Outside Lives Feast Short Stories:

Outside Life's Feast Sheila Roberts, 1975      Outside Life's Feast Sheila Roberts, 1975      Great Short Stories - James Joyce James Joyce, 2025-05-01 It is with great pleasure that we present this collection of short stories by James Joyce one of the most pioneering voices in modernist literature Originally published in Dubliners in 1914 Joyce's stories offer a striking portrayal of Dublin life at the turn of the 20th century blending local color with universal themes In this carefully curated selection readers will find Joyce's exceptional ability to capture the complexities of the human condition from the tender struggles of youth to the quiet despair of adulthood In stories like Araby and Eveline Joyce delves into the innocence and disillusionment of growing up while A Painful Case and Counterparts uncover the emotional paralysis and frustrations of adult life Through tales such as The Sisters and the novella length The Dead Joyce explores profound themes of epiphany identity and the intersection of personal and social forces Joyce's prose is characterized by its vivid imagery and its delicate balance of humor tragedy and irony This collection invites readers into the intimate world of Dublin offering timeless reflections on human life and experience      The Short Story after Apartheid Graham K. Riach, 2023-10-15 Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize The Short Story after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid's end By focusing on the short story this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra formal concerns and these brief fragmentary elliptical formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post apartheid literature the aesthetics of engaged writing the politics of the past class and race the legacies of violence and the struggle over the land Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavi Zo Wicomb Phaswane Mpe and Henrietta Rose Innes this book assesses the place of the short story in post apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought      7 best short stories by James Joyce James Joyce, August Nemo, 2020-05-14 Welcome to the 7 Best Short Stories book series where we present to you the best works of remarkable authors This edition is dedicated to Irish novelist James Joyce Joyce is considered one of the greatest writers of the 20th century His style is characterized by a dazzling mastery of language and the use of innovative literary forms Works selected for this book The Sisters Eveline Araby A Painful Case The Dead Two Gallants After the Race If you appreciate good literature be sure to check out the other Tacet Books titles      7 best short stories - Loneliness Ambrose Bierce, Virginia Woolf, Anton Chekhov, Katherine Mansfield, H. G. Wells, James Joyce, August Nemo, 2020-05-12 Loneliness has many faces it can be a moment of sadness and the result of bad choices or some abandonment but it can also arise as a gift for us to enjoy our own company seize the silence and meditate on life The critic August Nemo has selected for this book seven short stories by great authors that explore the different ways of experiencing loneliness This book contains Miss Brill

by Katherine Mansfield Vanka by Anton Chekhov The Door in the Wall by H G Wells Kew Gardens by Virginia Woolf The Bet by Anton Chekhov A Painful Case by James Joyce The Boarded Window by Ambrose Bierce For more books with interesting themes be sure to check the other books in this collection      7 best short stories - Autumn Maxim Gorky, Honoré de Balzac, Edgar Allan Poe, James Joyce, Louisa May Alcott, E.T.A. Hoffmann, August Nemo, 2020-05-12 The air cools down and the days begin to shorten the leaves changing color put us in contact with the passing of time in a visible way The autumn has served as inspiration for several writers that you confer in this volume through great seven short stories This book contains One Autumn Night by Maxim Gorky The purloined Letter Edgar Allan Poe Domestic Peace by Honoré de Balzac A Painful Case by James Joyce An Honest Thief by Fyodor Dostoevsky An Old Fashioned Thanksgiving by Louisa May Alcott The Elementary Spirit by E T A Hoffman      Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide      The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell, Dirk Kloppe, Craig Mackenzie, 2010-04-13 From the outset South Africa's history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party's policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele's call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country's literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945      Telling Stories Jacqueline Bardolph, André Viola, Jean-Pierre Durix, 2001 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research
