The Roman Poets of the Augustan Age William Young Sellar, 1883

The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Peter Robinson, 2013-09-26 The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry offers thirty eight chapters of ground breaking research that form a collaborative guide to the many groupings and movements the locations and styles as well as concerns aesthetic political cultural and ethical that have helped shape contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland The book s introduction offers an anthropological participant observer approach to its variously conflicted subjects while exploring the limits and openness of the contemporary as a shifting and never wholly knowable category The five ensuing sections explore a history of the period s poetic movements its engagement with form technique and the other arts its association with particular locations and places its connection with and difference from poetry in other parts of the world and its circling around such ethical issues as whether poetry can perform actions in the world can atone redress or repair and how its significance is inseparable from acts of evaluation in both poets and readers Though the book is not structured to feature chapters on authors thought to be canonical on the principle that contemporary writers are by definition not yet canonical the volume contains commentary on many prominent poets as well as finding space for its contributors enthusiasms for numerous less familiar figures It has been organized to be read from cover to cover as an ever deepening exploration of a complex field to be read in one or more of its five thematically structured sections or indeed to be read by picking out single chapters or discussions of poets that particularly interest its individual readers The Roman Poets in the Augustan Age. Sellar,1883 Lyric Interventions Linda A. Kinnahan,2005-05 Lyric Interventions explores linguistically innovative poetry by contemporary women in North America and Britain whose experiments give rise to fresh feminist readings of the lyric subject The works discussed by Linda Kinnahan explore the lyric subject in relation to the social an I as a product of social discourse and as a conduit for change Contributing to discussions of language oriented poetics through its focus on women writers and feminist perspectives this study of lyric experimentation brings attention to the cultural contexts of nation gender and race as they significantly shift the terms by which the experimental is produced defined and understood This study focuses upon lyric intervention in distinct but related spheres as they link public and ideological norms of identity Firstly lyric innovations with visual and spatial realms of cultural practice and meaning particularly as they naturalize ideologies of gender and race in North America and the post colonial legacies of the Caribbean are investigated in the works of Barbara Guest Kathleen Fraser Erica Hunt and M Nourbese Philip Secondly experimental engagements with nationalist rhetorics of identity marking the works of Carol Ann Duffy Denise Riley Wendy Mulford and Geraldine Monk are explored in relation to contemporary evocations of self in Britain And thirdly in discussions of all of the poets but particularly accented in regard to Guest Fraser Riley Mulford and Monk formal experimentation with the lyric I is considered through gendered encounters with critical and avant garde discourses of poetics Throughout the study Kinnahan seeks to illuminate and challenge the ways in which visual and verbal constructs function to make readable the subjectivities historically supporting white male centered power within the worlds of art poetry social locations or national policy The potential of the feminist innovative lyric to generate linguistic surprise simultaneously with engaging risky strategies of social intervention lends force and significance to the public engagement of such poetic experimentation This fresh energetic study will be of great interest to literary critics and womens studies scholars as well as poets on both sides of the Atlantic The Poetry of Dylan Thomas John Goodby,2013-07-31 An important reappraisal of the poetry of Dylan Thomas in terms of modern critical theory The New American Poetry John R. Woznicki,2013-12-24 The New American Poetry Fifty Years Later is a collection of critical essays on Donald Allen's 1960 seminal anthology The New American Poetry an anthology that Marjorie Perloff once called the fountainhead of radical American poetics The New American Poetry is referred to in every literary history of post World War II American poetry Allen's anthology has reached its fiftieth anniversary providing a unique time for reflection and reevaluation of this preeminent collection As we know Allen's anthology was groundbreaking it was the first to distribute widely the poetry and theoretical positions of poets such as Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg and the Beats and it was the first to categorize these poets by the schools Black Mountain New York School San Francisco Renaissance and the Beats by which they are known today Over the course of fifty years this categorization of poets into schools has become one of the major if not only way that The New American Poetry is remembered or valued one certain goal of this volume as one reviewer invites is to pry The New American Poetry out from the hoary platitudes that have encrusted it To this point critics mostly have examined The New American Poetry as an anthology former treatments of The New American Poetry look at it intently as a whole Though the almost singularly focused study of its construction and less often reception has lent a great deal of documented highly visible and debated material in which to consider we have been left with certain notions about its relevance that have become imbued ultimately in the collective critical consciousness of postmodernity This volume however goes beyond the analysis of construction and reception and achieves something distinctive extending those former treatments by treading on the paths they create This volume aims to discover another sense of radical that Perloff articulated rather than a radical that departs markedly from the usual we invite consideration of The New American Poetry that is radical in the sense of root of harboring something fundamental something inherent as we uncover and trace further elements correlated with its widespread influence over the last fifty years

Do We Really Know China? Iris Efthymiou-Eggleton, 2016-06-23 Different cultures and civilizations have different perception of a history context and ideas The Greek philosophers Socrates Plato Demosthenes Aristotle etc shaped Western thought Western logic and built our thought systems Nowadays we need historical pluralism and to form a cohesive whole especially in an increasingly multipolar world It is said that Western people from a European philosophical perspective are only capable of addressing alternate philosophies using our own mindset China historically saw its civilization as self evident universal and did not feel the need to justify this in European terms Despite the difficulties in comparing different cultures and civilizations this text summarizes the influence between China and the West Chinas soft power as well as the current situation of China and its way up the global ladder of power The concept of Chineseness and the identity with the Sinosphere a brief presentation of Chinas history geopolitical influences and industrial aspects the foundation of Chinese thought language and writing system as well as technological achievements traditional medicine arts and cuisine are only some of the topics covered in the next pages In addition more subjects are analyzed that provide an overview of the current global position of China the countrys efforts for reform and global influence as well as its future potentials These subjects dont fall far from discussing various economic and industrial facts like the integration of Chinese and European renewable energy markets the made in China phenomenon foreign policy and the countrys position as a rising aid donor After reading this book it should become obvious that China sees herself as Chung Kuo that means the Middle Kingdom the centre of the universe and the worlds oldest culture and society So one could say that this is what they are trying to do so they can make their country again the centre of todays world But during their rise which they characterize as peaceful they need to maintain global balance and escape from potential unpleasant events for example one could think of an analogy of US China relations and the Thucydides trap It seems so far that all the odds are with them their soft power in combination with political strategies their ability to evolve and follow global trends in addition with a huge internal market brought China to its position today But will China hold this place Will the country rise to worlds number one and in Chinas way to global dominance are we expected to see any more reforms It seems that all these are in the hands of the Chinese
