Ancient Plaster Abbey L. R. Ellis, Emma Payne, 2025-07-02 Ancient Plaster Casting Light on a Forgotten Sculptural Material offers a fresh exploration of plaster in the sculpture of the ancient Mediterranean and beyond Challenging the traditional focus on marble and bronze this volume reveals the crucial role of plaster both in the sculptor's workshop and as a medium for finished sculpture Combining academic insights with contemporary artists' perspectives the book also delves into the controversial topic of life casting in antiquity and provides groundbreaking new interpretations of well-known plaster objects such as those from the Roman city of Baiae near Naples With chapters extending the chronological and geographical scope to early modern Europe and contemporary art school contexts the book illuminates plaster's versatility and the continuity of its use across millennia By rehabilitating this material often overlooked or lost to the archaeological record the volume offers a transformative view of ancient sculpture appealing to both scholars and art enthusiasts alike

Early Christian Art and Architecture Guntram Koch, 1996 The early Christian period especially the time between the third and sixth centuries is one of the most fascinating in church history The Christianity which developed into a state church in the Roman empire during the fourth century gave new content to traditional Graeco-Roman art and adapted it to changed needs Different forms of churches monasteries and baptisms came into being as did Christian art in paintings mosaics and sculptures biblical manuscripts were illustrated and liturgical furnishings and vessels were given new form Here for the first time in a single volume is an account of architecture sacred and profane funerary art in catacombs and tombs and especially sarcophagi the graphic arts and the various forms of art in miniature The text is illustrated with numerous line drawings and photographs including ground plans and elevations of churches actual and conjectural and there are full descriptions of the art and architecture discussed against its social and historical background In addition there are full bibliographies and
