Effective Online Searching Christine L. Borgman,Dineh Moghdam,Patti K. Corbett,2021-04-29 This book focuses on searching and hands on experience which makes the text suitable for those who wish to learn searching for their own use as well It is intended for those who will act as search intermediaries accepting questions from clients and performing the searches Ethical Issues in the Communication Process J. Vernon Jensen,2013-11-05 A rapid and widespread growth of interest in applied ethics is occurring today not only in the United States but around the world as well Academia both reflects this and is a leader in the movement The field of speech communication shares in this increased sensitivity to ethical concerns Students and the general public are looking for thoughtful analyses and guidance in all areas of communication Ethical concerns relative to mass communication have been the subject of a number of books but only a very few cover the entire scope of communication to include interpersonal intercultural organizational small groups and public speaking This book tries to fill that need by discussing ethical concerns as they emerge in the areas of the communication process the communicator the message the media the audience and the situation The speech communication field now has a need to digest and synthesize the existing research findings and the general literature in the field and in related humanities and social science works into a coherent and nontechnical discussion This volume explores the most up to date materials to provide just such a synthesis An extensive bibliography at the end of the book gives readers the sources on which the book is based and offers ample avenues for further personal exploration The book should provide meaningful food for thought as readers grapple conscientiously with the many everyday decisions made in communication transactions and in evaluating the communication of others Media Mythologies Barry Lowe,1995 An examination of the media and how it operates in Australia The history of human communication is outlined and an exploration of contemporary media ownership and media criticism is presented The author a communications lecturer at Charles Sturt University has worked for various media organisations including the ABC SBS TV The Australian and 60 Minutes Telecommunications Research Resources James K. Bracken,Christopher H. Sterling,2021-12-16 As the telecommunication and information field expands and becomes more varied so do publications about these technologies and industries This book is a first attempt to provide a general guide to that wealth of English language publications both books and periodicals on all aspects of telecommunication It is a comprehensive evaluative sourcebook for telecommunications research in the United States that brings together a topically arranged cross referenced and indexed volume in one place The information provided is only available by consulting a succession of different directories guides bibliographies yearbooks and other resources On the one hand it is a directory that describes in detail the major entities that comprise the American telecommunication research infrastructure including federal and state government offices and agencies and private public and corporate research institutions On the other hand it is a bibliography that identifies and assesses the most important and useful reference and critical resources about U S telecommunication history technology industry and economics social applications and impacts plus policy law and regulations and role in the global telecommunication marketplace No existing guide covers all of these aspects in the depth and detail of this volume

Introduction to Journalism and Mass Communication Finlay Webb, 2018-11-20 Mass communication is an inter disciplined domain It can't understand as stand alone subject because it deals with society and culture at one hand and technology at the other Thus this book was needed that could give a comprehensive explanation of terms concepts theories and principles at one place In recent times mass media has grown as a widespread industry which is working all over the world Here in this book it is the sincere effort of the author to put the matter and facts myths and realities all in a lucid manner This book is designed keeping in view the average reader and beginners as well This book will quench the thirst of knowledge in this field and it is the sincere hope of the author If it proves to be of little value to the readers all efforts and hardships of the author will amply be awarded This book is created for the needs of students relating to the area of journalism and mass communication As social contexts and milieus undergo changes and get increasingly complex journalism too undergoes transformations and gets ever more crucial to the running of a society In such a scenario it becomes imperative that one considers the import journalism carries and how the issues and problems in it are central to how we perceive the world
