Outback Woman:

The Countrywoman, 1934      Woman's World/Woman's Empire Ian Tyrrell, 2014-03-19 Frances Willard founded the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in 1884 to carry the message of women's emancipation throughout the world. Based in the United States, the WCTU rapidly became an international organization with affiliates in forty-two countries. Ian Tyrrell tells the extraordinary story of how a handful of women sought to change the mores of the world not only by abolishing alcohol but also by promoting peace and attacking prostitution, poverty, and male control of democratic political structures. In describing the work of Mary Leavitt, Jessie Ackermann, and other temperance crusaders on the international scene, Tyrrell identifies the tensions generated by conflict between the WCTU's universalist agenda and its own version of an ideologically and religiously based form of cultural imperialism. The union embraced an international and occasionally ecumenical vision that included a critique of Western materialism and imperialism. But at the same time, its mission inevitably promoted Anglo-American cultural practices and Protestant evangelical beliefs deemed morally superior by the WCTU. Tyrrell also considers from a comparative perspective the peculiar links between feminism, social reform, and evangelical religion in Anglo-American culture that made it so difficult for the WCTU to export its vision of a woman-centered mission to other cultures. Even in other Western states, forging links between feminism and religiously based temperance reform was made virtually impossible by religious class and cultural barriers. Thus, the WCTU ultimately failed in its efforts to achieve a sober and pure world, although its members significantly shaped the values of those countries in which it exercised strong influence. As an urgently needed history of the first large-scale worldwide women's organization and non-denominational evangelical institution, Woman's World: Woman's Empire will be a valuable resource to scholars in the fields of women's studies, religion, history, and alcohol and temperance studies.

The Australian Woman's Survival Guide Mia Balwyn, 2007 Do you know all the verses to the National Anthem? Do you need help to finally get the kids to leave home? How do you choose the best Australian wines? And how do you make a campfire if you are lost in the wilderness? This guide can turn your life around and place your destiny firmly in your own hands.

On the Wallaby Track Laine Cunningham, 2017-01-05      A Woman's Voice Alli Sinclair, 2025-07-22 When violin virtuoso Laura Hartley's priceless instrument is stolen, more than just her celebrated European career disintegrates. Her rare gift of seeing music in colour fades to grey, crushing the sense of self she's always expressed through her performances. Fleeing to her grandmother's home in the Australian outback, Laura discovers an extraordinary legacy woven through sheets of music: a powerful symphony born from the revolutionary hearts of suffragettes who refused to be silenced, their defiant voices rising above the doomed decks of the Titanic. But as Laura traces each note of this forgotten masterpiece, she uncovers more than just music. She finds a story of women who dared to smash society's chains, claim their own destiny, and fight for a world where every voice can be heard. When scandal rocks the tight-knit community of Gunderring, Laura must confront the question that has haunted generations of women before her: will she remain safely in the wings or step forward and fight In this soaring tale of inheritance courage and the fierce bonds between women across time we re reminded that the most powerful revolutions often begin with a single voice and that true freedom lies in finding the courage to become who we were always meant to be      The Third Testament - A Woman's Testimony with Mankind Lin Reeves-Spencer,2017-10-02 Beware You may lose your sensibility Look in the eyes of the three women When you gather enough courage take a deep breath and board this crudely carved tuc tuc Might it be the gateway to unfold mysterious life forms The river will charm you Allow untold beauty of this rain forest flora to lure your imagination into the physical warfare If you dare release all fears as they have become untruths onto your soul Now join these two journeys two strands each inseparably intertwined Hold onto the rope Spencer continues her lifelong travail in pursuit to clarify and to meld confusion of her being into an understandable life path Then emergence of a mysterious physical illness leads her into the grips of yet another journey This story includes other women that you met earlier in the boat You all provide rungs of Spencer s ladder ascending to her goal and yours A most important character in this more concrete journey is a man fascinating but in a miasma of evil and involved in shocking developments Based on truth the fabulous scuba dives including playful dolphin romantic getaways and captured daydreams all the while drug overlords of greed will excite your primal juices You are guaranteed to greet invisible spirits of the inner spaces own your wanderlust and resolve restlessness of mind travel Between the excitement and exaggerations concerning some of the extraordinary incidents belonging to this physical odyssey are you now able to own fabrication of past remembrances or are they allegoric in nature This hauntingly written and gripping history of a unique journey will remain with the reader long after the final page is turned      Shadow's Dream Madelyne Hallowell,2004-10 Harried Denver businesswoman Jesse Harless has had enough of the long hours and stress of her non advancing job Even her best friend and their forays into the glittering nightlife of the city cannot pull her out of this funk A chance meeting with an old friend propels her into the mysteries of the Native American culture where she is given an odd yet special gift an eight week old wolf pup she calls Shadow Despite her friends misgivings Jesse gives up everything and moves to Montana where she hopes to give her wolf the freedom and life he deserves Jesse enlists a company of new friends including an angry young Native American and an ex LA cop who learn to love and do their best to protect Jesse Shadow and his orphaned misfit pack Through her union with this cast of characters Jesse is able to bond with the Ancients reverence for Mother Earth and all the Creator s children which leads to her own freedom as well      A Woman's Education Jill Ker Conway,2011-06-01 The acclaimed author of the best selling The Road from Coorain and True North now gives us the third book in her remarkable continuing memoir describing the pleasures the challenges and the constant surprises good and bad of her years as the first woman president of Smith College The story opens in 1973 as Conway unbeknownst to her is first looked over as a prospective candidate by members of the Smith community and continues as she assesses her passions and possibilities and agrees to the new challenge of heading the college in 1975 The jolt of energy she gets from being surrounded by several thousand young women enables her to take on the difficulties that arise in dealing with the diverse Smith constituencies from the self appointed protectors of the great male tradition of humanistic learning to the equally determined young feminists insisting on change We see Conway juggling the needs and concerns of faculty students parents trustees and alumnae and re defining and redesigning aspects of the college to create programs in line with the new realities of women s lives We sense the urgency of her efforts to shape an institution that will attract students of the 1990s and beyond Through it all we see Jill Ker Conway coping with her husband s illness and learning to protect and sustain her inner self As the end of a decade at Smith approaches we see her realizing that she has both had her education and made her contributions and that it is time now for her to graduate
