Sculpture In The Living Signed:

Transnational Perspectives on the Art of Piero Manzoni and Hélio Oiticica Lara Demori, 2025-08-26 Establishing a missed link between the work of Piero Manzoni and Hélio Oiticica and their respective cultural contexts this book sheds new light on overlooked aspects of these two artists practices particularly focusing on the shift from painting to performance in the long 1960s Lara Demori envisions a transnational juxtaposition a conceptual dialogue that discloses overlooked resonances between the work and the modus operandi of both artists repositioning claims of national exceptionalism within a web of constellated practices This book proposes their oeuvre as heterogeneous critical models to unpack categories of thought used to analyse the postwar decades Tabula Rasa Anti Art Open Work and self Marginalisation and Freedom These in turn are charged with specific histories and offer new paradigms for the formal and social inventions perpetuated by the art of Manzoni Oiticica and fellow artists in the context of the tournaments that crossed the 1960s on a global scale This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history modernism and post modernism Italian studies and Brazilian studies

True Relations G. Thomas Couser, Joseph Fichtelberg, 1998-01-21 The essays in this collection explore new directions in autobiography studies Examining a wide range of texts from narratives of suicide survivors cross dressers and people with HIV AIDS to self representations in the visual arts the collection demonstrates how writers have used the postmodern experience fragmentation to forge new kinds of identities Postmodern selves the essayists argue are relational selves constructed from the acute need to find identity through collaboration with others Postmodern autobiography emerges as a search amid shocks to the stable self for wider patterns of significance Of interest to researchers and scholars in autobiography world literature and psychology

Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971 Rosemary O'Neill, 2012 Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956 1971 offers the first in depth study of the Ecole de Nice The author shows how artists indigenous to the region challenged the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and growing internationalism in the arts

"Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971" Rosemary O'Neill, 2017-07-05 The Riviera in the 1950s and 1960s was culturally rich with modernist icons such as Matisse and Picasso in residence but also a burgeoning tourist culture that established the Côte d'Azur as a center of indigenous artists associated with Nouveau Réalisme Fluxus and Supports Surfaces emerged under the mantle of the Ecole de Nice Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications generated during the period from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives this study integrates material published in monographic studies of individuals and art movements to offer the first in depth study of this important movement in twentieth century art The author situates the work of the Ecole de Nice within the broader social currents that are so important in contextualizing this phenomenon within this internal region of France and underscores why this work was so significant at this historical moment within the context of the broader European art scene and contemporary American art with which it shared affinities. Despite their stylistic differences and associations with groups that are generally considered distinct, O'Neill discloses that these artists shared conceptual affinities, theatrical modes of presentation based on appropriation, use of the ready-made and a determination to counter style-driven painting associated with the postwar Ecole de Paris. Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera, 1956-1971 suggests that the emergence of an Ecole de Nice internally eroded the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and that these artists fostered a model of aesthetic pluralism that remained locally distinct yet fully engaged with international vanguard trends of the 1960s.

Marcel Broodthaers and Film Steven Jacobs, Raf Wollaert, 2024-12-17 Marcel Broodthaers, one of the key figures of the postwar avant-garde, has been recognized and extensively studied as a poet who became a visual artist in 1964. However, years before creating his first sculptural objects and installations, Broodthaers made his debut as a filmmaker in 1957 with La Clef de l'horloge, embarking on a prolific cinema practice that yielded more than fifty films shot on 35mm and 16mm. Cinema, both as a medium and principle, was crucial to his artistry. Broodthaers's writings and visual oeuvre are permeated with allusions to film, its history and its technology. Covering both well-known titles such as Le Corbeau et le renard (1967), La Pluie (1969) and Une Seconde d'ternité (1970) as well as many lesser-known Broodthaers films, the essays in this book discuss his films as inseparable from his entire oeuvre while situating them in the larger history of experimental film. In addition, the book scrutinizes his experiments with cinepoetry and expanded cinema as well as his interest in early cinema and his fascination with signs and inscriptions. Marcel Broodthaers and Film brings together essays by Andrew Chesher, Eric C. H. de Bruyn, Xavier Garcia Bardón, Charlotte Friling, Steven Jacobs, Bruce Jenkins, Deborah Schultz, Christophe Wall-Romana and Raf Wollaert.

Hellenistic Sculpture Brunilde Sismondo Ridgway, 1990. Now available in paperback, this rigorous and challenging book questions the Hellenistic dating of many famous monuments based on careful examination of evidence. Fluently written, clearly organized and thoroughly and impeccably documented, anyone who has a serious interest in Hellenistic art will want to read it and refer to it. Jerome J. Pollitt, Yale University. The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011. Arranged in alphabetical order, these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries.

Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth-Century Art David W. Galenson, 2009-09-28. Galenson combines social scientific methods with qualitative analysis to produce a new interpretation of modern art.

People all over the world make art and take pleasure in it and they have done so for millennia But acknowledging that art is a universal part of human experience leads us to some big questions Why does it exist Why do we enjoy it And how do the world s different art traditions relate to art and to each other Art Without Borders is an extraordinary exploration of those questions a profound and personal meditation on the human hunger for art and a dazzling synthesis of the whole range of inquiry into its significance Esteemed thinker Ben Ami Scharfstein s encyclopedic erudition is here brought to bear on the full breadth of the world of art He draws on neuroscience and psychology to understand the way we both perceive and conceive of art including its resistance to verbal exposition Through examples of work by Indian Chinese European African and Australian artists Art Without Borders probes the distinction between accepting a tradition and defying it through innovation which leads to a consideration of the notion of artistic genius Continuing in this comparative vein Scharfstein examines the mutual influence of European and non European artists Then through a comprehensive evaluation of the world s major art cultures he shows how all of these individual traditions are gradually but haltingly conjoining into a single current of universal art Finally he concludes by looking at the ways empathy and intuition can allow members of one culture to appreciate the art of another Lucid learned and incomparably rich in thought and detail Art Without Borders is a monumental accomplishment on par with the artistic achievements Scharfstein writes about so lovingly in its pages
