History Eavan Boland, 1990 Outside History: Selected Poems, 1980-1990 Eavan Boland, 2001-10-17 An essential volume by one of our most esteemed poets Boland is an original dazzlingly gifted writer Uncompromising intellect wry perception and verbal brilliance A wonderfully elegant and sensual writer keenly attuned to the pleasures of form and sound She s as musically gifted and as uncompromisingly intelligent as Seamus Heaney and deserves comparable attention David Walker Field In a Time of Violence: Poems Eavan Boland, 1995-05-17 The publication of Eavan Boland s previous book Outside History Selected Poems 1980 1990 established Boland as a significant presence in the contemporary American poetry world This her seventh book continues to mine what she has termed the meeting place between womanhood and history A History of Twentieth-Century British Women's Poetry Jane Dowson, Alice Entwistle, 2005-05-19 Publisher

Description My Father Says Grace Donald Platt, 2007-03-01 Elegy is combined with larger historical allusion and reference in this third collection of the author s poems which includes a collection of works dealing with a father s stroke and developing Alzheimer s disease and its effects on one family Original Crafting Feminism from Literary Modernism to the Multimedia Present Amy E. Elkins, 2022-09-05 Crafting Feminism develops a dynamic study of craft and art making in modern and contemporary feminist writing In evocative readings of literary works from Virginia Woolf to Zadie Smith this book expands our sense of transartistic modernist scholarship to encompass process oriented and medium specific analyses of textile arts digital design collage photography painting and sculpture in literary culture By integrating these craft practices into the book s enlightening archive Elkins s theoretical argument extends a reading of craft metaphors into the material present Crafting Feminism demonstrates how writers have engaged with handiwork across generations and have undertaken the crafting of a new modernity one that is queer and feminist threaded messy shattered cut up pasted together preserved repaired reflected and spun out An avant garde work of scholarship this book interweaves queer research methods and interdisciplinary rigor with a series of surprising archival discoveries Making visible the collaborative creative features of craft Elkins captivates readers with generous illustrations and a series of Techne interchapters interludes between longer chapters which powerfully convey the symbiosis between feminist theory and method and detail the network of archival influences that underpin this volume s hybrid approach Foregrounding the work of decentering patriarchal and Eurocentric legacies of artistic authority Elkins champions the diverse intergenerational history of craft as a way to reposition intersectional makers at the heart of literary culture An original and compelling study Crafting Feminism breaks new ground in modernist and visual studies digital humanities and feminist queer and critical race theory Reading Postwar British and Irish Poetry Michael Thurston, Nigel Alderman, 2013-11-05 Combining detailed explorations of both mainstream and experimental poets with a clear historical and literary overview Reading Postwar British and Irish Poetry offers readers at all levels an ideal guide to the rich body of poetic works published in Britain and Ireland over the last half century Features detailed discussions of individual poems that are widely available in anthologies and selected poems volumes Pays explicit attention to how to read the poems focusing on language and form and the institutional conditions of literary possibility in which poets worked Includes poets of all types and styles from throughout the post war period including canonical and mainstream poets alongside experimental poets women and poets of color Poetry: The Basics Jeffrey Wainwright, 2015-10-30 Now in its third edition Poetry The Basics remains an engaging exploration of the world of poetry Drawing on examples ranging from Chaucer to children s rhymes Cole Porter to Carol Ann Duffy and from around the English speaking world it shows how any reader can understand and gain more pleasure from poetry Exploring poetry s relationship to everyday language and introducing major genres and technical aspects in an accessible way it is a clear introduction to how different types of poetry work through the study of details and of whole poems With a revised chapter on the different practices and ideas in the writing of poetry now including sections on film poetry and digital poetics this is a must read for all students of English Literature 100 Years of the American Dream Michael Kearney, 2022-09-26 This collection offers examinations of the concept of the American Dream across a broad and diverse range of works The analytical methods utilized by the authors who are all clearly extremely knowledgeable experts in their fields are as unique as the content they examine is varied Each chapter offers innovative insights which while founded on literary critique transcend the field of literature and touch upon issues related to economics education gender immigration psychology race and religion to name but a few Encyclopedia of Feminist Literature Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2014-05-14 An accessible one volume encyclopedia this addition to the Literary Movements series is a comprehensive reference guide to the history and development of feminist literature from early fairy tales to works by great women writers of today Hundred Denise Levertov in Company Donna Krolik Hollenberg, 2018-06-30 A reflection on this poet s legacy through essays by contemporary poets and literary critics Denise Levertov 1923 1997 was an award winning author of more than thirty books of poetry and prose featuring the subjects of politics and war and in later years religion Born and raised in England amid political unrest and war Levertov moved to the United States after World War II and settled in as a passionate poet activist for peace and environmental conservation She initially gained recognition as a member of the Black Mountain poets and later as a highly respected mentor and educator at esteemed universities including Massachusetts Institute of Technology Brandeis and Stanford where she helped shape future generations of poets In Denise Levertov in Company Donna Krolik Hollenberg has assembled ten essays by contemporary poets who were influenced by Levertov as former students and or colleagues and another ten by literary critics Hollenberg selected contributors on the basis of their spiritual intellectual and political connections with Levertov at different stages of her life in the United States and all are distinguished in their own right The first five poets became acquainted with Levertov in the 1960s and 1970s when she and they protested against the war in Vietnam The next five poets who were close to Levertov in the 1980s and 1990s while she was at Stanford respond to aspects of Levertov s religious quest and her love and concern for the natural world To assess Levertov s influence on contemporary poetry Hollenberg has organized the essays into pairs First a contributor offers a personal essay about his or her relationship with Levertov which is followed by a companion essay about the contributor s poetry in relation to Levertov s What emerges is a dialogue between autobiographical testimony and critical analysis This combination of personal witness and objective evaluation contributes to a greater understanding of the contemporary poetry scene and the influence of Levertov s distinguished and affecting legacy Contributors Rae Armantrout Eavan Boland Martha Collins Alison Hawthorne Deming Susan Eisenberg Reginald Gibbons Donna Krolik Hollenberg Romana Huk Paul Lacey Aldon Lynn Nielsen Kathleen Norris Mark Pawlak Peggy Rosenthal Ben S enz Peter Dale Scott David Shaddock Michael Thurston Emily Warn Bruce Weigl Al Young Object Lessons: The Life of the Woman and the Poet in Our Time Eavan Boland, 1996-07-17 In this important prose work one of our major poets explores through autobiography and argument a woman s life in Ireland together with a poet s work Eavan Boland beautifully uncovers the powerful drama of how these lives affect one another how the tradition of womanhood and the historic vocation of the poet act as revealing illuminations of the other

