Feast of Excess George Cotkin, 2016 Feast of Excess is an engaging and accessible portrait of The New Sensibility as it was named by Susan Sontag in 1965 The New Sensibility sought to push culture in extreme directions either towards stark minimalism or gaudy maximalism Through vignette profiles of prominent figures John Cage Patricia Highsmith Allen Ginsberg Andy Warhol Anne Sexton John Coltrane Bob Dylan Erica Jong and Thomas Pynchon to name a few George Cotkin presents their bold headline grabbing performances and places them within the historical moment

The Baroque in Architectural Culture, 1880-1980 Andrew Leach, John Macarthur, 2016-03-09 In his landmark volume Space Time and Architecture Sigfried Giedion paired images of two iconic spirals Tatlin's Monument to the Third International and Borromini's dome for Sant Ivo alla Sapienza The values shared between the baroque age and the modern were thus encapsulated on a single page spread As Giedion put it writing of Sant Ivo Borromini accomplished the movement of the whole pattern from the ground to the lantern without entirely ending even there And yet he merely groped towards that which could be completely effected in modern architecture achieving the transition between inner and outer space The intellectual debt of modern architecture to modernist historians who were ostensibly preoccupied with the art and architecture of earlier epochs is now widely acknowledged This volume extends this work by contributing to the dual projects of the intellectual history of modern architecture and the history of architectural historiography It considers the varied ways that historians of art and architecture have historicized modern architecture through its interaction with the baroque a term of contested historical and conceptual significance that has often seemed to shadow a greater contest over the historicity of modernism Presenting research by an international community of scholars this book explores through a series of cross sections the traffic of ideas between practice and history that has shaped modern architecture and the academic discipline of architectural history across the long twentieth century The editors use the historiography of the baroque as a lens through which to follow the path of modern ideas that draw authority from history In doing so the volume defines a role for the baroque in the history of architectural historiography and in the history of modern architectural culture

Vincent Scully A. Krista Sykes,2023-08-24 The renowned architectural historian and critic beloved Yale professor and outspoken public activist Vincent Scully 1920 2017 emerged in the 1950s as a guiding voice in American architecture This intellectual biography of Scully s life and career traces the formative moments in his thinking mapping his relationships with a constellation of architects artists and cultural personalities of the past one hundred years Scully charted an unlikely course from postwar modernism to postmodernism and New Urbanism overturning outdated beliefs and changing the face of the built environment as he went A teacher for more than 60 years and a figure of immense importance in the field he was central to an expansive network of associations from Frank Lloyd Wright Louis Kahn and Robert Venturi to Robert Stern Harold Bloom and Norman Mailer Scully s extensive body of work with its range spanning centuries and civilizations coalesced around the core beliefs that architecture shapes and is shaped by society and that the best architecture responds above all else to the human need for community and connection This timely appraisal provides a platform for reassessing the legacy of these values as well as how we write and think about architecture in the twenty first century

The Transatlantic Collapse of Urban Renewal Christopher Klemek,2011-07 The Transatlantic Collapse of Urban Renewal examines how postwar thinkers from both sides of the Atlantic considered urban landscapes radically changed by the political and physical realities of sprawl urban decay and urban renewal With a sweep that encompasses New York London Berlin Philadelphia and Toronto among others Christopher Klemek traces changing responses to the challenging issues that most affected the lives of the world s cities In the postwar decades the principles of modernist planning came to be challenged in the grassroots revolts against the building of freeways through urban neighborhoods for instance or by academic critiques of slum clearance policy agendas and then began to collapse entirely Over the 1960s several alternative views of city life emerged among neighborhood activists New Left social scientists and neoconservative critics Ultimately while a pessimistic view of urban crisis may have won out in the United States and Great Britain Klemek demonstrates that other countries more successfully harmonized urban renewal and its alternatives This much anticipated book provides one of the first truly international perspectives on
