Out Of The Blue The Role Of Luck In Air Warfare 1917 1966:

Out of the Blue Laddie Lucas, 1985 The Burning Blue Jeremy A. Crang, Paul Addison, 2010-07-15 It was of course the Battle of Britain or rather its conclusion that prompted one of Winston Churchill's most memorable pieces of oratory that has its epitome in the sentence Never in the field of human conflict was so much owed by so many to so few If the Battle of Britain had been lost it is very likely the New Order to which the Axis powers had pledged themselves would have become global with unthinkable consequences for the world afterwards The importance of the Battle of Britain cannot be exaggerated though inevitably in the succeeding years the accretion of myth has brought about many distortions This multifaceted symposium emerged from the Centre of Second World War Studies at Edinburgh University with the aim in the words of the editors to reassess established themes while opening up new ones After a masterly introduction by Brian Bond the book is divided into six parts Before the Battle The Battle The View from Afar Experience and Memory The Making of a British Legend and The Significance The contributors are Klaus A Maier Malcolm Smith Horst Boog Sebastian Cox Sergei Kudryshov Richard P Hallion Theodore F Cook Hans Ekkehard Bob Wallace Cunningham Nigel Rose Owen Dudley Edwards Angus Calder Tony Aldgate Adrian Gregory Jeremy Lake and John Schofield Paul Addison and Jeremy A Crang and Richard Overy No survey could be more wide ranging or fascinating First published in 2000 to mark the 60th anniversary it is now being reissued in 2010 to mark the 70th anniversary But it is terrific It's not only an acknowledgement of the heroism of the fighter pilots and all the ancillary crew but a serious contribution to the historical record Seventeen contributors write about the Battle from pretty much every conceivable angle and Addison and Crang have chosen them well This is not an automatically worshipful book it poses questions about the morality of war the existence of heroism the reliability of memory But it treats the subject honestly and with justice And it tells us why we won because it would appear it helps to come from a society that is sceptical of authority rather than in blind unthinking terror of it Nicholas Lezard Guardian This book is a first class piece of work stimulating informative and concise Brian Holden Reid Times Higher Education Supplement This is a nugget of a book it assembles most readably a range of authoritative and international views on the Battle its history and its significance Air Chief Marshall Sir Michael Graydon Royal United Services Institute This is a much told story but the varied viewpoints of the 20 contributors to Burning Blue ranging from a fascinating essay by Owen Dudley Edwards on the air war as reflected in children's literature to the memories of pilots who fought in it on both sides give an impressive breadth and depth And even though it strips away hindsight and refuses to burnish legends what is left is still one of the most remarkable stories in the whole of British history The British empire didn't last a thousand years but the man was right this truly was its finest hour David Robinson The Scotsman Voices In The Air 1939-1945 Laddie Lucas, 2011-04-30 A unique and enthralling anthology compiled by WWII flying ace Laddie Lucas Voices in the Air tells the story of the air battles of the Second World War in the voices of those who took part Drawn largely on the writings of the combatants themselves from all sides of the conflict this book offers a vivid and highly individual account of the great aerial campaigns of WWII From a thrilling account of the first sustained dogfight between Spitfire and Messerschmitt in 1940 to an eighteen year old Japanese suicide pilot s last letter home and the Luftwaffe leaders analysis of what went wrong after the Battle of Britain the book dramatically deals with every aspect of the war Full of stories of astonishing escapades incredible bravery dogged persistence and moving feats of arms Voices in the Air honours both the sung and the unsung heroes of the war is the fifth release in a series that provides a comprehensive insight into all aspects of RAF Bomber Command in World War Two It begins in late September 1944 when the Allied Bomber Offensive was at its height and takes us through to the end of the conflict The crews personal narrative puts you at the centre of each intense isolated and harrowing episode of aerial combat as the pilots of Bomber Command attempted to stave off fears of tragic injury and death from fighters flak and incessant operational pressure during raids on German cities waterways ports and oil installations This continued until the Luftwaffe and the Nachtjagd effectively ceased to exist their fuel supplies exhausted their losses in airmen reaching an unsustainable level and their aircraft and airfields decimated as a result of 24 hour Allied bombing Often it was the most exciting feats of bravery determination and daring that were marked by the most catastrophic losses Approximately 62 per cent of the 125 000 men who served as aircrew in Bomber Command during the war became casualties Of these 52 per cent were sustained while flying operations and a further ten per cent while on non operational flights in Britain It should never be forgotten that RAF Bomber Command played a hugely significant role in securing victory for the Allies carrying out mass raids by day and night that eventually culminated in them beating the life out of Germany Yet its crews were denied the campaign medal that they so richly deserved until very recently Here Martin Bowman attempts to provide an adequate tribute to the men of Bomber Command using first hand accounts to capture an authentic commentary of the times at hand in a release that is sure to capture the imaginations of all aviation enthusiasts Bomber Command: Reflections of War, Volume 2 Martin W. Bowman,2023-04-30 The Allied bombing of Berlin was the longest and most sustained bombing offensive against one target in the Second World War The Berlin Blitz By Those Who Were There is a compelling gripping and thought provoking story of the Allied bombing forces and the ordinary people on the ground told in their own tongue and with meticulous attention to detail The result is a coherent single story which unfolds in a straightforward and incisive narrative This work draws attention in some detail to the major raids on the Reich capital by RAF Bomber Command from the late summer of 1940 to

September 1943 It begins with the reliable but largely ineffective twin engined Blenheims Hampdens Wellingtons and Whitleys through to the introduction into front line service of the four engined heavies the Stirling Manchester and Halifax which bore the brunt of the bomber offensive until the advent of the incomparable Avro Lancaster in 1942 and the superlative Mosquito On 30 January 1943 on the tenth anniversary of Hitler s usurpation of power two formations each of three Mosquitoes appeared over Berlin in daylight and interrupted large rallies being addressed by Goering and Goebbels Sir Arthur Harris Commander in Chief RAF Bomber Command hoped to wreck Berlin from end to end and produce a state of devastation in which German surrender is inevitable But the Big City as it was known to his faithful old lags was never completely destroyed

The Path Finder Force Martin W. Bowman, 2016-03-30 Charged with the formidable task of locating and marking German targets for attack by the main force of Bomber Command the Path Finder Force 8 PFF Group and those in 5 Group was perhaps the most experienced and highly trained elite group created within the Royal Air Force during World War II Its aircrew members were almost entirely volunteers and despite the terrifying odds against any individual or complete crew ever completing the sixty sorties tour of operations with the PFF the most feared punishment was to forfeit their coveted Path Finder wings and be posted away to other units This remarkable evocation of a remarkable force is made up largely of narrative and photographs from the men who flew with or were an integral part of the PFF They alone are best qualified to recount the Path Finder story While the subject matter herein largely covers the four engined Stirlings Halifaxes and Lancasters and twin engined Mosquitoes of 8 PFF Group the Path Finding techniques used by 5 Group are not forgotten and there are two chapters detailing the work of the Oboe Mosquitoes and other markers in support of the night and day Main Force raids on German and Italian cities and individual targets in the Reich This book is a fitting tribute to the PFF and in particular to the crews who failed to return from the PFF s many operations
