Outstanding Black Sermons:

Outstanding Black Sermons Milton E. Owens, 1976 The thirteen sermons included in this volume were born of a unique cultural perspective and an unwavering Christian faith These sermons were chosen because they are examples of the best preaching done in black churches today      Outstanding Black Sermons Walter B. Hoard (Ed), 1979      Outstanding Black Sermons Walter B. Hoard, 1976 The thirteen sermons included in this volume were born of a unique cultural perspective and an unwavering Christian faith These sermons were chosen because they are examples of the best preaching done in black churches today      Outstanding Black Sermons Walter B. Hoard (Ed), 1979      Outstanding Black Sermons, 2001      The Heart of Black Preaching Cleophus J. LaRue, 1999-11-01 Cleophus LaRue argues that the extraordinary character of black preaching derives from a distinctive biblical hermeneutic that views God as involved in practical ways in the lives of African Americans This hermeneutic he believes has remained constant since the days of slavery LaRue analyzes the distinct characteristics of African American preaching and brings the insights of both theory and practice to bear on this important subject matter      Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life

Those Preachin' Women: Sermons by Black women preachers Ella Pearson Mitchell, 1985 The latest in a series that presents sermons of female ministers addresses many controversial issues These messages deal with the prophetic and as such demand superior crafting and deep perception      African American Religious Studies Gayraud S. Wilmore, 1989

This anthology provides a coherent interdisciplinary theoretical base for students of African American religious studies and will assist in the design of programs and courses for lay theological education and training To this end the editor has assembled material from Old and New Testament studies theology church history pastoral counseling worship and social action      Setting Words On Fire Paul Scott Wilson, 2016-04-25 A comprehensive introduction to preaching emphasizing the encounter with God's grace as the goal and heart of the sermon      Voices in the Wilderness John L. Thomas Jr., 2018-01-30 FINALLY a scholarly description of the development of Black preaching in the United States that is accessible to the average reader but also contributes to the academic conversation about both style and theological content Written from the perspective of a seasoned practitioner and tenured practical theologian Thomas surveys Black preaching as it has responded to various social and historical time periods Starting with the brutality of chattel slavery early formations in segregated Southern life rapid migration to and urbanization in Northern cities and various events throughout the post civil rights era the book gives convincing details and examples of how the Black preacher helped to guide and sustain the masses of African American people through the wilderness of social change At the heart of the book three prime examples are presented as models of the real genius of Black preaching The reader will never again think about Reverend Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X and the Reverend Jesse Jackson in the same way A special chapter is devoted to the contributions of Black women preachers along with a closing chapter that makes new proposals for the future The book is a provocative and critical analysis of why Black preaching still matters      Nurturing Faith and Hope Anne E. Streaty Wimberly, 2010-02-01
Wimberly's latest work presents pastors church lay leaders and scholars with a new lens to think critically and joyously about how Christian education undergirds and supports the worship experience in nurturing faith and hope in black parishioners David L Wallace Sr Dean Johnson C Smith Theological Seminary The Interdenominational Theological Center Atlanta Georgia This highly recommended work provides a thoughtful yet comprehensive framework of the black Christian worshipping community as the context where faith and hope are nurtured Marsha Snulligan Haney Associate Professor of Missiology and Religions of the World The Interdenominational Theological Center Atlanta Georgia This is a must read for all pastors and worship designers who desire to make worship relevant for African American Congregations Cecelia M Long former General Secretariat of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women in the United Methodist Church Innovative dynamic thought provoking and inspiring A must read for pastors church leaders Christian educators and anyone interested in revitalizing Christian education in the 21st Century Yolanda Y Smith Assistant Professor of Christian Education Yale University Divinity School and author of Reclaiming the Spirituals New Possibilities for African American Christian Education Dr Wimberly has seized upon the heretofore unspoken wisdom of the black church Local church laity and clergy will easily access this fine work for local churches Lynne Westfield Assistant Professor of Christian Education Drew Theological School

