

A man with dark hair, wearing a grey zip-up jacket over a white shirt, is seated and playing an acoustic guitar. He is looking down at his hands on the strings. The room is dimly lit with warm, golden light, possibly from a lamp. In the background, there is a framed picture on the wall with the name 'Jesse' written on it, and a lamp is visible on the right side. The overall mood is intimate and artistic.

books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Monument Maker David Keenan,2021-08-05 Is it possible for books to dream For books to dream within books Is there a literary subterranea that would facilitate ingress and exit points through these dreams These are some of the questions posed by David Keenan s masterly fifth novel Monument Maker an epic romance of eternal summer and a descent into history into the horrors of the past a novel with a sweep and range that runs from the siege of Khartoum and the conquest of Africa in the 19th century through the Second World War and up to the present day where the memory of a single summer and a love affair that took place across the cathedrals of Ile de France unravels as a secret initiatory cult is uncovered that has its roots in macabre experiments in cryptozoology in pre war Europe MONUMENT MAKER straddles genres while fully embracing none of them a book within a book within a book that runs from hallucinatory historical epics through future visioned histories of the world narrated by a horribly disfigured British soldier made prophetic by depths of suffering books that interact with Keenan s earlier novels including a return to the mythical post punk Airdrie landscape of his now classic debut THIS IS MEMORIAL DEVICE whole histories of art and religion books that are glorious choral appendices bibliographies imagined films tape recorded interviews building to a jubilant accumulation of registers voices and rhythms that is truly Choral Written over the course of 10 years MONUMENT MAKER represents the apex of Keenan s project to create books that contain uncanny life and feel like living organisms It is a meditation on art and religion and on what it means to make monument this great longing for something eternal something that could fix moments in time forever
