Knill, Ellen G. Levine, Stephen K. Levine, 2005 This book lays the foundation for a fresh interpretation of art making and the therapeutic process by re examining the concept of poesis The authors clarify the methodology and theory of practice with a focus on intermodal therapy crystallization theory and polyaesthetics and give guidance on the didactics of acquiring practical skills The Intermediality of Contemporary Visual Arts Asun López-Varela Azcárate, 2023-11-22 The Intermediality of Contemporary Visual Arts explores a range of topics within the field The volume delves into the realm of intermediality within the visual arts Each chapter explores a different aspect from the evolution of Intermedial Studies over the past decades to the shifts in print typography and the emergence of cut ups within a context of resistance against conventions the concept of Visual Music and its relation to pioneering filmmaking visual representations of intimacy as they evolve from painting to other visual formats like comics film and television and finally the transmedial potential of cultural symbols in virtual reality all of which involve greater multimodal and emotional elements that enhance audience immersion The volume closes by highlighting the need for a comprehensive approach to visual art education and pedagogical methods that foster creativity emphasizing the intermedial aspects present in contemporary visual arts Principles of Musical Education James Lockhart Mursell, 1927 Teaching and Learning the Arts in Higher Education with Technology Joyce Hwee Ling Koh, Rebecca Yen Pei Kan, 2021-12-02 This book is an inquiry about the possibilities of using technology to support the education of artists within higher education contexts Even though technology enhanced learning and teaching may seem incongruent with the long established studio based cultures of making and performing it is increasingly becoming a pivotal point to connect artistes to potential audience and markets Amidst the COVID 19 pandemic technology is also the crucial linchpin for educational continuity of student artists This book explores how technology could enhance the education of artists and designers as they continue to create make and add value to life and society through their artistry It draws upon the experiences of the Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts NAFA a pioneering arts institution in Singapore with over 80 years of institutional history Through 9 vignettes this book illustrates technology enhanced pedagogical practices that have been implemented in different artistic learning spaces including classroom studio and stage as well as institutional support strategies With a naturalistic stance these chapters seek to illuminate realistic pictures of teaching and learning that are being uncovered by artist educators as they sought to integrate technology within teaching practices using available technologies and within the classes that they are teaching It is hoped that this book will stimulate conversation among artist educators about possible pedagogical models as well as inform higher arts institutions about the contextual strategies needed to support the creation of technology enhanced pedagogical practices

The New York Schools of Music and the Visual Arts Steven Johnson, 2012-11-12 Musicians and artists have always shared mutual interests and exchanged theories of art and creativity This exchange climaxed just after World War II when a group of New York based musicians including John Cage Morton Feldman Earle Brown and David Tudor formed friendships with a group of painters The latter group now known collectively as either the New York School or the Abstract Expressionists included Jackson Pollock Willem deKooning Robert Motherwell Mark Rothko Barnett Newman Clyfford Still Franz Kline Phillip Guston and William Baziotes The group also included a younger generation of artists particularly Robert Rauschenberg and Jasper Johns that stood somewhat apart from the Abstract Expressionists This group of painters created what is arguably the first significant American movement in the visual arts Inspired by the artists the New York School composers accomplished a similar feat By the beginning of the 1960s the New York Schools of art and music had assumed a position of leadership in the world of art For anyone interested in the development of 20th century art music and culture The New York Schools of Music and Art will make for illuminating reading

The Routledge Companion to Music and Visual Culture Tim Shephard, Anne Leonard, 2013-07-31 As a coherent field of research the field of music and visual culture has seen rapid growth in recent years The Routledge Companion to Music and Visual Culture serves as the first comprehensive reference on the intersection between these two areas of study an ideal introduction for those coming to the field for the first time as well as a useful source of information for seasoned researchers This collection of over forty entries from musicologists and art historians from the US and UK delineate the key concepts in the field in five parts Starting Points Methodologies Reciprocation the musical in visual culture and the visual in musical culture Convergence in metaphor in conception and in practice Hybrid Arts This reference work speaks to the important questions concerning this burgeoning field of research what are the established approaches to studying musical and visual cultures side by side What have been the major points of contact between these two areas and what kind of questions can this interdisciplinary research address moving forward The Routledge Companion to Music and Visual Culture is an indispensable guide for anyone interested in the field of music and visual culture The Crisis in the Humanities Zarko Cvejić, Ana Petrov, 2016-12-14 This volume will appeal to the reader interested in the so called long crisis in the humanities and transdisciplinary approaches as a possible way out of this It comprises a selection of 23 essays by both established and young scholars from the United States Slovenia Croatia and Serbia coming from a variety of disciplines including aesthetics anthropology architecture art critical theory ethnography feminism film studies gender and queer theory literary theory Marxism musicology philosophy and sociology among others What brings all these together here is the intention to advance transdisciplinarity both in theory and in practice in their scholarly work as a possible solution to this purported crisis the subject of heated debate in academia since the 1960s revolving around the crisis of the subject and the humanities positioning as a field of research The book examines the place of the humanities in contemporary society and challenges the ways that issues that form the foci of various disciplines have been addressed in recent theoretical discourses It reflects on the status of the disciplines in the humanities and explores the links between history culture media and art Curriculum Integration in Contemporary Teaching Practice: Emerging Research and Opportunities Brown, Susannah, Bousalis, Rina, 2017-12-30 Teaching and learning practices that are interconnected and value all subject areas benefit K 12 students by supporting creativity critical thinking communication and collaboration Curriculum Integration in Contemporary Teaching Practice Emerging Research and Opportunities is an essential scholarly resource that presents detailed information on the benefits and implementation of STREAMSS Science Technology Reading Engineering Arts Mathematics and Social Studies an interdisciplinary curriculum that meets K 12 students diverse needs by placing equal emphasis on multiple avenues of learning Highlighting topics such as educational science and technology curriculum development and instructional design this book is an ideal resource for students academicians researchers and librarians seeking current information on interdisciplinary education A Study of the Parallels between Visual Art and Music Boštjan Jurečič, 2019-11-15 Standard surveys of 20th century visual art imply that there is a continuity between say Rembrandt and Koons between Caravaggio and Hirst Even the sharp critics of artists who dominate the contemporary art scene such as Warhol Hirst Ai Weiwei and countless others imply such a continuity They are all wrong There is no such continuity or more precisely it is only very weak at best This book explains why and how the claims regarding this continuity are false and how we arrived at this point of great confusion about the arts Carr V. Koch, 2011 Music for Children with Hearing Loss Lyn E. Schraer-Joiner, 2014 Music for Children With Hearing Loss A Resource for Parents and Teachers is a comprehensive and hands on guide to working with deaf and hard of hearing children within and outside of the music classroom balancing a technical overview of hearing loss with relevant music lessons