Women Poets, Male Publishers Lise Jaillant, 2025-03-17 We are often told that the women s movement of the 1960s and 1970s led to the rediscovery of forgotten women writers Without feminist presses such as Virago these women would have sunk into obscurity Thanks to Carmen Callil and other trailblazing feminist publishers a canon of women s literature emerged and living writers managed to survive and sometimes thrive in a literary marketplace that had so far been dominated by men Although obstacles remained the story is one of the triumphs over a misogynistic publishing industry a sector that had once sought to erase women writers of the past marginalise living authors and close the doors to any future legacy There are two problems with this oft repeated story First it focuses mainly on fiction rather than poetry founded in 1973 Virago did not start publishing poetry until the early 1980s Second it neglects the major role that conservative male publishers played in re-discovering women poets in post 1960s Britain With the growing influence of the Women s Liberation movement these publishers realised that there was a growing market for poetry by women At the same time the Arts Council of Great Britain started pushing for more diversity nudging its clients to make more room for women and ethnic minorities Drawing on extensive archival work and oral history interviews this open access book pushes the boundaries of a scholarship that has focused mainly on women s poetry in relation to women s presses Archival documents show the influence of the Arts Council and the market in pushing conservative publishers towards more diversity This evolution has had long term consequences on the canon of women's poetry a canon that was largely shaped by conservative publishing houses rather than radical feminist presses

An Irish Literature Reader Maureen O'Rourke Murphy, James MacKillop, 2015-02-01 In a volume that has become a standard text in Irish studies and serves as a course friendly alternative to the Field Day anthology editors Maureen O'Rourke Murphy and James MacKillop survey thirteen centuries of Irish literature including Old Irish epic and lyric poetry Irish folksongs and drama For each author the editors provide a biographical sketch a brief discussion of how his or her selections relate to a larger body of work and a selected bibliography In addition this new volume includes a larger sampling of women writers

Heresy and the Ideal David Baker, 2000-04-01 At its center Heresy and the Ideal is based on Baker's sense of Romantic poetics especially on how contemporary poets have applied altered or rejected certain Romantic principles He uses the Romantic trope to measure the tension between passion and reason and between the problems of literary transcendence and the obligations of social engagement

