Outside Belongings:

Outside Belongings Elspeth Probyn, 1996 First Published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company Outside Belongings Elspeth Probyn, 2015-12-22 Outside Belongings argues against a psychological depth model of identity one in which individuals possess an intrinsic quality that guarantees authentic belonging Instead Probyn proposes a model of identity that takes into account the desires of individuals and groups of individuals to belong The main ideas she considers the outside the surface and belonging allow her to articulate in concrete terms her precise concerns about sexuality and nationality

Taking [A]part John McCarthy, Peter Wright, 2024-07-02 A critical inquiry into the value and experience of participation in design research In Taking A part John McCarthy and Peter Wright consider a series of boundary pushing research projects in human computer interaction HCI in which the design of digital technology is used to inquire into participative experience McCarthy and Wright view all of these projects which range from the public and performative to the private and interpersonal through the critical lens of participation Taking participation in all its variety as the generative and critical concept allows them to examine the projects as a part of a coherent responsive movement allied with other emerging movements in DIY culture and participatory art Their investigation leads them to rethink such traditional HCI categories as designer and user maker and developer researcher and participant characterizing these relationships instead as mutually responsive and dialogical McCarthy and Wright explore four genres of participation understanding the other building relationships belonging in community and participating in publics and they examine participatory projects that exemplify each genre These include the Humanaquarium a participatory musical performance the Personhood project in which a researcher and a couple explored the experience of living with dementia the Prayer Companion project which developed a technology to inform the prayer life of cloistered nuns and the development of social media to support participatory publics in settings that range from reality game show fans to on line deliberative democracies

The Discursive Construction of European Identities Michał Krzyżanowski, 2010 This book looks at the discursive construction of European identities in a variety of institutional and non institutional contexts and through a variety of social and political actors Its multilevel and interdisciplinary approach rooted in the Discourse Historical tradition of Critical Discourse Analysis allows for a comparison of identity constructions at different levels of Europe s social and political organisation and in different modes of communication The book analyses discourses as diverse as those of the EU politicians of Europe s national media as well as of migrants living in Europe It offers a set of integrated models and analytical procedures which bring to the fore the inherent dynamism and complexity of both bottom up and top down European identity constructions

Out Here Tomasz Basiuk, Dominika Ferens, Tomasz Sikora, 2009-03-26 Out Here originates from a series of queer studies conferences which took place in Poland between 2002 and 2004 and includes essays an autobiographical account and two short stories Their authors are of eight nationalities Canadian Belgian Flemish German Hungarian Polish

