The Book of the Seasons William Howitt, 1846 The Book of the Seasons, Or, The Calendar of Nature William Howitt, 1837 Scattered Syllables Linda Lokhee, 2021-02-07 Scattered Syllables is a collection of modern poetry designed to echo the wonder of natural growth Split into three sections Scattered Growing and Love poet Linda Lokhee explores life's challenges and how to light and maintain the flame of hope we all need to navigate our way through them Linda's unique voice speaks to the universal truths we face and guides us on how to nurture love within every facet of our existence connecting to nature family community and self Days and Times Paul K. Hooker, 2018-05-02 These poems seek to be playful with faith Their aim is to expose the underlying sacredness of events that form the liturgy of living and to do so with sensitivity toward mystery wonder and occasionally suspicion Some of them seek to tell stories left untold by the narratives of faith others prod the narratives of ordinary life to see where faith may be hiding These poems do not understand faith as an intellectual choice but rather as an involuntary trust in something beyond us something always unclear ill lit and inadequately characterized by the language religious people use to describe ultimate realities They seek not so much to dismantle that language as to subvert its self-assuredness to find words that surprise and compel different ways of seeing
