The War Outside My Window Janet Elizabeth Croon, 2022-05-20 A remarkable account of the collapse of the Old South and the final years of a young boy's privileged but afflicted life LeRoy Wiley Gresham was born in 1847 to an affluent slave holding family in Macon Georgia After a horrific leg injury left him an invalid the educated inquisitive perceptive and exceptionally witty twelve year old began keeping a diary in 1860 just as secession and the Civil War began tearing the country and his world apart He continued to write even as his health deteriorated until both the war and his life ended in 1865 His unique manuscript of the demise of the Old South is published here for the first time in The War Outside My Window LeRoy read books devoured newspapers and magazines listened to gossip and discussed and debated important social and military issues with his parents and others He wrote daily for five years putting pen to paper with a vim and tongue in cheek vigor that impresses even now more than 150 years later His practical philosophical and occasionally Twain like hilarious observations cover politics and the secession movement the long and increasingly destructive Civil War family pets a wide variety of hobbies and interests and what life was like at the center of a socially prominent wealthy family in the important Confederate manufacturing center of Macon The young scribe often voiced concern about the family's pair of plantations outside town and recorded his interactions and relationships with servants as he pondered the fate of human bondage and his family's declining fortunes Unbeknownst to LeRoy he was chronicling his own slow and painful descent toward death in tandem with the demise of the Southern Confederacy He recorded often in horrific detail an increasingly painful and debilitating disease that robbed him of his childhood The teenager's declining health is a consistent thread coursing through his fascinating journals I feel more discouraged and less hopeful about getting well than I ever did before he wrote on March 17 1863 I am weaker and more helpless than I ever was Morphine and a score of other remedies did little to ease his suffering Abscesses developed nagging coughs and pain consumed him Alternating between bouts of euphoria and despondency he often wrote Saw off my leg The War Outside My Window edited and annotated by Janet Croon with helpful footnotes and a detailed family biographical chart captures the spirit and the character of a young privileged white teenager witnessing the demise of his world even as his own body slowly failed him Just as Anne Frank has come down to us as the adolescent voice of World War II LeRoy Gresham will now be remembered as the young voice of the Civil War South Winner 2018 The Douglas Southall Freeman Award Chimes Outside My Window Merle Jay, 2001 Susan Culhane looked down at her tight dress then at her superior The older woman looked back at her with an authoritative glare Where as Susan Culhane put her high heeled shoe on the bottom rail of the fence and pulled herself up allowing her to stand there with her head barely over the top rail Sunni I must insist that you come and talk to us right now You must not speak anymore with your grandparents Go to hell said Sunni Sunni scolded her grandmother Don't you talk like that now Do you hear me Sunni Yes ma'am but I don't want to talk to that old bitch Now Sunni I mean it You watch your mouth and hush up that cussing That's not going to help matters at all Well she is Sunni Sunni come here this instant I demand that you come here Said Susan Culhane Out My Window Barbara Durnil, 2022-12-28 This is the story of an empty nester widow who decides to isolate not alone but with God at the beginning of the COVID 19 pandemic She has always thought a monastic life would be wonderful She could shelter away from life social responsibilities and interruptions simply to study God's Word and to talk with Him. She is going on sabbatical. She has two Bible studies already started when the shutdown began and several studies she wants to pursue. She also journals and enjoys writing what she hears God telling her. She is in for a big surprise when God begins His lessons for her. There are wonderful things presented for her to learn new revelations and thought provoking information that had never occurred to her. There are also emotions, frustrations, and Satan's presence to throw her off. These are all met by God showing her the way out. Even when she stumbles and weakens to despair or anger about the scene out her window, God takes the guilt from her and loves her. He is a merciful God. She learns of His holiness, grace, and mercy but also sees His working hand of judgment out the window as she watches the direction of the human race. She learns that mercy and judgment are in equal quantities as they exist together at the same time. True repentance is what changes judgment to mercy. Her lessons come daily and she becomes a true disciple of Christ, taking in every word He speaks and asking questions in return. All that was needed was time alone, no distractions, and her full attention on God. The world grows dark out her window. And at first it frightens her, but God shows her truths and reminds her of His plan. He prepares her to be a part of His plan and to eventually return to the world walking in that plan. The time is not yet, but it is coming, and she waits for it. 87

I Glanced Out the Window and Saw the Edge of the World Catherine Halsall, 2020-07-08. This book is about WAR, not the causes and results, not the planning and the campaigns, not the artillery and the bombs. It is about the heinous crimes committed by the combatants, the horrifying experiences of civilians, the devastation of cities and villages, the killing and the dying, the glory leading to revulsion and guilt, and the assimilation of suffering that either ends in death or in the triumph of the soul. It looks at the struggle of the church to remain faithful and the servants of the church who seek to bring sense and solace to the victims. It discusses antisemitism, racism, and war itself from biblical perspectives. It reveals the unjustifiable reasons for engaging in war and how this brings catastrophic results for all peoples, the mental instability of the survivors, and the loss and grief of those on the home front. In war, how can men and women carry out the actions that they do? As Viktor Frankl writes, "After all, man is that being who has invented the gas chambers of Auschwitz; however, he is also that being who has entered those gas chambers upright with the Lord's Prayer or the Shema Yisrael on his lips."
