Architecture Henry-Russell Hitchcock, 1987-01-01 This book examines a period which is far more than a prelude to the age of steel and concrete The first half century culminated in the bold iron and glass of the Crystal Palace There follows the creation of the modern styles of the era based on traditions of the past and finally in the 20th century Art Nouveau and the modern architects in their generations Perret Wright Gropius Corbusier Mies van der Rohe and others in many parts of the world Colonial Architecture and Urbanism in Africa Fassil

Demissie,2016-12-05 Colonial architecture and urbanism carved its way through space ordering and classifying the built environment while projecting the authority of European powers across Africa in the name of science and progress The built urban fabric left by colonial powers attests to its lingering impacts in shaping the present and the future trajectory of postcolonial cities in Africa Colonial Architecture and Urbanism explores the intersection between architecture and urbanism as discursive cultural projects in Africa Like other colonial institutions such as the courts police prisons and schools that were crucial in establishing and maintaining political domination colonial architecture and urbanism played a pivotal role in shaping the spatial and social structures of African cities during the 19th and 20th centuries Indeed it is the cultural destination of colonial architecture and urbanism and the connection between them and colonialism that the volume seeks to critically address The contributions drawn from different interdisciplinary fields map the historical processes of colonial architecture and urbanism and bring into sharp focus the dynamic conditions in which colonial states officials architects planners medical doctors and missionaries mutually constructed a hierarchical and exclusionary built environment that served the wider colonial project in Africa A Companion to Modern African Art Gitti Salami,Monica Blackmun

Visona,2013-10-22 Offering a wealth of perspectives on African modern and Modernist art from the mid nineteenth century to the present this new Companion features essays by African European and North American authors who assess the work of individual artists as well as exploring broader themes such as discoveries of new technologies and globalization A pioneering continent based assessment of modern art and modernity across Africa Includes original and previously unpublished fieldwork based material Features new and complex theoretical arguments about the nature of modernity and Modernism Addresses a widely acknowledged gap in the literature on African Art Architecture, Building and Engineering Gerald R. Erickson,1972 State and Culture in Postcolonial Africa Tejumola Olaniyan,2017-10-16

How has the state impacted culture and cultural production in Africa How has culture challenged and transformed the state and our understandings of its nature functions and legitimacy Compelled by complex realities on the ground as well as interdisciplinary scholarly debates on the state culture dynamic senior scholars and emerging voices examine the intersections of the state culture and politics in postcolonial Africa in this lively and wide ranging volume The coverage here is continental and topics include literature politics philosophy music religion theatre film television sports child trafficking journalism city planning and architecture Together the essays provide an energetic and nuanced portrait of the cultural forms of politics and the political forms of culture in contemporary Africa Post-Western Histories of Architecture Pilar Maria Guerrieri,Marco

Biraghi,2023-06-23 This book seeks to provide an alternative post Western perspective to the history of contemporary architecture It puts forward detailed critical analyses of various areas of the world including Europe Latin America Africa China Australia India and Japan where particular movements of architecture have developed as active political acts The authors focus on a broad spectrum of countries architectures and architects that have developed a design approach closely linked to the building context The concept of context is broad and includes various economic social cultural political and natural aspects In all cases the architects selected in this book have chosen to view context as an opportunity However each architect has considered certain specific aspects of context some have been very attentive to the social context others to material aspects or typological issues and still others to aspects related to political visions or economic factors The analysis critically highlights interesting creative and respectful design approaches towards local conditions such as sustainability in Nordic Europe climate conscious design in Africa and the bottom up sensitivity of India The book s main aim is to retrace through both theoretical arguments and case studies the debate that focuses on politics and the environment Thanks to its valuable examples this book strives to make a conscious contribution to establishing a bulwark against the current flattening out processes that architecture is experiencing This book will be of relevance to researchers teachers and students interested in the history of architecture architecture and planning and postcolonial studies The Modernist World Allana

Lindgren,Stephen Ross,2015-06-05 The Modernist World is an accessible yet cutting edge volume which redraws the boundaries and connections among interdisciplinary and transnational modernisms The 61 new essays address literature visual arts theatre dance architecture music film and intellectual currents The book also examines modernist histories and practices around the globe including East and Southeast Asia South Asia Sub Saharan Africa Australia and Oceania Europe Latin America the Middle East and the Arab World as well as the United States and Canada A detailed introduction provides an overview of the scholarly terrain and highlights different themes and concerns that emerge in the volume The Modernist World is essential reading for those new to the subject as well as more advanced scholars in the area offering clear introductions alongside new and refreshing insights Modernism in Africa Docomomo International,2024-12-16 No detailed description available for Modernism in Africa International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who s Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters The Publishers Weekly, 1972 Architecture of Regionalism in the Age of Globalization Liane Lefaivre, Alexander Tzonis, 2012 The definitive introductory book on the theory and history of regionalist architecture in the context of globalization this text addresses issues of identity community and sustainability along with a selection of the most outstanding examples of design from all over the world Alex Tzonis and Liane Lefaivre give a readable vivid scholarly account of this major conflict as it relates to the design of the human made environment Demystifying the reasons behind how globalization enabled creativity and brought about unprecedented wealth but also produced new wastefulness and ecological destruction the book also looks at how regionalism has also tended to confine tearing apart societies and promoting destructive consumerist tourism Site Matters Carol Burns, Andrea Kahn, 2005-07-08 This volume through theoretical essays and empirically grounded pieces on Le Corbusier's designs contemporary suburbs and the planning agendas of the World Trade Center site provides theory on the appreciation of site and context in architecture Architecture and Urbanism in the British Empire G. A. Bremner, 2016-10-13 Throughout today's postcolonial world buildings monuments parks streets avenues entire cities even remain as witness to Britain's once impressive if troubled imperial past These structures are a conspicuous and near inescapable reminder of that past and therefore the built heritage of Britain's former colonial empire is a fundamental part of how we negotiate our postcolonial identities often lying at the heart of social tension and debate over how that identity is best represented This volume provides an overview of the architectural and urban transformations that took place across the British Empire between the seventeenth and mid twentieth centuries Although much research has been carried out on architecture and urban planning in Britain's empire in recent decades no single comprehensive reference source exists The essays compiled here remedy this deficiency With its extensive chronological and regional coverage by leading scholars in the field this volume will quickly become a seminal text for those who study teach and research the relationship between empire and the built environment in the British context It provides an up to date account of past and current historiographical approaches toward the study of British imperial and colonial architecture and urbanism and will prove equally useful to those who study architecture and urbanism in other European imperial and transnational contexts The volume is divided in two main sections The first section deals with overarching thematic issues including building typologies major genres and periods of activity networks of expertise and the transmission of ideas the intersection between planning and politics as well as the architectural impact of empire on Britain itself The second section builds on the first by discussing these themes in relation to specific geographical regions teasing out the variations and continuities observable in context both practical and theoretical Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel, 2016-01-23
