Out Of The Old Earth:

Out of the Old Earth Harold Heslop, 1994 Harold Heslop was born in 1898 in the mining village of New Hunwick near Bishop Auckland in the heart of the Durham coal field He started work underground at the age of 13 and worked for fifteen years at Harton Colliery in South Shields before winning a union scholarship to the Central Labour College in London His first novel was published in the Soviet Union in 1925 where it sold over half a million copies His second The Gate of a Strange Field was about the General Strike and the six month lock out of the miners Harold Heslop published seven books in all including a thriller much admired by Dorothy Sayers a book about the abdication of Edward VIII and The Earth Beneath a historical novel about the struggles to build the miners unions in the nineteenth century When he died in 1983 he left a mass of unpublished manuscripts including this memoir Out of the Old Earth is a classic of working class autobiography rich in its portrayal of growing up and starting work in a Durham pit village Its first hand descriptions of work underground are among the most vivid and detailed ever published But this is also a book about his travels and adventures as a writer in the 1930s Harold Heslop was the only British writer invited to speak at the International Conference of Revolutionary and Proletarian Writers held in Kharkov in the Ukraine in 1930 He witnessed a show trial and watched the epic building of a dam on the Dnieper he drank with the Nobel prizewinning novelist Mikhail Sholokov in the bar of the Moscow Writers Union and in Leningrad he met Yevgeny Zamyatin author of the banned novel We who had lived on Tyneside during the First World War

The Boy Who Bought Old Earth Cordwainer Smith, 2022-07-21 In The Boy Who Bought Old Earth Cordwainer Smith weaves a tapestry of intricate narratives set within his celebrated Instrumentality universe The novella explores the themes of destiny identity and social hierarchy revealing a future where humanity has diverged into various forms Smith's elegant prose juxtaposes the highly sophisticated structures of his world with the raw emotion of the characters providing a literary style that is both poetic and profound Through the eyes of a young boy with extraordinary visions the narrative accentuates the tension between material desires and spiritual fulfillment skillfully encapsulating the existential dilemmas of humanity in a far flung future Cordwainer Smith whose real name was Paul Linebarger was deeply affected by his varied experiences including his knowledge of psychology and his fascination with Eastern philosophies These influences permeate his work allowing him to create worlds that challenge conventional science fiction tropes Smith's background in politics and his commitment to humanistic ideals lend depth to his exploration of societal dynamics and individual agency thus enriching the context in which this novella exists Readers seeking a thought provoking and emotionally resonant story will find The Boy Who Bought Old Earth an indispensable addition to their library Smith's masterful ability to blend futuristic settings with timeless human questions invites reflection and sparks the imagination This work not only underscores his status as a visionary in the genre but also serves as a poignant reminder of our responsibilities as stewards of our own world

The First Judgment The World Prior To Adam There may have been many judgments upon the earth since its beginning millions or billions of years ago however the present commentary will deal only with the last tens of thousands of years of earth's existence In Genesis 1:2 the verses written by Moses as author of the Genesis account portray an earth that was veiled in darkness so that its form could not be discerned The earth at that time was covered with water ice high above the mountain tops so that it gave the appearance of being a dark revolving sphere of frozen water Table 2 God's spirit is described as hovering over this revolving ball of water and brooding over the sad condition of this dark void planet God did not create a dark and dismal planet at the beginning because God does not create darkness in fact darkness is incompatible with His existence and presence So what had happened that God viewed Gen 1:2 such a decrepit state of the world Does scripture attempt to explain this phenomenon or does the inspired word of God remain silent on this issue It was first proposed as a theory by the Scotsman Thomas Chalmers in the early 19th century that a gap in time existed between Genesis 1:1 and Genesis 1:2 This gap in time would encompass a ruin reconstruction theme and the existence of pre Adamic living beings Obviously a huge catastrophic event would have had to occur to produce this decadent state of the world The gap concept was later popularized by mention in the margin notes of the Scofield Reference Bible