Madison New Jersey Wimberly understands comprehensively the ways education is embodied in congregational life Indeed she invites us to nurture faith and hope Jack L Seymour Professor of Religious Education and Academic Dean Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary Evanston Illinois Anne E Streaty Wimberly is Professor of Christian Education at The Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta Georgia She is the author of several books including Soul Stories African American Christian Education 1994 The Imposing Preacher Adam L. Bond, 2013-06-01 While many American religious historians have focused on a few mainstream black Christian thinkers from across the twentieth century the story of Samuel DeWitt Proctor has remained obscured Yet his voice is essential to understanding the black social gospel In the complex mix of voices from the Religious Right Protestant fundamentalism and black liberation theology Proctor brought black middle class understanding of America life and contributed a voice that was Black Christian and American Bond s exploration of the life of Samuel DeWitt Proctor adds a crucial piece to our understanding of twentieth century American church history Book jacket Contemporary African American preaching P3040 , L Susan Bond reveals the full range and diversity of African American preaching in this exploration of African American homiletical theories Portraying the many approaches that are empowering preaching in African American churches today Bond shows how different theological perspectives produce different methods of sermon preparation and delivery different strategies for selecting illustrative material and even different ways of beginning and ending sermons Her goal is not to lift up the right way to preach in the African American tradition but to show the richness and nuance contained within this powerful cultural expression The Black Church Studies Reader Alton B. Pollard, Carol B. Duncan, 2016-04-29 The Black Church Studies Reader addresses the depth and breadth of Black theological studies from Biblical studies and ethics to homiletics and pastoral care The book examines salient themes of social and religious significance such as gender sexuality race social class health care and public policy While the volume centers around African American experiences and studies it also attends to broader African continental and Diasporan religious contexts The contributors reflect an interdisciplinary blend of Black Church Studies scholars and practitioners from across the country The text seeks to address the following fundamental questions What constitutes Black Church Studies as a discipline or field of study What is the significance of Black Church Studies for theological education What is the relationship between Black Church Studies and the broader academic study of Black religions What is the relationship between Black Church Studies and local congregations as well as other faith based entities The book s search for the answers to these questions is compelling and illuminating African American Single Mothers Bette Dickerson, 1995-01-17 The African American single parent family has tended to be a scapegoat for a variety of social problems ranging from poverty to drug abuse As a result there exists much misinformation about this family form In this collection the African American matriarchal family is re evaluated to present a more informed picture of its actual structure and functioning From an Afrocentric feminist perspective contributors examine the history legal dilemmas media images and religious values of these families The roles of children grandparents fathers other support figures and the government are reviewed This insider view of these households concludes with suggestions of more effective and sensitive policy approaches to this t

Black Communications and Learning to Read Terry Meier, 2020-08-19 This book is about effective literacy instruction for students in grades K 4 who use the language variety that many linguists call African American English but which as explained in the Introduction the author calls Black Communications BC Throughout considerable attention is given to discussing the integral and complex interconnections among African American language culture and history drawing significantly on examples from African American historical and literary sources Although it is theoretical in its description of the BC system and its discussion of research on language socialization in African American communities the major focus of this book is pedagogy Many concrete examples of successful classroom practices are included so that teachers can readily visualize and use the strategies and principles presented Part I What is Black Communications presents an overview of the BC system providing a basic introduction to the major components of the language phonology grammar lexicon and pragmatics and illustrating how these components work in synchrony to create a coherent whole Part II Language Socialization in the African American Discourse Community examines existing research on African American children s language socialization Part III Using African American Children s Literature draws connections between strategy instruction and the linguistic and rhetorical abilities discussed in Part II Each chapter ends with suggestions for using African American literature to help children develop their speaking and writing abilities Part IV Children Using Language moves from a focus on teaching comprehension strategies to helping BC speakers learn to decode text This volume is directed to researchers faculty and graduate students in the fields of language and literacy education and linguistics and is well suited as a text for graduate level courses in these areas Down Deep in My Soul Nutt, Maurice J., CSsR, 2023-03-02 A comprehensive treatment of preaching in the Black Catholic tradition

The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching , 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter s Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to
