Outside Looking In An African Perspective On American Pluralistic Society:

Outside Looking In Kofi K. Apraku, 1996-02-06 Mr Apraku gives the reader an outsider's analysis of the good and bad elements that make up the U S. The author, a Ghanaian who has spent the last 18 years studying and teaching in the U S, brings his personal experiences as an emigrant to this examination of American capitalism and democracy. He looks at the strengths and weaknesses inherent in the American democratic system. Many non-Westerners, including Africans, do not know enough about the western democracy of the American economic system they are being asked to adopt as a panacea to their economic, political, and social problems. This book should be especially appealing to scholars in international and economic development, developmental economics, political economics, and African studies.

African & American Marilyn Halter, Violet Showers Johnson, 2014-08-29 Examines what it means to be African and American through the stories of recent West African immigrants. African American tells the story of the much overlooked experience of first and second generation West African immigrants and refugees in the United States during the last forty years. Interrogating the complex role of post colonialism in the recent history of black America, Marilyn Halter and Violet Showers Johnson highlight the intricate patterns of emigrant work and family adaptation, the evolving global ties with Africa and Europe, and the translocal connections among the West African enclaves in the United States. Drawing on a rich variety of sources, including original interviews, personal narratives, cultural and historical analysis, and documentary and demographic evidence, African American explores issues of cultural identity formation and socioeconomic incorporation among this new West African diaspora. Bringing the experiences of those of recent African ancestry from the periphery to the center of current debates in the fields of immigration, ethnic, and African American studies, Halter and Johnson examine the impact this community has had on the changing meaning of African Americanness and address the provocative question of whether West African immigrants are indeed becoming the newest African Americans.

Bourgeois Radicals Carol Anderson, 2015 Bourgeois Radicals explores the NAACP's key role in the liberation of Africans and Asians across the globe, even as it fought Jim Crow on the home front during the long civil rights movement. In the eyes of the NAACP's leaders, the way to create a stable international system, stave off communism in Africa and Asia, and prevent capitalist exploitation was to embed human rights with its economic and cultural protections in the transformation of colonies into nations. Indeed, the NAACP aided in the liberation struggles of multiple African and Asian countries within the limited ideological space of the Second Red Scare. However, its vision of a third way to democracy and nationhood for the hundreds of millions in Asia and Africa was only partially realized due to a toxic combination of the Cold War, Jim Crow, and die-hard imperialism. Bourgeois Radicals examines the toll that internationalism took on the organization and illuminates the linkages between the struggle for human rights and the fight for colonial independence.

The Case against Afrocentrism Tunde Adeleke, 2011-01-05 Postcolonial discourses on African Diaspora history and relations have traditionally focused intensely on highlighting the common experiences and links between black Africans and African Americans This is especially true of Afrocentric scholars and supporters who use Africa to construct and validate a monolithic racial and culturally essentialist worldview Publications by Afrocentric scholars such as Molefi Asante Marimba Ani Maulana Karenga and the late John Henrik Clarke have emphasized the centrality of Africa to the construction of Afrocentric essentialism In the last fifteen years however countervailing critical scholarship has challenged essentialist interpretations of Diaspora history Critics such as Stephen Howe Yaacov Shavit and Clarence Walker have questioned and refuted the intellectual and cultural underpinnings of Afrocentric essentialist ideology Tunde Adeleke deconstructs Afrocentric essentialism by illuminating and interrogating the problematic situation of Africa as the foundation of a racialized worldwide African Diaspora He attempts to fill an intellectual gap by analyzing the contradictions in Afrocentric representations of the continent These include multiple conflicting and ambivalent portraits of Africa the use of the continent as a global unifying identity for all blacks the de emphasizing and nullification of New World acculturation and the ahistoric construction of a monolithic African Diaspora worldwide African Immigrants in the United States Mamadi Corra, 2022-11-11 African Immigrants in the United States The Gendering Significance of Race examines recent trends and implications of the growth of African immigration to the United States Mamadi Corra highlights several resulting sociodemographic processes underway including the changing composition of the foreign born and US Black populations Corra also explores sociodemographic profiles of these new African Americans or new Americans highlighting the increasing diversity yet also the racialized portrait of this group Corra discusses key patterns including the shifting racial and gender composition of immigrants with a growing proportion of Black and female African immigrants and a decreasing proportion of White and male immigrants The book also compares socioeconomic profiles of African immigrants with other immigrant groups and Native American subgroups Taken together Corra discovers that the salience of race that is mediated by gender

Working-class White Monica McDermott, 2006 Publisher Description Africans in Global Migration John A. Arthur, Joseph Takougang, Thomas Owusu, 2012-08-31 Four overarching themes underscore the essays in this book These are the creation of African diaspora community and institutional structures the structured and shared relationships among African immigrants host and homeland societies the construction and negotiation of diaspora spaces and domains racial ethnic class consciousness including identity politics and finally African migrant economic integration occupational and labor force roles and statuses and impact on host societies Each of the thematic themes has been chosen with one specific goal in mind to depict and represent the critical components in the reconstitution of the African diaspora in international migration We contextualized the themes in the African diaspora as a dynamic process involving what Paul Zeleza called the diasporization of African immigrant settlement communities in global transnational spaces These themes also reflect the diversities inherent in the diaspora communities and call attention to the fluid and dynamic boundaries within which Africans create diffuse and engage host and home societies In this context the themes outlined in this book embody the diaspora tapestries woven by the immigrants to center African social and cultural forms in their host societies and communities Collectively the themes represent pathways for the elucidation of understanding African immigrant territorialization Our purpose is to map out and identify the sources and sites for the contestations of the myriad of cultural manifestations of the new African diaspora and its depictions within the totality of the shared meanings and appropriations of the essences of African ness or African blackness The vulnerabilities struggles threats internal or external to the immigrant community and opportunities emanating from the diasporic relationships that these immigrants create are accentuated within the nexus of African global migrations We view the African diaspora in terms of spatial and geographic constructions and propagations of African cultural identities and institutional forms in global domains whose boundaries are not static but rather dynamic complex and multidimensional Simply stated we approach the African diaspora from a perspective that incorporates the historical as well as contemporary postmodern constructions of the Africa s dispersed communities and their associated transnational identity forms

Erasing Invisibility, Inequity and Social Injustice of Africans in the Diaspora and the Continent Peter Otiato Ojiambo, Omiunota N. Ukpokodu, 2017-11-06 This volume engages the reader in understanding past and contemporary critical issues in African scholarship both in the diaspora and on the continent that have been marginalized unexamined and under researched and proposes ways to make them visible The book is timely as it imagines and reimagines scholarship on Africans in the diaspora and on the continent It is bold and authentically unpacks African immigrants individual and collective cultural educational social and institutional experiences especially in the context of US Pk 12 schools as they navigate and negotiate transnational spaces regarding identity and shifting positionalities The editors and contributors who are themselves African immigrants exemplify their spirits of Sankofa as they look back to their roots in order to give back to their Motherland by fighting for the visibility equity and social justice of Africans in the diaspora and on the continent The book proposes critical and insightful ideas that educators researchers policy makers social and human services and community leaders will find valuable

Tuch, 2007 Despite their growing presence research on Caribbean and especially African immigrants has been scant The scarcity of writings on these other African Americans contributes to the invisibility of these groups The objective of this project is to broaden our understanding Shared Obliviousness in Family Systems Paul C.