Spanish Ukrainian and U S American The academic papers represent a wide range of disciplines philosophy literature ethnography cultural and gender studies Some combine theoretical insights and critical analysis with suggestions for activism The short stories explore the formative moments of a queer adolescence in Anglophone Canada The eclecticism of Out Here reflects the cauldron like mix of concerns taken up locally in places considered peripheral in relation to the centers of queer theory in British and American academia It is out here or back then often within the context of rampant homophobia that queer methodologies prove especially productive Out here queer theory is alive and kicking Whether the authors write about sexual awakenings in Sri Lanka and Canada or heterosexism in contemporary Ukraine Hungary Belgian parks and 1970s Britain or racial exclusion in American gay bars or the veiled homophobia of Polish textbooks what connects them is the commitment to questioning the limitations placed on queer desire Rethinking 'Mixed Race' David Parker, Miri Song, 2001-05-20 One of the fastest growing ethnic populations in many Western societies is that of people of mixed descent However when talking about multicultural societies or mixed race the discussion usually focuses on people of black and white heritage The contributors to this collection rectify this with a broad and pluralistic approach to the experiences of mixed race people in Britain and the USA The contributors argue that people of mixed descent reveal the arbitrary and contested logic of categorisation underpinning racial divisions Falling outside the prevailing definitions of racialised identities their histories and experiences illuminate the complexities of identity formation in the contemporary multicultural context The authors examine a range of issues These include gender transracial and intercountry adoptions in Britain and the US interracial partnering and marriage mixed race and family in the English African diaspora theorising of mixed race that transcends the black white binary and includes explorations of mixtures among non white minority groups and the social and political evolution of multiracial panethnicity Faith stories Anna Hickey-Moody, 2023-04-25 Faith stories is an investigation of faith and belief systems in Australia and England Drawing on ethnography interviews focus groups for adults and arts based workshops for their children Hickey Moody takes a community based approach to examining belonging attachment faith belief and what really matters in diverse areas Each of the book s research sites is geographically and culturally specific in ways that shape residents experiences of community and belonging but they are united by enduring threads relating to colonisation diaspora and negotiating belonging in culturally diverse contexts Examining faith reveals that there are striking similarities between seemingly different cultures Understanding these connections can reduce conflict and promote cohesion in communities that are often struggling to adapt to huge changes This book provides rich resources for those who wish to explore faith and belief in complex social circumstances either as research or as community engagement In such increasingly divided times work like this is needed now more than ever Queer Art Renate Lorenz, 2014-03-15 A queer theory of visual art based on extensive readings of art works Queer Art traces the question of how strategies of denormalization initiated by visual arts can be continued through writing In the book s three chapters art theoretical debates are combined with queer theory post colonial theory and disability studies proposing the three terms radical drag transtemporal drag and abstract drag The works discussed include those by Zoe Leonard Shinique Smith Jack Smith Wu Ingrid Tsang Ron Vawter Bob Flanagan Henrik Olesen Felix Gonzalez Torres Sharon Hayes and Pauline Boudry Renate Lorenz Toxic Belonging?

Identity and Ecology in Southern Africa Dan Wylie, 2009-03-26 Southern Africa's literatures brim with references to the natural world its landscapes and its animals Both fictional and non fictional works express ongoing debates often highly politicised concerning its various groups senses of identity and belonging in relation to the land and its denizens This often involves a pervasive tension between Western settler societies conceptions of modernity and indigenous world views each complicating the often simplistic binarisms drawn between them In this selection of papers from the 2006 Literature and Ecology Colloquium held in Grahamstown South Africa the complexities of forging imaginative and pragmatic senses of belonging in Southern Africa are explored from a variety of disciplinary perspectives philosophical historical botanical and anthropological as well as literary Their subject matter ranges widely from Bushmen testimonies to Berlin missionaries from prehistoric cave dwellers to Schopenhauer from white Batswana to lion tamers but find themselves echoing one another in intriguing and illuminating ways These are highly localised meditations on age old questions What does it mean to be human within a natural environment Why do we appear to be so damaging to the ecology that sustains us Is our presence inevitably toxic to our planetary fellow travellers How do we forge an ecologically sound sense of belonging in this post colonial post apartheid post modern era If this collection has a single most prominent question binding it together it is this What are the limits and potentialities of human compassion towards the natural world The Mauritian Novel Julia Waters, 2019-01-08 This book analyses how the idea or the problem of belonging is articulated in a range of contemporary francophone Mauritian novels Waters explores how forms of affective belonging intersect with the exclusionary politics of belonging in novels by Nathacha Appanah Ananda Devi Shenaz Patel Bertrand de Robillard Amal Sewtohul and Carl de Souza

Political Tourism and Its Texts Maureen Anne Moynagh, 2008-01-01 The concept of political tourism is new to cultural and postcolonial studies Nonetheless it is a concept with major implications for scholarship Political Tourism and Its Texts looks at the writings of political tourists travellers who seek solidarity with international political struggles With reference to the travel writing of among others Nancy Cunard W H Auden and Christopher Isherwood Ernesto Che Guevara and Salman Rushdie Maureen Moynagh demonstrates the ways in which political tourism can be a means of exploring the formation of transnational affiliations and commitments Moynagh's aims are threefold First she looks at how these tourists create a sense of belonging to political struggles not their own and express their personal and political solidarity despite the complexity of such cross cultural relationships Second Moynagh analyses how these authors position their readers in relation to political movements inviting a sense of responsibility for the struggles for social justice Finally the author situates key twentieth century imperial struggles in relation to contemporary postcolonial and cultural studies theories of new cosmopolitanism

