All that night and the night before he had been watching the dying. When a mirror was required to be brought she looked at it moving her head restlessly this way and that. He knew that the swelling was a portent of some kind, a message from the outer darkness, an omen. The Dying. Although best known as one of Scotland's greatest modern poets, Iain Crichton Smith was also prolific as a writer of short stories. These pieces form a central part of his oeuvre, demonstrating the full range and versatility of his literary talent. From humour to tragedy, from inner monologues to extrovert surrealism, the diversity of his writing indicates the extraordinary range of his own reading and mental world. Crichton Smith wrote short stories throughout his life. Some are fragments, others almost novellas, and the best of them all show him to be an author of unique sensitivity and intelligence. These two collections, comprising the complete English stories, include over 45 stories never before published in book form, as well as others that have been out of print for many years, thus making it possible to judge Crichton Smith's achievement as a writer in full. Incorporates stories from Survival Without Error, The Black and the Red, and The Village.

in 90 Days Conrad Jones,2013-10-21 This concise guide tells you how to write a novel by using a systematic approach to writing This guide is written by an author not a guru A simple step by step breakdown of how to plan each day No fillers and no theory just the hard facts in a concise guide There are many guides about writing novels on the market but how many of them are written by prolific published authors The answer is not many How can anyone write a guide unless they have been through the writing process many times before The simple answer to this question is they can t because they cannot feed on their own actual experiences to help another writer to avoid the mistakes and pitfalls Most guides regurgitate information which they have picked up from creative writing books or sites How can they give you advice when they have never sat down and focused on creating a novel which will sell many times over Writing a novel is the same as any other task we undertake as individuals We have to learn how to do it in order to do it well When you first learn to drive you need lessons No one walks into the kitchen and creates a gourmet dish on their first attempt If you want a system to apply to writing a book then you need to take advice from an author who has taken years to develop the process via experience A Boy from China
