Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on the Near East and South Asia,1973 Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States. Central Intelligence Agency,1969 150 Glimpses of the Beatles Craig Brown,2024-03-26 Winner of the 2020 Baillie Gifford Prize for Non Fiction A distinctive portrait of the Fab Four by one of the sharpest and wittiest writers of our time If you want to know what it was like to live those extraordinary Beatles years in real time read this book Alan Johnson The Spectator Though fifty years have passed since the breakup of the Beatles the fab four continue to occupy an utterly unique place in popular culture Their influence extends far beyond music and into realms as diverse as fashion and fine art sexual politics and religion When they appeared on The Ed Sullivan Show in 1964 fresh off the plane from England they provoked an epidemic of hoarse throated fandom that continues to this day Who better then to capture the Beatles phenomenon than Craig Brown the inimitable author of Ninety Nine Glimpses of Princess Margaret and master chronicler of the foibles and foppishness of British high society This wide ranging portrait of the four lads from Liverpool rivals the unique spectacle of the band itself by delving into a vast catalog of heretofore unexamined lore When actress Eleanor Bron touched down at Heathrow with the Beatles she thought that a flock of starlings had alighted on the roof of the terminal only to discover that the birds were in fact young women screaming at the top of their lungs One journalist mistaken for Paul McCartney as he trailed the band in his car found himself nearly crushed to death as fans climbed atop the vehicle and pressed their bodies against the windshield Or what about the Baptist preacher who claimed that the Beatles synchronized their songs with the rhythm of an infant s heartbeat so as to induce a hypnotic state in listeners And just how many people have employed the services of a Canadian dentist who bought John Lennon s tooth at auction extracted its DNA and now offers paternity tests to those hoping to sue his estate 150 Glimpses of the Beatles is above all a distinctively kaleidoscopic examination of the Beatles effect on the world around them and the world they helped bring into being Part anthropology and part memoir and enriched by the recollections of everyone from Tom Hanks to Bruce Springsteen this book is a humorous elegiac and at times madcap take on the Beatles role in the making of the sixties and of music as we know it Ethnic Stratification and Economic Inequality around the World Max Haller in collaboration,Anja Eder,2016-03-03 The modern world is characterised by pervasive economic inequalities Strong economic growth in some developing countries has contributed to a degree to a reduction in the levels of inequality between nations yet inequality within nations remains high and in some cases continues to increase Ethnic Stratification and Economic Inequality around the World investigates the reasons for these striking differences exploring the coincidence and interaction between economic stratification and ethnic differentiation Drawing on extensive international survey and statistical data the author develops a new theory and concrete hypotheses concerning the conditions which lead toward extreme inequality and those which tend toward greater equality A systematic examination of the interaction between class structures social stratification and ethnic differentiation this book sheds light on the manner in which the resulting social structures produce different levels of economic inequality offering a fivefold typology of patterns of ethnic stratification which can be applied to present day world regions Drawing on the work of Max Weber to provide a rigorous investigation of inequality around the world it demonstrates what sociology as a science of social reality can significantly contribute to our understanding of global economic stratification The book is relevant for a wide social scientific audience particularly for sociologists economists and political scientists working in a comparative perspective Soviet Union Review ,1929
