Dislocating Masculinity Andrea Cornwall, Nancy Lindisfarne, 2016-12-16 Language space and masculinities

A Study of Action-adventure Fiction William Henry Young, 1996 Employing hitherto closed access to the histories of several publishing houses this is an investigation of the action adventure novel chronicling the rise and fall of small enterprises which first saw the potential in such an approach to fiction It focuses first on the creations of Don Pendleton tracing his 38 book series The Executioner and examining the evolution of the series under a growing number of writers The study also includes a commentary on the many Mack Bolan imitators From Blofeld to Money Penny Steven Gerrard, 2020-03-26 Since its inception 007 has captured the hearts of a worldwide audience and the franchise is now available over multiple media platforms including movie comic strips games graphic novels and fashion statements This edited collection examines the role that gender has played across the platforms that the James Bond franchise now occupies And Why Not? Barry Norman, 2003-10 Renowned for his laconic wit and opinionated ideas Barry Norman shares a wealth of stories about his life among Hollywood royalty One of the United Kingdom's best known film authorities journalists and broadcasters Barry Norman fronted the seminal BBC film program for nearly thirty years In And Why Not Norman recounts his years of fraternizing with the cinematic greats including encounters with the likes of Elizabeth Taylor Laurence Olivier and Madonna Honest clever funny and at times poignant And Why Not offers an insider's account of the worlds of journalism broadcasting and film Guys and Guns Amok Douglas Kellner, 2015-12-03 From the recent shootings at Virginia Tech University to the tragedies at Columbine and Oklahoma City certain common traits can be traced through all of these events In Guys and Guns Amok media and cultural critic Douglas Kellner provides a fascinating diagnostic reading of these acts of domestic terrorism Skillfully connecting each case with the current environment for male socialization and the search for identity in an American culture obsessed with guns and militarism Kellner's work is a sobering reflection on these tragedies and the pervasive power of media and popular culture as well as a wake up call for the future Gender and Policing Louise Westmarland, 2002-01-01 Gender and Policing is an innovative study of the real world of street policing and the gender issues which are a central part of this Derived from extensive ethnographic research involving police responses to gangland shootings high speed car chases as well as more routine policing activities this book examines the way police attitudes and beliefs combine to perpetuate a working culture which is dependent upon traditional conceptions of male and female In doing so it challenges previously held assumptions about the way women are harassed manipulated and constrained focusing rather on the more subtle impact of structures and norms within police culture Gender and Policing will be of interest to all those concerned with questions of policing and gender and occupational culture more generally while the theoretical framework developed will provide an important foundation for strategies of reform At the same time the book provides a vivid and richly textured picture of the realities of operational policing in contemporary Britain Affect, Archive, Archipelago Beatriz Llenín-Figueroa, 2022-04-04 Inspired by douard Glissant's and Marta Aponte Alsina's critical creative work this book explores how Puerto Rico's affective archive of Caribbean relations from the nineteenth century through the twenty first has envisioned and embodied decolonization and sovereignty in relation to the archipelagic the sea and Caribbean regionalism The book's transdisciplinary archive includes historical figures and their legacies political and activist thought textuality and action as performative interventions and performance and live arts pieces objects materialities and texts as political activist actions Affect Archive Archipelago begins by delving into the historical political figures of Ramón Emeterio Betances Luisa Capetillo and Pedro Albizu Campos It then encounters the work of the live arts collective Agua Sol y Sereno the political activist work of Amigxs del MAR Comuna Caribe Mujeres que Abrazan la Mar and Coalición 8M and Teresa Hernández's transdisciplinary artistic trajectory Finally stemming from the book's argument and the immediate historical political affective context of Puerto Rico's summer 2019 rebellion Verano Boricua the book offers some reflections and proposals for furthering decolonial sovereign archipelagic and reparatory horizons for Puerto Rico

From History to Herstory Paul Leshota, Maxwell Musungafi, Itumeleng Mokhele, Makhulu Makumane, 2024-11-15 This book seeks to contribute to reflections done on the gender equality agenda by combing through oral and written resources to unearth and document heroic displays of leadership by women of Africa in general and of Southern Africa in particular that remain hidden under the rubble of Eurocentric colonial and African patriarchal archive and hegemony It seeks to open the archive of Southern Africa to unearth the names of women who have played an important role in shaping the course of Southern Africa's history in every way While acknowledging the systematic marginalisation of women's voices and identities by scribal patriarchy the aim is to bring to life women's experiences and voices through critical engagement of sources of knowledge available to Africa in general and southern Africa in particular The chapters of this book will contribute to the debate on gender equality and women empowerment by women themselves within the framework of Sustainable Development Goals especially SDG 5

No Mercy Here Sarah Haley,2016-02-17 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries imprisoned black women faced wrenching forms of gendered racial terror and heinous structures of economic exploitation Subjugated as convict laborers and forced to serve additional time as domestic workers before they were allowed their freedom black women faced a pitiless system of violence terror and debasement Drawing upon black feminist criticism and a diverse array of archival materials Sarah Haley uncovers imprisoned women s brutalization in local county and state convict labor systems while also illuminating the prisoners acts of resistance and sabotage challenging ideologies of racial capitalism and patriarchy and offering alternative conceptions of social and political life A landmark history of black women s imprisonment in the South this book recovers stories of the captivity and punishment of black women to demonstrate how the system of incarceration was crucial to organizing the logics of gender and race and constructing Jim Crow modernity
