Catalogue of Books ... ,1845 The Value of History Paul F Frank Beisbier,2019-07-09 The work that is about to be surveyed by the reader represents decades of painstaking work to provide him or her with the most positive and freshest perspective with respect to what the discipline of history teaches him or her to improve the quality of not only his or her daily life but also those of all other whom he or she comes into contact with This task is accomplished when he or she becomes aware of the fact that the greatest possible good can only be achieved through the promotion of the adequate satisfaction of the greatest number of needs of the maximum number of people within the context of its being mutually beneficial to all parties involved Furthermore the reader of this volume gains the widest perspective on how the above assertion is valid for and has a positive impact on all fields of human endeavor individual human lives and human institutions since the content of historical subject matter consists of nothing less than the past and present record of all the events and developments of the above entities Thus since everything that people learn is through past and present experiences history teaches them everything and nothing can be perceived outside the framework of its subject matter To present a graphic example to the reader of this volume to clearly illustrate the truth and validity of the above points the author has used the comparison and contrast of the values beliefs and cultures of two very different societies in variant times and places to do so The retrograde valuing of power and wealth placed on them by a small elite in European medieval society resulting in limited social mobility in a primarily agrarian society is in marked contrast to the emphasis on limited individual freedom within the framework of the rule of law as espoused by modern America Within the latter framework it was possible to develop a modern industrial and postindustrial community to provide individual social advancement through educational and employment opportunities as well as through the availability of quality health care Finally through all that has been stated above it is worthwhile for society at large as well as the academic community to peruse through the contents of this volume in order to accomplish the above objectives Aljadid ,2005 A Poetics of Arabic Autobiography Ariel M. Sheetrit,2020-02-27 This book examines the poetics of autobiographical masterpieces written in Arabic by Leila Abouzeid Hanan al Shaykh Samuel Shimon Abd al Rahman Munif Salim Barakat Mohamed Choukri and Hanna Abu Hanna These literary works articulate the life story of each author in ways that undermine the expectation that the self the auto of autobiography would be the dominant narrative focus Although every autobiography naturally includes and relates to others to one degree or another these autobiographies tend to foreground other characters voices places and texts to the extent that at times it appears as though the autobiographical subject has dropped out of sight even to the point of raising the question is this an autobiography These are indeed autobiographies Sheetrit argues albeit articulating the story of the self in unconventional ways Sheetrit offers in depth literary studies that expose each text s distinct strategy for life narrative Crucial to this book s approach is the innovative theoretical foundation of relational autobiography that reveals the grounding of the self within the collective not as symbolic of it This framework exposes the intersection of the story of the autobiographical subject with the stories of others and the tensions between personal and communal discourse Relational strategies for self representation expose a movement between two seemingly opposing desires the desire to separate and dissociate from others and the desire to engage and integrate within a particular relationship community culture or milieu This interplay between disentangling and conscious entangling constitutes the leitmotif that unites the studies in this book
