Movers Shakers And Record Breakers:

Movers Shakers Record Breakers Book People McCaughrean Geraldine, 2002-11-21 Daring and Dangerous Stunt Performers Reyes, 2019-01-15 Daring and Dangerous Stunt Performers for grades 4-8 introduces young readers to the exciting world of professional stunt performing. From movies and live action shows to mile wide motorcycle jumps and high wire acts, this 32 page book offers readers an opportunity to learn the all about the wild world of stunt performance. The Daring and Dangerous Stunt Performers series is an action packed escape into some of the most daring and dangerous activities on and beyond the planet. With topics ranging from stunt performers to space explorers, each spread in these books stands alone so reluctant readers can flip through until something catches their attention. Each book also features glossary words defined on the pages in which they appear and a memory game that encourages readers recall as they are asked to match images to what they've read. Record Makers and Breakers John Broven, 2011-08-11 This volume is an engaging and exceptional history of the independent rock n roll record industry from its raw regional beginnings in the 1940s with R Marshall Chess of Chess Records, Jerry Wexler, Ahmet Ertegun and Miriam Bienstock of Atlantic Records, Sam Phillips of Sun Records, Art Rupe of Specialty Records and many more. Lil Nas X Henrietta Toth, 2021 Movers and Shakers Stephen Ellis, Ineke van Kessel, 2009-11-15 Mobilization against apartheid, the campaign against blood diamonds, the women's movement in Liberia where Africa's first female head of state was elected in 2005, these are all examples of socially based movements that have had a major effect on Africa's recent history. Yet the most influential theories concerning social movements worldwide have paid little heed to Africa, basing themselves more often on cases drawn from other continents. This volume draws together contributions from some leading writers on social movements in Africa, setting empirical studies alongside a couple of theoretical chapters. Africa's social movements have distinctive features that are related to the continent's specific history. Detroitland Richard Bak, 2011 In Detroitland: A Collection of Movers, Shakers, Lost Souls and History Makers from Detroit's Past, prolific local historian and journalist Richard Bak has assembled many of his award winning historical features, all originally written for such periodicals as Hour Detroit, Detroit Monthly and Michigan History and now updated and expanded for this collection. In twenty seven chapters that cover roughly a century of Detroit's rich and colorful history, Bak relives the scandals, mysteries, catastrophes, triumphs and celebrations that have rocked Detroit. He also introduces readers to the heroes, criminals, stars and regular people who lived through them or, in some cases, set them in motion. Detroitland contains the stories behind familiar names like Frank Murphy, the infamous Purple Gang, the Lone Ranger, Potato Patch, Pingree and Charles Lindbergh. Yet Bak also reveals lesser known episodes in Detroit's history like the ambitious International Exposition, the killer heat wave of 1936 with five straight days of hundred degree temperatures and the attempted around the world flight of Ed Schlee and Billy Brock in the Pride of Detroit in 1927. He introduces readers to little known and unique Detroit characters like the fierce Black Legion gang that was Detroit's own version of the Ku Klux

Klan Johnny Miler the man who walloped Joe Louis in the Brown Bomber s first ever amateur fight patrolman Ben Turpin the terror of Black Bottom criminals Sophie Lyons legendary Queen of the Underworld and Detroit philanthropist and Shorty Long Brenda Holloway the Velvelettes and other forgotten Motown artists of the 60s Told in Bak s conversational and eminently readable style the historical essays in Detroitland will prove hard to put down for anyone interested in Detroit s history or those looking for an informative and entertaining read
