New Directions For Library Service To Young Adults:

New Directions for Library Service to Young Adults Patrick Jones, Young Adult Library Services Association, 2002-05-22 Explains how libraries and communities can work together to strike a true partnership with the young adults in their community to develop services for teens that are both collaborative and outcome driven

Transforming Young Adult Services Anthony Bernier, 2019-05-20 Now showcasing an even more rigorous debate about the theory and practice of YA librarianship than its first edition this provocative presentation of diverse viewpoints by leaders in the field Catholic Library World has been updated and expanded to incorporate recent advances in critical youth studies

Young Adults Deserve the Best Sarah Flowers, Young Adult Library Services Association, 2011 As high school enrollment continues to rise the need for effective librarianship serving young adults is greater than ever before Young Adults Deserve the Best Competencies for Librarians Serving Youth developed by Young Adult Library Services Association YALSA is a document outlining areas of focus for providing quality library service in collaboration with teenagers In this book Sarah Flowers identifies and expands on these competency areas This useful work includes Anecdotes and success stories from the field Guidelines which can be used to create evaluation instruments determine staffing needs and develop job descriptions Additional professional resources following each chapter that will help librarians turn theory into practice The first book to thoroughly expand on this important document Young Adults Deserve the Best is a key foundational tool not only for librarians but also for young adult specialists youth advocacy professionals and school administrators

Teens and Libraries Virginia A. Walter, Elaine Meyers, 2003-07-21 Getting it right means understanding our roles as adults and professionals Getting it right requires a genuine commitment to youth participation Getting it right is about shifting our perspective from the library to the community in which it is located Getting it right makes it imperative that we give teens a place of their own in our libraries From the Preface Libraries have opportunities to make a positive difference in the lives of teenage customers and become a primary support for teens in the communities they serve Truly excellent library services for young adults YA need the collaborative efforts of both teens and librarians To build this partnership the authors share an inspiring narrative of YA history and also offer a plethora of new voices and stories that advocate the power of technology and teen spaces These story lines are then melded to highlight practical tools to involve teens at the library and make a bright future possible As the authors explore what has been done well and what hasn't in the world of young adult librarianship they identify key issues from the plethora of new voices How librarians can work with not for young adult customers Why the power of place means actual square footage designed for teens Ways to incorporate technology to achieve developmental outcomes Listening to teen voices to better serve their needs How evaluation and being accountable will close the loop on effective advocacy The authors guide both librarians and administrators to make promises for the future and present a strategy for keeping those promises so that young adult audiences can become active library and community participants From building partnerships to implementing successful programs to incorporating technology that helps teens assume leadership and responsibility this is an inspiring yet practical take on what it means to get it right for teens in the library Serving Homeschooled Teens and Their Parents Maureen T. Lerch, Janet Welch, 2004-05-30 Today more than a million students are being educated at home and that figure increases at a rate of 7 14% annually Homeschooling is a growing trend in our society and public librarians are being called upon with increasing frequency to serve the needs of homeschooled students So just what are the needs of the homeschooled teen and how can you and your library meet those needs A former young adult librarian and a homeschool parent have joined forces to create this insightful guide and answer that question After reviewing the developmental and social needs of teens the authors demonstrate how those needs may be met in the public library setting You ll find a wealth of ideas for adapting every facet of your library service for this growing population from developing a homeschool collection to expanding services and creating special programs You ll also find suggestions on how to market what your library has to offer to homeschoolers You may even discover some new ways to employ the talents and time of these students and their families Extensive resource lists conclude the volume they will help you better serve home educated teens and their parents Developing Library Collections for Today's Young Adults Amy S.