Drawing on sociological postcolonial poststructuralist and feminist theories Political Tourism and Its Texts is at once an insightful study of modern writers and the causes that inspired them and a call to address with political urgency contemporary neo imperialism and the politics of global inequality Abject Relations Megan Warin, 2009-10-28 Abject Relations presents an alternative approach to anorexia long considered the epitome of a Western obsession with individualism beauty self control and autonomy Through detailed ethnographic investigations Megan Warin looks at the heart of what it means to live with anorexia on a daily basis Participants describe difficulties with social relatedness not being at home in their body and feeling disgusting and worthless For them anorexia becomes a seductive and empowering practice that cleanses bodies of shame and guilt becomes a friend and support and allows them to forge new social relations Unraveling anorexia s complex relationships and contradictions Warin provides a new theoretical perspective rooted in a socio cultural context of bodies and gender Abject Relations departs from conventional psychotherapy approaches and offers a different logic one that involves the shifting forces of power disgust and desire and provides new ways of thinking that may have implications for future treatment regimes Youth Cultures and Subcultures Sarah Baker, Brady Robards, 2016-02-11 This volume critically examines subculture in a variety of Australian contexts exploring the ways in which the terrain of youth cultures and subcultures has changed over the past two decades and considering whether subculture still works as a viable conceptual framework for studying youth culture Richly illustrated with concrete case studies the book is thematically organised into four sections addressing i theoretical concerns and global debates over the continued usefulness of subculture as a concept ii the important place of belonging in subcultural experience and the ways in which belonging is played out across an array of youth cultures iii the gendered experiences of young men and women and their ways of navigating subcultural participation and iv the ethical and methodological considerations that arise in relation to researching and teaching youth culture and subculture Bringing together the latest interdisciplinary research to combine theoretical considerations with recent empirical studies of subcultural experience Youth Cultures and Subcultures will appeal to scholars and students across the social sciences Territories of Desire in Queer Culture David Alderson, Linda R. Anderson, 2000 This book engages with and develops current debates about desire and sexual identification by focusing on a wide selection of contemporary literature film and theory These texts range from the novels of Alan Hollinghurst and Paul Magrs to the work of Pedro Almodovar RuPaul Derek Jarman and Camille Paglia as well as TV programs like Ellen and Shinjuku Boys and individual films such as Collard s Savage Nights Mining Memory Mary Beth Tierney-Tello, 2017-01-23 Every major Peruvian author of the twentieth century has written a narrative focused on childhood or coming of age Mining Memory argues that Peruvian narratives of the twentieth century re imagine childhood not only to document personal pasts but also to focus on national identity as a dynamic and incomplete process Mining Memory shows how 20th century narratives and films reimagine the self and the nation by representing child and adolescent protagonists and their evolution using the remembrance of childhood as part of a nation making project The book demonstrates how in the context of Peru fictions focusing on childhood become vehicles for the national reimagining and collective remembering central to much of Latin American literature The figure of the child as emblem of both a collective memory and an always deferred utopian project holds special promise for twentieth century Peruvian writers as they write from a national context rife with cultural racial and political conflict The book intervenes in debates internal to Peruvian cultural studies as well as wider conversations in Latin American Studies and post colonial studies Mining Memory provides a new understanding to both the Latin American and Anglo American traditions regarding the representations of national subjectivities through the voices of the child and adolescent Such a representational strategy performs a very particular kind of hybridity and temporal balancing act capable of addressing the very issues of cultural memory and fractured identities so relevant to multi cultural post colonial cultural contexts

