Copyright Office,1908 Murdering Holiness Jim Phillips,Rosemary Gartner,2011-11-01 Murdering Holiness explores the story of the Holy Roller sect led by Franz Creffield in the early years of the twentieth century In the opening chapters the authors introduce us to the community of Corvallis Oregon where Creffield a charismatic self styled messiah taught his followers to forsake their families and worldly possessions and to seek salvation through him As his teachings became more extreme the local community reacted Creffield was tarred and feathered and his followers were incarcerated in the state asylum Creffield himself was later imprisoned for adultery but shortly after his release he revived the sect This proved too much for some of the adherents families and in May 1906 George Mitchell the brother of two women in the sect pursued Creffield to Seattle and shot him dead The authors take us into the courtroom for the trial that made headlines across North America as Mitchell was acquitted of murder Though the formal plea was insanity the defence built its case on the unwritten law that justified killing to protect or avenge family honour Based on court records and archival sources this case study includes a detailed examination of the trial the media's response to it and the dramatic aftermath and sheds light on the rise of ardent religion in the Pacific Northwest the justice system in Seattle and the role of the press in influencing public opinion The Publishers Weekly,1928 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography,1978 Regeneration, Heritage and Sustainable Communities in Turkey Muge Akkar Ercan,2019-12-10 Over the last three decades historic housing areas have become one of the major concerns in urban regeneration housing renovation and conservation projects Since the late 1990s the notion of community sustainability and sustainable community have become rising issues in the urban regeneration debate Regeneration Heritage and Sustainable Communities in Turkey contributes to this debate by integrating the interplay between regeneration community needs and sustainability in the context of Istanbul Together with the relational multi scalar and contingency planning approaches these vital agents of regeneration provide new possibilities and creative opportunities to successfully deal with the uncertainties and complexities in evolving regeneration spaces The interdisciplinary text reasons that finding the balance between the needs aspirations and concerns of local communities and the conservation of the built environments will lead to more equitable and sustainable solutions to the problems faced in Istanbul s historic quarters

Women in Pacific Northwest History Karen J.

Blair,2016-06-01 This new edition of Karen Blair s popular anthology originally published in 1989 includes thirteen essays eight of which are new Together they suggest the wide spectrum of women s experiences that make up a vital part of Northwest history

Heritage, Homemaking, and Identity Formation in Migrant Workers Junmin Liu,2025-04-10 Liu explores the experiences of Yi migrant workers in Shenzhen China investigating how their cultural heritage influences their search for identity and a sense of belonging This book uncovers the intricate relationship between heritage and homemaking examining how Yi migrants engage in their cultural practices within various settings such as families workplaces restaurants tourist sites and social media platforms Through thorough fieldwork and interviews the book demonstrates how ethnic heritage acts as a means for migrants to establish a feeling of connection during their migration journeys Nevertheless challenges and tensions emerge in the realm of home illustrating the dynamic interplay between heritage and the construction of a sense of place It also enriches our comprehension of the link between cultural heritage and the experiences of migrants shedding light on the complexities of identity development in a globalised world A valuable resource for scholars and researchers in disciplines like anthropology migration studies cultural studies and Chinese studies as well as professionals and policymakers interested in migrant integration cultural heritage preservation and urban development

Sustainable Heritage Amalia Leifeste,Barry L. Stiefel,2018-06-14 This book brings together ecological conservation theory and heritage preservation theory and shows how these two realms have common purpose Through theoretical discussion and illustrative examples Sustainable Heritage reframes the history of multiple movements within preservation and sustainable design strategies into cross disciplinary themes Through topics such as Cultural Relationships with Nature Ecology Biodiversity Energy and Resource Systems Integrating Biodiversity into the Built Environment Rehabilitation Practice Fixing the Shortcomings Within Community Design Planning and Policy Strategies for Adapting Buildings and Structures for Rising Sea Levels and Vehicles as a Microcosm of Approaching Built Environment Rehabilitation the book explores contemporary ecological and heritage ethics as a strategy for improving the livability of the built environment The authors provide a holistic critique of the challenges we face in light of climate and cultural changes occurring from the local to the global level It synthesizes the best practices offered by separate disciplines as one cohesive way forward toward sustainable design The authors consider strategies for increasing the physical and cultural longevity of the built environment

why these two are so closely paired and the potential their overlap offers for sustained and meaningful inhabitation Sustainable Heritage unites students and professionals in a wide range of disciplines with one common language and more closely aligned sets of objectives for preservation and sustainable design      Cultures of Authenticity Marie Heřmanová, Michael Skey, Thomas Thurnell-Read, 2022-11-21 This volume contains an Open Access Chapter This collection explores the complex and controversial idea of authenticity Addressing the concept from an interdisciplinary perspective and offering a diverse range of topical cases      Skiing Heritage Journal ,2008-09 Skiing Heritage is a quarterly Journal of original entertaining and informative feature articles on skiing history Published by the International Skiing History Association its contents support ISHA s mission to preserve skiing history and to increase awareness of the sport s heritage
