Creative Strategies for Conflict Management & Community Building Christian Ndubueze Anyanwu, 2009-11 This book in applying the asset mapping theory of Kretzmann and McKnight 1993 developed a positive communication strategy for minimizing conflicts and building a more Collaborative Communities in Organizations and Churches with much emphasis on inclusivity consensus and commitment to common vision and ideals While critically reviewing the traditional conflict theories in their approaches to conflict management the book uses the new lens provided by the asset mapping theory to recommend for a paradigm shift in the way people look at organizations and conflicts A new emphasis therefore is on the positive elements in organizations the assets that lie within individuals and groups as the key to minimizing conflict in organizations Besides unlike the traditional conflict theories which sees conflict as a problem this new lens sees conflict within organizations as functional and opportunities for growth The book equally identifies some of the significant factors that cause ethnic conflicts within organizations such as Prejudices among Ethnic Groups Differences of Ethnic Groups Power Struggle among Ethnic Groups Discrimination and Injustice against Groups Lack of Participatory Communication and Lack of Participatory Leadership Finally in reviewing the relevant literatures on Community Building the book underlines the various variables that make Community Building possible Such variables include Discovering and Mobilizing the Assets of Individuals and Groups within Organizations Building Relationships among Individuals and Groups within Organizations Building a more Participatory Leadership within Organizations Building a more Participatory Communication within Organizations Creating more Awareness on the necessity of Collaborative Initiatives as well as Promoting the Common Cultural Values and Ideals that holds Individuals and Groups together within Organization

The Creative Power William E. Smith, 2008-11-15 Over the last two decades a major focus of organization theory has been on understanding the dynamic relationships between individuals organizations and their environments This interest in dynamics illustrated by systems chaos and complexity theory is recorded in the works of Ackoff Senge and Stacey This focus offers a new viewpoint on holism for practising leaders and theorists today Building on this interest Smith's original text presents a new philosophical lens for helping leaders see the advantages of a more holistic approach to improving organizations Specifically he introduces the AIC appreciation influence control philosophy model and process of purpose power relationships as a next step in the evolution of organization and systems theory traces its roots and evolution in organization theory and indicates its actual and potential contribution to that field translates the model into a transformative strategic organizing process that can be used to organize at any level in a way that will ensure the achievement of higher levels of purpose at less cost and in less time than traditional organizational approaches Developed and tested via his work for organizations including the World Bank this revolutionary book will change the way organizations and individuals work
