Out Of The Darkness Coping With Disability:

Out of the Darkness Robert Lovering,1993 Walking Isn't Everything Jean Denecke,2008 Walking Isn't Everything was written by Jean Denecke about her experience of living with polio This book discusses what it was like to get polio her experiences with various hospitals and doctors and her experience in the Roosevelt Foundation facility in Warm Springs Georgia Giving a glimpse of how the delivery of medical services have changed since the polio epidemics of the early 1950s the book describes what it was like to be a woman with a disability in that era Even though she was hospitalized for a long time after going to Warm Springs she was able to return to her home where she continued in her role as a wife and mother and later started her own business Walking Isn't Everything is more than just a biography of one remarkable woman it is a story of courage determination and love Living with Polio Daniel J. Wilson,2008-11-15 Polio was the most dreaded childhood disease of twentieth century America Every summer during the 1940s and 1950s parents were terrorized by the thought that polio might cripple their children They warned their children not to drink from public fountains to avoid swimming pools and to stay away from movie theaters and other crowded places Whenever and wherever polio struck hospitals filled with victims of the virus Many experienced only temporary paralysis but others faced a lifetime of disability Living with Polio is the first book to focus primarily on the personal stories of the men and women who had acute polio and lived with its crippling consequences Writing from personal experience polio survivor Daniel J Wilson shapes this impassioned book with the testimonials of more than one hundred polio victims focusing on the years between 1930 and 1960 He traces the entire life experience of the survivors from the alarming diagnosis all the way to the recent development of post polio syndrome a condition in which the symptoms of the disease may return two or three decades after they originally surfaced Living with Polio follows every physical and emotional stage of the disease the loneliness of long separations from family and friends suffered by hospitalized victims the rehabilitation facilities where survivors spent a full year or more painfully trying to regain the use of their paralyzed muscles and then the return home where they were faced with readjusting to school or work with the aid of braces crutches or wheelchairs while their families faced the difficult responsibilities of caring for and supporting a child or spouse with a disability Poignant and gripping Living with Polio is a compelling history of the enduring physical and psychological experience of polio straight from the rarely heard voices of its survivors A Practical Guide to Health Promotion After Spinal Cord Injury Indira S. Lanig,1996 A clearly identified but largely unmet need after spinal cord injury i s health and fitness promotion This book integrates multifaceted heal th oriented principles and practices into the rehabilitation of those with spinal cord injury and serves as a resource in both rehabilitatio n facilities and in community based settings Tables figures illustr ations and educational handouts complement the text Carefully design ed patient handouts save you time creating self care take home materi als and boost compliance Falling into Now Claire Smith,2018-10-19 When Claire reflects on her life now in the opening chapter she mentions that her right leg is in a brace Readers are left wondering what happened Why is she grateful to be able to walk only a few steps The answer is gradually revealed over the course of the memoir as Claire writes about her equestrian life and the years following its sudden end on September 13 1997 While she chronicles her past her story weaves into and out of the now Although Claire feels that she will never completely let go of the successes or of the crushing disappointments that accentuated her time in the equestrian world this memoir is about so much more It s about being driven to pursue a goal It s about a life changing loss It s about arduous recovery It s about a life evolving into something completely unexpected A compelling story of determination resilience and persistence in the face of tremendous loss this memoir is bound to be inspiring particularly for the many individuals who are forced to confront life altering challenges Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1995 Perspectives

Technology Review ,1918 Radio and the Gendered Soundscape Christine Ehrick,2015-07-23 This book is a history of women s voices on the radio in two of South America s most important early radio markets It explores what it meant to hear female voices on the radio and asks readers to consider gender in its aural and sonic dimensions Mental Capacity,

Dignity and the Power of International Human Rights Julia Duffy,2023-08-17 Personhood in liberal philosophical and legal traditions has long been grounded in the idea of autonomy and the right to legal capacity However in this book Julia Duffy questions these assumptions and shows how such beliefs exclude and undermine the rights of adults with cognitive disability Instead she reinterprets the right to legal capacity through the principle of the interdependence and indivisibility of human rights In doing so she compellingly argues that dignity and not autonomy ought to be the basis of personhood Using illustrative case studies Duffy demonstrates that the key human rights values of autonomy dignity and equality can only be achieved by fulfilling a range of interdependent human rights With this innovative book challenging common assumptions about human rights and personhood Duffy leads the way in ensuring civil economic political social and cultural inclusion for adults with cognitive disabilities

Awakening in the Paradox of Darkness Gary Tzu, 2014-04 In Awakening in the Paradox of Darkness Gary Tzu illuminates a path from within the dark realms to awakening into non dual being By allowing dreaded experiences such as fear trauma exhaustion abandonment nothingness death and non existence to serve as a portal into non dual transformation we discover the light within the darkness revealing the bedazzling paradoxical mystery of existence In this book Gary invites readers on a healing journey into the heart of their darkest experiences for it is there in the midst of their most profound dread that non dual awakening lies

Disability and Rehabilitation in Rural Jamaica Ronnie Linda Leavitt, 1992 Although negative conditions exist it appears that disabled children are not particularly stigmatized at the household level Nevertheless societal stigmatization and apathy do exist As a result disabled children are not being prepared to fully integrate into Jamaican society 2 There is a range of variation of beliefs and behaviors with regard to disability and rehabilitation The concept of intracultural diversity is supported 3 This population has adapted their cultural belief systems and actual behaviors to match their material realities That is it would appear that people who have a disability and their caretakers have demonstrated contextual accommodation 4 Community based rehabilitation programs based on the primary health care and community participation principles enumerated by the WHO are theoretically sound and practically attainable in Jamaica
