Out Of Great Tribulation Baptists In The Ussr:

Russian Baptists and Orthodoxy, 1960-1990 Constantine Prokhorov, 2014-01-14 Russian Baptists and the Orthodox Church have had a difficult and at times dramatic relationship over the past century and a half. However the purpose of this thesis is to examine certain internal connections between these two Christian bodies. Despite the evident dissimilarity in theology, church practice and traditions, there is common ground which has been largely unexplored. A number of features inevitably brought them together such as living in the same country over a long period of time, sharing a history and national roots, responding to the same civic concerns and finally until recently using the same Russian Synodal translation of the Bible. This thesis explores first of all the roots of the issue of Orthodox Baptist similarities and dissimilarities in the nineteenth century. The remainder of the thesis focuses on 1960 to 1990. There is a chapter analyzing the way in which in significant areas Russian Baptist theology resembled Orthodox thinking. This is followed by a study of church and sacraments which again shows that Russian Baptist approaches had echoes of Orthodoxy. The thesis then explores Baptist liturgy showing the Orthodox elements that were present. The same connections are then explored in the area of Russian Baptist communal spiritual traditions. The examination of the Bible beliefs and behaviour also indicates the extent to which Russian Baptists mirrored Orthodoxy. Finally there is an analysis of the popular piety of the Russian Baptists and the way in which they constructed an alternative culture. The basic views of Russian Baptists between the 1960s and 1990 have been drawn from periodicals of the Russian Baptist communities and from interviews with pastors, presbyters and church members who were part of these communities. This often yields insights into primary theology which in relation to many issues differs from official Baptist declarations that tend to stress the more Protestant aspects of Russian Baptist life. The aim of the thesis is to show that in a period in the history of the USSR when the division between the Western world and the Soviet bloc was marked, there was a strong Eastern orientation among Russian Baptists. This changed when the USSR came to an end. Over a number of years there was mass emigration of Russian Baptists and in addition pro Western thinking gained considerable ground within the Russian Baptist community. During the period examined here, however, it is possible to uncover a great deal of evidence of Russian Baptists participating in Orthodox theology, spiritual mentality and culture.

Historical Dictionary of the Baptists William H. Brackney, 2021-02-15 Baptists are a major group of Christians with a worldwide presence. Originating in the English Puritan Separatist tradition of the 17th century, Baptists proliferated in North America and through missionary work from England, Europe and North America, they have established churches, associations, unions, missions and alliances in virtually every country. They are among the most highly motivated evangelists of the Christian gospel, employing at present in excess of 7 000 domestic and overseas missionaries. Important characteristics of the Baptists across their history are the authority of the Scriptures, individual accountability before God, the priority of religious experience, religious liberty, separation of church and state, congregational independence and a concern for the social implications of the gospel. Baptists recognize a twofold ministry deacons and pastors or a threefold order deacons elders pastors Historical Dictionary of the Baptists Third Edition expands upon the second edition with an updated chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on important events doctrines and the church founders leaders and other prominent figures who have made notable contributions The A to Z of the Baptists William H. Brackney, 2009-09-16 With 110 million members worldwide Baptists are surpassed only by Roman Catholic and Orthodox groups as the largest segment of Christians The term Baptist has its origins with the Anabaptists the denomination historically linked to the English Separatist movement of the 16th century Although Baptist churches are located throughout the world the largest group of Baptists lives in the Southern United States and the Baptist faith has historically exerted a powerful influence in that region of the country The A to Z of the Baptists relates the history of the Baptist Church through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on important events doctrines and the church founders leaders and other prominent figures who have made notable contributions This volume commemorates the 400th anniversary of the founding of the Baptist movement in 1609 Out of Great Tribulation Ernest Alexander Payne, 1976 Soviet Evangelicals since World War II Walter Sawatsky, 2007-02-19 Nearly annihilated in the Stalinist persecutions of the 1930s Soviet evangelicals emerged after the war in successive revival waves The extremities of survival brought four evangelical denominations into a single state approved union This book describes the subsequent unity struggles devoting major attention to the Reform Baptist split in 1961 when Soviet authorities again tried to destroy the movement The book describes regional differences techniques for evangelism and the lifestyle of local and regional leaders both the legally registered ones and those hiding from the authorities It also includes a frank description and analysis of the major missions to Eastern Europe as well as the foreign relations of Soviet evangelicals Every chapter raises issues for reflection often paradoxical about how the church should live in an unfriendly environment Illustrative material throughout personalizes a story that is overburdened with tragedy pathos and conflict The book is intended to fill a serious gap in the literature by providing a reliable sensitive treatment of a subject suffering from exaggerations on the one hand and the inadequate candor of Soviet spokesmen on the other It is based on a broad range of sources some of which were uniquely available to the author The more we understand each other the easier it is to love each other and to combat the suspicions that lead to war The European Baptist Federation Keith G. Jones, 2009-11-01 A criticism often leveled at Baptists is that they have no theology of ecclesial reality beyond the local In this book Keith Jones describes the history and current reality of the European Baptist Federation EBF which brings together over fifty national Baptist groups in Europe and the Middle East and seeks to demonstrate that there is an ecclesial reality within the organization expressed in its communal life mission activity working on theological education in relationship to other Christian world communions and in its decision making processes The role of the pivotal figure of the General Secretary of the EBF is examined with particular reference to two significant figures The relationship of European Baptists during the cold war era is explored as is the relationship to two key mission agencies from the USA who have done much work in Europe This represents ground breaking work in terms of an examination of how Baptists in Europe work together trans nationally

