Argosy All-story Weekly, 1928 Raisin' Cane in Appalachia David Osborne, 2013-04-24 Author David Osborne has brought to life the difficult experiences and carefree joys of growing up in Appalachia The family consisted of thirteen children plus Mom and Dad and they lived on the old home place that the family referred to simply as The Holler The children worked tirelessly alongside their father Steve and mother Thelma to coax perhaps force a living from the hills and the small amount of level land that they called a farm We all had full time yearlong jobs Osborne remembers The kinds of work that we did often varied from season to season but the work itself was always there Osbornes ancestors having come from Southwest Virginia through Pike County Kentucky and settling in Southern Ohio always lived a difficult life There was hunting and fishing hog killing cane grinding and plowing the rocky land to raise a garden His grandfather was always full of hair raising stories and tall tales that would curl your toes He knew that all his ancestors were not thoroughbreds and he also knew that some could have been considered nags so he knew that the tall tales were not far from the truth Life was not always about work because above all there were the children and their attempts to have fun Through their relentless efforts by the rambunctious irrepressible and in many cases irresponsible children to amuse themselves they played as hard as they worked They survived in spite of everything life could throw against them These were simpler times when the family grew up There were no phones or television sets in the house They had no electricity or running water therefore making the outhouse a significant part of their lives Those that grew up during this time will remember and may linger a moment to compare their lives with the events and situations in this book Some may tend to look back fondly at the memories but just keep in mind that there were many memories that we all would just as soon forget

The Epic Adventures of Whiz Grass and Poot Berry Frank,Church,Aloura Barnas,2011-10-14 As you should have guessed by the title this is not the standard bedtime story with a princess and a prince and an evil stepparent and some sort of magic spell Not one castle nor trolls not even an enchanted forest is tucked with loving care into this bedtime story To be totally honest about the whole shebang its not so much a bedtime story as a bedtime epic event An explanation may be in order right about now There are 30 Adventures in this saga to be read in order as bedtime stories No skipping around mind you because it will make even less sense if you do that so when you get to the Temple of the Belchmonkeys and your mind is not totally prepared for it well thats a whole different bucket of pickles altogether And you could rip through more than one story in a night but that might just make your kids loopy 30 Adventures 30 nights so youre pretty much covered for a month Now somebodys going to screech that some months have 31 days thanks May and October and you other troublemakers for screwing this up and so you have a day left over And theres some real hollering going on about the February problem and how if you read this story during that month even during a leap year you still have extra story left over The thing is the story is 30 nights long because its a nice round number unlike 31 which is prime for crying out loud and thats how long the story takes to tell So there The important idea is that this is an interactive story Not a passive story where your kid lays there like an unfortunate lump on the mattress and you yammer on until you bore the poor child to sleep This story has a narrator reading the action lines thats you sport There are also 21 different voices in the tale all of which youll have fun doing Even better let your child read along and read a voice or two The full list of voices is on the next few pages plus what we think they sound like although you can change them pretty much any way you want Its not like were keeping score Also you will find action lines sprinkled throughout Youll recognize these because theyre in italics so they look like theyre in motion hence we call them action lines and they instruct you or your offspring to do certain things Be nice and gentle since youll have to start a pillow fight in Adventure 1 Remember youre bigger Play nice
