Over Her Dead Body The Construction Of Male Subjectivity In Onetti:

Over Her Dead Body Judy Maloof, 1995 Juan Carlos Onetti is a Uruguayan novelist whose central importance to the development of the contemporary Latin American novel has been widely recognized Unlike previous analyses this groundbreaking study constitutes the first book length feminist reading of Onetti's novels It utilizes relevant scholarly work on gender subjectivity narrative and certain elements of psychoanalysis Dr Maloof argues that in Onetti's fiction the construction of the male narrative subject is usually founded on the absence or death of a woman This study also examines the complex relationship between Onetti's male protagonists their crises and the Uruguayan socio historical context between the 1930s and 1960s Juan Carlos Onetti, Manuel Puig and Luisa Valenzuela Linda Craig, 2005 Onetti Puig and Valenzuela have not had the same level of international acclaim as Borges Garcia Marquez or Vargas Llosa This book has separate sections on each of the three writers which balance close readings of selected passages with tightly woven theoretical analysis Heterosexual Masculinities and the Self-Reflexive Novel Stefano Rossoni, 2025-07-24 Heterosexual Masculinities and the Self Reflexive Novel examines how the narratives of four world renowned authors namely J M Coetzee Milan Kundera Philip Roth and Mario Vargas Llosa offer a standpoint through which to address the inscription of heterosexual masculinity into Western literary legacy and the ways in which masculinity is re fashioned in contemporary self reflexive novels Considering the interconnectedness of their narratives for the first time the book explores unexamined patterns of dialogue among Coetzee Kundera Roth and Vargas Llosa while also contextualising their writing in the light of the European literary tradition inaugurated by Cervantes's Don Quixote and continued by Flaubert's Madame Bovary Rather than building on conventional theoretical approaches to literary studies Stefano Rossoni develops a fresh and engaging approach by looking at these two works not only as narrative texts but most importantly as theories of literature In dialogue with critical contributions that examined men's emotional illiteracy and struggle to develop a language for self reflection the book argues that the narratives of Coetzee Kundera Roth and Vargas Llosa engage with the tradition of the self reflexive novel and its ramifications to reflect on masculinity as a socio cultural construction Ultimately their writing reveals men's novelistic self reflexivity as a site of unintelligibility Historical Dictionary of Latin American Literature and Theater Richard Young, Odile Cisneros, 2010-12-18 The Historical Dictionary of Latin American Literature and Theater provides users with an accessible single volume reference tool covering Portuguese speaking Brazil and the 16 Spanish speaking countries of continental Latin America Argentina Bolivia Chile Colombia Costa Rica Ecuador El Salvador Guatemala Honduras Mexico Nicaragua Panama Paraguay Peru Uruguay and Venezuela Entries for authors ranging from the early colonial period to the present give succinct biographical data and an account of the author's literary production with particular attention to their most prominent works and where they belong in literary history The introduction provides a review of Latin American literature and theater as a whole while separate dictionary entries for each country offer insight into the history of national literatures Entries for literary terms movements and genres serve to complement these commentaries and an extensive bibliography points the way for further reading The comprehensive view and detailed information obtained from all these elements will make this book of use to the general interest reader Latin American studies students and the academic specialist
