Seasoning A Poets Year With Seasonal Recipes:

Seasoning David Young, 1999 Interspersed among the wide assortment of month by month recipes the vodka penne is outstanding are poems memories and thoughts to ponder while waiting for the water to boil Young author of eight collections of poetry focuses much of his attention on lessons learned from his northeastern Ohio surroundings where he has lived and worked for close to 40 years Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Centennial Buckeye Cook Book

Andrew F. Smith, 2000 The first edition of the Centennial Buckeye Cook Book was published in 1876 Between 1876 and 1905 a total of thirty two editions of the cookbook were published and more than one million copies sold The book began as a project of the Marysville Ohio First Congregational Church when the women of the church decided to publish a cookbook in order to raise money to build a parsonage Their effort launched a cookbook that rapidly became one of the most popular publications of nineteenth century America This is the first reprint of the original 1876 edition Celebrating the Soul of

Cleveland Nina Freedlander Gibans, 2018-08-24 Celebrating the Soul of Cleveland summarizes a life in Cleveland a city whose very identity provides sustenance and support to all who welcome it into their heart The project started with a simple discussion The premise of this book and for the projects described in it is Evolution Community Arts Leader Nina Gibans loves our collective aha moments when we get it and roll along excited together Using images stories poems interviews reflections and reminiscences Nina weaves together a new gestalt a whole that is often present long before the pieces are put into place A lifetime of experiences encounters discussions are the parts of this a multi tasking of the mind combined until they find the parts make sense and there is a city a community Here is to all of the men women and children who have stuck with me through my life of joyous adventures and to the support of a loving caring husband and friendly critic whose bloodstream ran in the same direction as mine Nina Gibans Seasonal Splendors: Bringing the Magic of the Seasons

Season to Taste Caroline J. Smith,2023-05-18 2024 Honorable Mention Recipient for the Emily Toth Award for the Best Single Work by One or More Authors from the Popular Culture Association Between 2000 and 2010 many contemporary US American women writers were returning to the private space of the kitchen writing about their experiences in that space and then publishing their memoirs for the larger public to consume Season to Taste Rewriting Kitchen Space in Contemporary Women s Food Memoirs explores women s food memoirs with recipes in order to consider the ways in which these women are rewriting this kitchen space and renegotiating their relationships with food Caroline J Smith begins the book with a historical overview of how the space of the kitchen and the expectations of women associated with it have shifted considerably since the 1960s Better Homes and Gardens as well as the discourse of the second wave feminist movement tended to depict the space as a place of imprisonment The contemporary popular writers examined in Season to Taste such as Ruth Reichl Kim Sun e Jocelyn Delk Adams Julie Powell and Molly Wizenberg respond to this characterization by instead presenting the kitchen as a place of transformation In their memoirs and recipes these authors reinterpret their roles within the private sphere of the home as well as the public sphere of the world of publishing whether print or digital publication The authors examined here explode the divide of private feminine and public masculine in both content and form and complicate the genres of recipe writing diary writing and memoir These women writers through the act of preparing and consuming food encourage readers to reconsider the changing gender politics of the kitchen
