Sculpture Inside Outside Martin L. Friedman, Douglas Dreishpoon, 1988 Provides a brief analysis of the sculpture of 17 individuals involved in the current American art scene Sculpture inside outside ,1988 Chicano Art Inside/Outside the Master's House Alicia Gaspar de Alba, 2010-07-05 In the early 1990s a major exhibition Chicano Art Resistance and Affirmation 1965 1985 toured major museums around the United States As a first attempt to define and represent Chicano a art for a national audience the exhibit attracted both praise and controversy while raising fundamental questions about the nature of multiculturalism in the U S This book presents the first interdisciplinary cultural study of the CARA exhibit Alicia Gaspar de Alba looks at the exhibit as a cultural text in which the Chicano a community affirmed itself not as a subculture within the U S but as an alter Native culture in opposition to the exclusionary and homogenizing practices of mainstream institutions She also shows how the exhibit reflected the cultural and sexual politics of the Chicano Movement and how it serves as a model of Chicano a popular culture more generally Drawing insights from cultural studies feminist theory anthropology and semiotics this book constitutes a wide ranging analysis of Chicano a art popular culture and mainstream cultural politics It will appeal to a diverse audience in all of these fields Embodiment and Disembodiment in Live Art Ke Shi, 2019-12-06 Liveness is a pivotal issue for performance theorists and artists As live art covers both embodiment and disembodiment many scholars have emphasized the former and interpreted the latter as the opposite side of liveness In this book the author demonstrates that disembodiment is also an inextricable part of liveness and presence in performance from both practical and theoretical perspectives By applying phenomenological theory to live performance the author investigates the possible realisation of aesthetic dynamics in live art via re engagement with the notions of embodiment especially in the sense provided by philosophers such as Gabriel Marcel and Morris Merleau Ponty Creative practices from leading performance artists such as Franko B Ron Athey Manuel Vason and others as well as experimental ensembles such as Goat Island La Pocha Nostra Forced Entertainment and the New Youth are discussed offering a new perspective to re frame human human relationships such as the one between actor and spectator and collaborations in live genres In addition the author presents a new interpretation model for the human material in live genres helping to bridge the aesthetic gaps between performance art and experimental theatre and providing an ecological paradigm for performance art experimental theatre and live art Eisenman Inside Out Peter Eisenman, YALE UNIV PR, 2004-01-01 Essais sur l architecture par l architecte Eisenman 'Inside Outside' - Sculpture by 16 Artists Smith College Museum of Art (Northampton, Mass.), 1966

Martin Puryear John Elderfield, 2007 Over the last 30 years Martin Puryear has created a body of work that defies categorization creating sculpture that looks at identity culture history This book accompanies an exhibition at The Museum of Modern Art that follows Puryear s development from his first solo show to works being presented for the first time The Closure of Space in Roman Poetics Victoria Rimell, 2015-06-05 An ambitious analysis of the Roman literary obsession with retreat and closed spaces in the context of expanding empire What Is Contemporary Art? Terry E. Smith, 2009-10-15 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today's multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going The Sculpture of Nancy Graves Nancy Graves, E. A. Carmean, 1987 Nancy Graves is one of the truly remarkable art talents of the current generation A protean creator she has produced work of startling originality and beauty as a painter graphic artist filmmaker and sculptor From Graves's first three dimensional work her camels to her most recent works in bronze her sculpture has been innovative and influential not only for its aesthetic impact but also because it has stretched the boundaries of sculptural media Graves's bronzes are composed to a variety of elements many of which are cast from such natural organic and or everyday objects as pretzels sardines leaves and cooking scissors These works are then colored through a combination of techniques polyurethane paint fired enamel and patination to an extent that is unmatched in the work of any other modernist sculptor The Sculpture of Nancy Graves is both a monograph and a catalogue raisonné of all her sculpture to date with virtually every work reproduced in color It includes fascinating essays by E

Graffiti and Street Art Konstantinos Avramidis, Myrto Tsilimpounidi, 2016-12-08 Graffiti and street art images are ubiquitous and they enjoy a very special place in collective imaginary due to their ambiguous nature Sometimes enigmatic in meaning often stylistically crude and aesthetically aggressive yet always visually arresting they fill our field of vision with texts and images that no one can escape As they take place on surfaces and travel through various channels they provide viewers an entry point to the subtext of the cities we live in while questioning how we read write and represent them This book is structured around these three distinct albeit by definition interwoven key frames The contributors of this volume critically investigate underexplored urban contexts in which graffiti and street art appear shed light on previously unexamined aspects of these practices and introduce innovative methodologies regarding the treatment of these images Throughout the focus is on the relationship of graffiti and street art with urban space and the various manifestations of these idiosyncratic meetings In this book the emphasis is shifted from what the physical texts say to what these practices and their produced images do in different contexts All chapters are original and come from experts in various fields such as Architecture Urban Studies Sociology Criminology Anthropology and Visual Cultures as well as scholars that transcend traditional disciplinary frameworks This exciting new collection is essential reading for advanced undergraduates as well as postgraduates and academics interested in the subject matter It is also accessible to a non academic audience such as art practitioners and policymakers alike or anyone keen on deepening their knowledge on how graffiti and street art affect the ways urban environments are experienced understood and envisioned