Ministries of Compassion among Russian Evangelicals, 1905-1929 Mary Raber, 2016-05-13 The present study fills a gap in the study of the evangelical movement in Russia by presenting a comprehensive picture of their compassionate ministry during their longest stretch of relative freedom before the 1980s Better known for their energetic preaching and literature work Russian evangelicals also gave attention to compassionate ministry although it was never extensive because of their marginal status They established assistance funds organized charitable institutions practiced urban rescue ministry participated in the Russian temperance movement and established economic communities Each area is distinct yet all were supported by the same set of theological convictions The Russian evangelicals were convinced that their witness should consist of good works as well as words and that the gospel had the power to undo human suffering While intentionally cultivating an attitude of concern for the needs of others they taught that compassion was the concern of all members of the community regardless of economic status or age In their publications evangelicals devoted a good deal of teaching to the proper Christian attitude toward money and giving They drew on Western models but also their indigenous sectarian roots

Dance or Die Toivo Pilli, 2009-04-01 This book focuses on the changes in the identity of Estonian Evangelical Christian Baptists ECB during the Soviet years 1945 1991 The author analyzed the influences that affected the life and self understanding of the ECB churches in this most northernmost of the three Baltic countries External pressures from the Soviet atheistic state and the internal dynamics of Estonian ECB churches are both considered and analyzed. Comparisons are drawn which show both the similarities with the wider Evangelical world and uniqueness of a local Baptist identity. The book based on extensive use of archive and other primary source materials makes an especial contribution to the important emerging field of the study of Evangelicals in Eastern Europe.

Baptist Ways Bill J. Leonard, 2003. This extensive resource traces significant aspects of Baptist history from the seventeenth through the twentieth centuries. It surveys basic beliefs, events, and experiences evident in Baptist communities. Leonard explores the effect of the Baptist identity on not just America but on the world and includes the emergence of English, British, Irish, and Caribbean Baptists to name a few. Also skillfully covered is the influence of the Baptist faith in the United States, including the development of African American Baptists and the numerous denominations that emerged in the twentieth century.

The Development of Russian Evangelical Spirituality Gregory L. Nichols, 2011-11-09. Today many evangelicals in the Russian speaking world emphasize sanctification as a distinctive mark of their Christian faith. This is a unique characteristic particularly in the European context. Their historic tapestry has been woven from a number of threads that originated in the second half of the nineteenth century. Missionary efforts of the German Baptists, a revival sparked by a British evangelist, and a pietistic awakening among the Mennonites in the South converged to form a tapestry that displays Protestant Baptist and Anabaptist heritage. Ivan Kargel uniquely participated in the formation and ministry of each of these threads. His life spans from Tsarist Russia to the Soviet Union. Kargel refused to adhere to a systematic view of theology. Instead, he urged believers to go to Scripture and draw from the riches of a life united with Christ. Kargel's influence today is keenly felt across the Russian speaking evangelical world as they seek to identify the roots of their spiritual identity. This book examines the influences on Ivan Kargel and offers insights into how his life and work are expressed in the tapestry of Russian evangelical spirituality.

Baptist Theology James Leo Garrett, 2009. This title offers a comprehensive analysis of Baptist theology. Embracing in one common trajectory the major Baptist confessions of faith, the major Baptist theologians, and the principal Baptist theological movements and controversies, this book spans four centuries of Baptist doctrinal history. Acknowledging first the pre-1609 roots, patristic, medieval, and Reformational of Baptist theology, it examines the Arminian versus Calvinist issues that were first expressed by the General Baptists and the Particular Baptists that dominated English and American Baptist theology during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries from

Helwys and Smyth and from Bunyan and Kiffin to Gill Fuller Backus and Boyce and that were quickened by the awakenings and the missionary movement Concurrently there were the Baptist defense of the Baptist distinctives vis a vis the pedobaptist world and the unfolding of a strong Baptist confessional tradition Then during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the liberal versus evangelical issues became dominant with Hovey Strong Rauschenbusch and Henry in the North and Mullins Conner Hobbs and Criswell in the South even as a distinctive Baptist Landmarkism developed the discipline of biblical theology was practiced and a structured ecumenism was pursued Missiology both impacted Baptist theology and took it to all the continents where it became increasingly indigenous Conscious that Baptists belong to the free churches and to the believers churches a new generation of Baptist theologians at the advent of the twenty first century appears somewhat more Calvinist than Arminian and decidedly more evangelical than liberal      The Annual Obituary ,1980
