Hobson, Fred Hobson, 2003 In this collection Fred Hobson has brought together eight essays on William Faulkner s Absalom Absalom The essays have been written over a span of 30 years and approach the novel both formally and historically Kelsey Grammar Jeff Rovin, 1995 Here at last is the real story of a star whose early life reads more like a Greek tragedy than a TV sitcom Grammar s father was murdered when Kelsey was 13 years old and Kelsey suddenly became man the man of the family His sister was raped and murdered when he was 21 and his two half brothers drowned a few years later Includes 8 page photo insert Aestheticism and Deconstruction Jonathan Loesberg, 2014-07-14 Considered an exemplar of Art for Art s Sake in Victorian art and literature Walter Pater 1839 1894 was co opted as a standard bearer for the cult of hedonism by Oscar Wilde and this version of aestheticism has since been used to attack deconstruction Here

Jonathan Loesberg boldly uses Pater's important work on society and culture Studies in the History of the Renaissance 1873 to argue that the habitual dismissal of deconstruction as aestheticist fails to recognize the genuine philosophic point and political engagement within aestheticism. Reading Jacques Derrida and Paul de Man in light of Pater's Renaissance, Loesberg begins by accepting the charge that deconstruction is aestheticist. He goes on to show, however, that aestheticism and modern deconstruction both produce philosophical knowledge and political effect through persistent self-questioning or self-resistance and in the internal critique and destabilization of hegemonic truths. Throughout, Loesberg reinterprets Pater and reexamines the contributions of deconstruction in relation to the apparent theoretical shift away from deconstruction and toward new historicism.
