Conceptualizing/Re-conceptualizing Africa Maghan Keita, 2021-10-11 Africa is a legitimizing factor in the world some might argue because of the weakness of its position in the world others might say because of the realization on the part of some African leaders that there are strengths inherent to their states positions that can be tapped Africa s place in the world is being re thought and re shaped And that is exactly what this book is about the authors invite and incite the reader to a much closer and nuanced reading of Africa and its history and the way in which that history over time and space allows for a re conceptualization of Africa s role and place in the world The authors evoke W E B Du Bois on the invention of identity in the modern world In that light these works remind us as Du Bois would that the current invention of Africa is indeed a modern one an identity configured in numerous ways with and without our interventions Contributions by Lamont de Haven King State and Ethnicity in Nigeria Jesse Benjamin Nubians and Nabateans Jeremy Prestholdt Portuguese on the Swahili Coast Thomas Ricks Slaves in Shi i Iran AD 1500 1900 Launay Robert Late Seventeenth Century Narratives of Travel to Asia and Richard J Payne and Cassandra Veney Taiwan and Africa A Decade of Democracy in Africa ,2002-10-31 The democratic experiment in Africa has had a checkered history over the past ten years Analysts of this process tend to focus on the political and legal space instead of including broader issues such as norms generational change and class Authors in this volume argue that African civil society is less likely to support democracy they measure African democracy by the women s rights movements unravel the mythical hope of technology and point to ideological capitulation necessary for a limited transition Past experience from Botswana South Africa Ghana Kenya Uganda and Madagascar will give the readers an understanding of democracy in Africa Contributors are Judith van Allen Lisa Aubrey Nigel Gibson Richard R Marcus Kenneth Mease Stephen N Ndegwa Stephen Orvis Dan Ottemoeller and Wisdom J Tettey American Book Publishing Record ,2000
