother pairs experiences as they negotiated a new culture in Canada particularly the spaces of home schools and communities The book brings a holistic and relational way of understanding familial curriculum making as support for children s school curriculum making and for the ways in which Vietnamese families sustain their ongoing life making It also looks at the influence of the homeland s language culture and educational traditions Through the complex interplay between the children and mothers narratives and the writer s own stories this book discusses multiperspectival and multidimensional ways of supporting Vietnamese newcomers and other arrivals composing their lives in similar landscapes The book is relevant to educators researchers cultural brokers and policymakers opening avenues for understanding cultural ethics within the relational ethics of narrative inquiry as well as familial narratives in relation to institutional and social narratives Self Culture ,1896 Luther League Review ,1920 Collecting Cultures: Myth, Politics, and Collaboration in the 1948 Arnhem Land Expedition Sally K.