Edith Stein and Regina Jonas Emily Leah Silverman, 2014-09-03 This ground breaking book examines the lives of two extraordinary religious women Both Edith Stein and Regina Jonas were German Jewish women who demonstrated deviant religious desires as they pursued their spiritual paths to serve their communities during the Holocaust Both were religious visionaries viewed as iconoclasts in their own times Stein the first woman to receive a doctorate in philosophy from Husserl the founder of phenomenology claimed her Jewish identity while she was still a cloistered Carmelite nun Jonas the first woman rabbi in Jewish history served as a rabbi in Berlin and Theresienstadt concentration camp A study of a contemplative and a rabbi the book ranges across many spiritual and theological questions not least it offers a remarkable exploration of the theology of spiritual resistance For Stein this meant redemption and the transmutation of suffering on the cross for Jonas acts of compassion bring the face of God into our presence

Out of Touch Maureen F. Curtin, 2013-09-13 Out of Touch investigates how skin has become a crucial but disavowed figure in twentieth century literature theory and cultural criticism These discourses reveal the extent to which skin figures in the cultural effect of changes in visual technologies a development argued by critics to be at the heart of the contest between surface and depth and by extension Western globalization and identity politics The skin has a complex history as a metaphorical terrain over which ideological wars are fought identity is asserted through modification as in tattooing and meaning is inscribed upon the human being Yet even as interventions on the skin characterize much of this history fantasy and science fiction literature and film trumpet skin's passing in the cybernetic age and feminist theory calls for abandoning the skin as a hostile boundary

Animal Stories Susan McHugh, 2011 How cross species companionship is figured across a variety of media and why it matters

Projections of Paradise, 2011-01-01 Paradise is commonly imagined as a place of departure or arrival beginning and closure permanent inhabitation of which however much desired is illusory This makes it the dream of the traveller the explorer the migrant hence a trope recurrent in postcolonial writing which is so centrally concerned with questions of displacement and belonging Projections of Paradise documents this concern and demonstrates the indebtedness of writers as diverse as Salman Rushdie Agha Shahid Ali Cyril Dabydeen Bernardine Evaristo Amitav Ghosh James Goonewardene Romesh Gunasekera Abdulrazak Gurnah Janette Turner Hospital Penelope Lively Fatima Mernissi Michael Ondaatje Shyam Selvadurai M G Vassanji and Rudy Wiebe to strikingly similar myths of fulfilment In writing directly or indirectly about the experience of migration all project paradises as places of origin or destination as homes left or not yet found as objects of nostalgic recollection or hopeful anticipation Yet in locating such places quite specifically in Egypt Zanzibar Kashmir Sri Lanka the Sundarbans Canada the Caribbean Queensland Morocco Tuscany Russia the Arctic the USA and England they also subvert received fantasies of paradise as a pleasurable land rich with natural beauty Projections of Paradise explores what happens to these fantasies and what remains of them as postcolonial writings call them into question and expose the often hellish realities from which popular dreams of ideal elsewhere are commonly meant to provide an escape Contributors Vera Alexander Gerd Bayer Derek Coyle Geetha Ganapathy Dor Evelyne Hanquart Turner Ursula Kluwick Janne Korkka Marta Mamet Michalkiewicz Sofia Mu oz Valdieso Susanne Pichler Helga Ramsey Kurz Ulla Ratheiser Petra Tournay Thedotou

Textures of Belonging Andreea Răclăuș, 2021-07-16 The longstanding European conception that Roma and non Roma are separated by unambiguous socio cultural distinctions has led to the construction of Roma as non belonging others Challenging this conception Textures of Belonging explores how Roma negotiate and feel belonging at the everyday level Inspired by material culture sensorial anthropology and human geography approaches this book uses ethnographic research to examine the role of domestic material forms and their sensorial qualities in nurturing connections with people and places that transcend socio political boundaries
