Daguerreotypes and Other Essays Isak Dinesen, 1979 Isak Dinesen had an original approach to life that permeated all her work She loved storytelling with the result that most of her essays are quasi narratives which proceed not from major to minor premise but from one anecdote to another as the way of making concrete whatever idea she is considering Her work is a delight and at times a marvel The New Yorker Through these daguerreotypes we begin to understand other periods the renunciations of World War I the purpose of houses and mansions of ritual ceremonials such as tattooing We are given a fresh and vivid view of the women s movement which urges that what our small society needs beyond human beings who have demonstrated what they can do is people who are Indeed our own time she wrote in 1953 can be said to need a revision from doing to being She demonstrated it in her own work and craft with courage and with dignity This collection is as real as a gallery of old daguerreotypes moving and unfaded The work as Hannah Arendt says of a wise woman Robert Kirsch Los Angeles Times These essays have the flavor of good conversation humorous easy personal but not oppressive the distillation of reading thought and experience Their subjects are of surprisingly current interest We need make no concessions to the past need not set our watches back to historical Isak Dinesen was not a faddish thinker In history it is always the human element that has a chance for eternal life Dinesen remarks and she gives these essays their chance

Longing for Darkness Kamante, Peter Hill Beard, 1975 Kamante hero of Isak Dinesen s Out of Africa relates autobiographical tales and his rendering of European fables Illustrated in bandw by his water colors and photographs by Dinesen and Peter Beard who collected and translated the tales from Swahili and had Kamante s son hand write them for the book 8x12 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Isak Dinesen's Africa Isak Dinesen, Arthus-Bertrand, Yann, 1985 In her memoir Out of Africa and in short stories Danish born writer Dinesen evoked a timeless Africa distilled from her 18 years on a Kenya coffee plantation This lovely looking but ultimately shallow picture book a tie in with the film based on Out of Africa splices excerpts from Dinesen s autobiographical writings stories and letters with color photographs of Africa s land people and wildlife For readers familiar with her works the album is pleasant enough though readers expecting visual signs of today s real changing troubled Africa will be disappointed In an almost apologetic introduction Judith Thurman Dinesen s biographer notes that the writer was not a conservationist enjoyed big game hunting and had paternalistic feudal relationships with Africans Nevertheless Dinesen upheld the dignity and value of African culture and her rhythmic prose captured the complex poetry of Africa's landscape. These positive qualities are rendered in photos taken by Peter Beard, Galen Rowell, Frank Connor, and others.