BOOK JACKET A Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Poetry, 1960 - 2015 Wolfgang Gortschacher, David Malcolm, 2020-12-14 A comprehensive and scholarly review of contemporary British and Irish Poetry With contributions from noted scholars in the field A Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Poetry 1960 2015 offers a collection of writings from a diverse group of experts They explore the richness of individual poets genres forms techniques traditions concerns and institutions that comprise these two distinct but interrelated national poetries Part of the acclaimed Blackwell Companion to Literature and Culture series this book contains a comprehensive survey of the most important contemporary Irish and British poetry The contributors provide new perspectives and positions on the topic This important book Explores the institutions histories and receptions of contemporary Irish and British poetry Contains contributions from leading scholars of British and Irish poetry Includes an analysis of the most prominent Irish and British poets Puts contemporary Irish and British poetry in context Written for students and academics of contemporary poetry A Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Poetry 1960 2015 offers a comprehensive review of contemporary poetry from a wide range of diverse contributors

The Poetry of Eavan Boland Pilar Villar-Argaiz, 2008 Pilar Villar Arg iz's sustained meticulous and exacting study of Eavan Boland opens up and articulates in a fresh way the key dimensions of her poetry It succeeds not only in tracking the far reaching ramifications of Eavan Boland's politicized aesthetic as a postcolonial writer but in urging us to revisit the crystalline and precisely etched poems of one of the most significant artists in contemporary Irish culture Professor Anne Fogarty University College Dublin from the Introduction This monograph is an original and important contribution to the growing body of critical studies devoted to one of Ireland's major living poets Eavan Boland see Haberstroh 1996 Hagen Zelman 2005 It details the controversies that were prompted by the inclusion of Ireland in a postcolonial framework and then tests the application of an array of cogent theories and concepts to Boland's work In an attempt to explore the richness and complexity of her poetry Villar Arg iz discusses the contradictory pulls in her desire to surpass and yet at the same time epitomize Irish nationality

Boland's remarkable achievement as a poet lies in her ability to stretch by constant negotiations and re appropriations the borderlines of inherited definitions of nationality and femininity Chapters include Re examining the postcolonial Gender and Irish studies Towards an understanding of Boland's poetry as minority postcolonial discourse A post nationalist or a post colonial writer Boland's revisionary stance on Mother Ireland To a third space Boland's imposed exile as a young child The subaltern in Boland's poetry Boland's mature exile in the US An Orientalist writer and Conclusion Review This rigorous and informative exploration of the poetry of Eavan Boland by Pilar Villar Arg iz proves the validity of drawing upon the resources of postcolonial theory to illuminate her work Through the lens of postcolonialism the deep seated preoccupations and complex imaginative foundations of Boland's writing are carefully excavated and interpreted Villar Arg iz moreover in her observant close readings of poems from different phases of the author's oeuvre reveals how recurrent issues such as the problem of national and cultural identity the ethical responsibility of engaging with the past and the quest for fluidity and openness are variously engaged with both aesthetically and philosophically Villar Arg iz's sustained meticulous and exacting study of Eavan Boland opens up and articulates in a fresh way key dimensions of her poetry It succeeds not only in tracking the far reaching ramifications of Eavan Boland's politicized aesthetic as a postcolonial writer but in urging us to revisit the crystalline and precisely etched poems of one of the most significant artists in contemporary Irish culture Professor Anne Fogarty Department of English University College Dublin Ireland About the Author Dr Pilar Villar Arg iz lectures in the Department of English Philology at the University of Granada Spain where she obtained a European Doctorate in English Studies Irish Literature She is the author of Eavan Boland's Evolution As an Irish Woman Poet An Outsider within an Outsider's Culture The Edwin Mellen Press 2007 She has also published extensively on the representation of femininity in contemporary Irish women's poetry on cinematic representations of Ireland and on the theoretical background and application of feminism and postcolonialism to the study of Irish literature In addition Dr Villar Arg iz has co edited two books on English literature Irish Research Series No 51 A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-06-09 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century A Companion to Vergil's Aeneid and its Tradition Joseph Farrell, Michael C. J. Putnam, 2014-01-28 A Companion to Vergil's Aeneid and its Tradition presents a collection of original interpretive essays that represent an innovative addition to the body of Vergil scholarship Provides fresh approaches to traditional Vergil scholarship and new insights into unfamiliar aspects of Vergil's textual history Features contributions by an international team of the most distinguished scholars Represents a distinctively original approach to Vergil scholarship
