comprises a total of thirty three texts by art historians art theorists art critics artists and curators In addition there is an introduction by the co editors Jeffrey Say and Seng Yu Jin as well as three section introductions contributed by Seng Yu Jin artist curator and writer Susie Wong and art educator and writer Lim Kok Boon Bundle set A Reader in Singapore Modern and Contemporary Art Cosmopatriots ,2015-06-29 This volume analyzes mediated articulations of cosmopatriotism in East and South East Asian popular cultures and arts Cosmopatriots navigate between a loyalty to the home country and a sense of longing for and belonging to the world Rather than searching for the truly globalized cosmopolitans the authors of this collection look for the postcolonial rooted cosmopolitans who insist on thinking and feeling simultaneously beyond and within the nation The cultural sites they discuss include Hong Kong Indonesia China Singapore the United States South Korea and Australia They show how media from both sides of the arbitrary divide between high art and popular culture including film literature the fine arts radio music television and mobile phones function as vehicles for the creation and expression of or reflection upon intersections between patriotism and cosmopolitanism Art Activism for an

Anticolonial Future Carlos Garrido Castellano,2021-10-01 Analyzing the confluence between coloniality and activist art Art Activism for an Anticolonial Future argues that there is much to gain from approaching contemporary politically committed art practices from the angle of anticolonial postcolonial and decolonial struggles These struggles inspired a vast yet underexplored set of ideas about art and cultural practices and did so decades before the acceptance of radical artistic practices by mainstream art institutions Carlos Garrido Castellano argues that art activism has been confined to a limited spatial and temporal framework that of Western culture and the modernist avant garde Assumptions about the individual creator and the belated arrival of derivative avant garde aesthetics to the periphery have generated a narrow view of political art at the expense of our capacity to perceive a truly global alternative praxis Garrido Castellano then illuminates such a praxis focusing attention on socially engaged art from the Global South challenging the supposed universality of Western artistic norms and demonstrating the role of art in promoting and configuring a collective critical consciousness in postcolonial public spheres This book is freely available in an open access edition thanks to Knowledge Unlatched an initiative that provides libraries and institutions with a centralized platform to support OA collections and from leading publishing houses and OA initiatives Learn more at the Knowledge Unlatched website at <https://www.knowledgeunlatched.org> and access the book online at the SUNY Open Access Repository at <http://hdl.handle.net/20.500.12648/7166>

Progress and Challenges Angie Bexley,Sarah Xue Dong,Diahhadi Setyonaluri,2023-11-29 Over the past 20 years gender relations and the expression of power and authority between men and women in Indonesia have been shaped by the forces of reformasi decentralisation a reassertion of central power and economic transitions These changes have given rise to policy reform an increase in women's political representation and new expressions of diverse gender identities. But to what extent has the gender order of the New Order where women's role as a mother was the basis of citizenship been challenged or just found new articulations? What shape do contemporary contestations to gendered power take? The chapters in this volume bring gender to the centre stage and provide reflections on the political, economic, social and cultural progress and barriers in achieving gender equality and diversity in Indonesia.

Art and Globalization James Elkins, Zhivka Valiavicharska, Alice Kim, 2010. Business Research in the Islamic World John Fraedrich, Marina Pirtskalava, Tornike Khoshtaria, Hasan Terzi, Mehmet Bayirli, Baker Al Serhan, 2024-09-22. This proceedings volume presents a cutting edge exploration of Islamic marketing delving into the details of Muslim consumer behavior and Halal business practices while offering invaluable strategies for navigating the dynamic world of commerce in Islam oriented regions. Featuring selected chapters from the 14th Global Islamic Marketing Conference it provides a comprehensive overview of research and insights into Islamic business practices focusing on innovative marketing strategies. Readers can expect to find detailed analyses and practical guidance on topics such as the impact of neurotransmitters on Islamic research, the influence of religiosity on Muslim consumers' adoption of cryptocurrency and how perceived price, quality and trust affect purchase intentions for Halal products. The volume also explores whether Halal hotels in Malaysia align with green practices, factors driving customer behavior in online banking and the digitalization of Halal food supply chains through blockchain. Further chapters investigate customer loyalty in Islamic traditional markets, the factors influencing brand love in Moroccan football and the impact of sustainability and corporate governance in Bangladeshi microfinance institutions. Discussions include the economic implications of incomes of married women in Islamic contexts and models for the key drivers of Islamic insurance. Readers will also find comparative studies on challenges in online sales contracts within Islamic and Jordanian legal frameworks and insights into the role of e-trust in the success of virtual organizations through knowledge sharing. The volume addresses contemporary issues such as consumer empowerment and privacy, the challenges and opportunities for Islamic microfinance during COVID-19 and self-regulating social media behaviors among Muslim consumers. It also explores the integration of AI-driven chatbots in Halal marketing communication and the concept of faith-centric consumerism, offering a research agenda for Halal brand attitudes. This proceedings volume is an invaluable resource for academics and researchers seeking to deepen their understanding of these specialized topics and for business consultants looking for effective strategies to engage with markets in Islam-oriented regions It provides both a theoretical framework and practical insights making it a vital reference for anyone interested in the rapidly evolving fields of Islamic business marketing and economics Intersecting Histories T.
