New Left Review, 2002      Metaphoricity and the Politics of Mobility, 2016-08-01 This collection of essays investigates the convergence between the postmodern politics of mobility and a politics of metaphor a politics in other words in the context of which the production and displacement of meanings constitute the major stakes Ranging from discussions of re territorialization multiculturalism digisporas and transnational politics and ethics to September 11th the Pentagon s New Map American legislation on Chinese immigration Gianni Amelio s film Lamerica Keith Piper s online installations and Doris Salcedo s Atrabiliarios the collection aims to follow three different theoretical trajectories First it seeks to rethink our concepts of mobility in order to open them up to the complexity that structures the thoughts and practices of a global order Second it critically examines the privileged position of concepts and metaphors of mobility within postmodern theory In juxtaposing conflictual theoretical formulations the book sets out to present the competing responses that fuel academic debates around this issue Finally it evaluates the influence of our increasingly mobile conceptual frameworks and everyday experience on the redefinition of politics that is currently under way especially in the context of Post Marxist theory Its hope is to contribute to the production of alternative political positions and practices that will address the conflicting desires for attachment and movement marking postmodernity      Israel's Foreign Policy Towards the PLO Amnon Aran, 2009-09-22 Examining Israeli foreign policy towards the Palestinian Liberation Organization PLO between the 1967 war and the 2005 withdrawal from the Gaza Strip this work focuses on the impact and process of globalisation on the Israeli state s politics economy society and culture      Industrial Poetics Joe Amato, 2006-04 Through a dizzying array of references to subjects ranging from engineering to poetry on the job experiences in academia and industry conflicts between working class and intellectual labor the privatization of universities and the contradictions of the modern environment Joe Amato s Industrial Poetics mounts a boisterous call for poetry communities to be less invested in artistic self absorption and more concerned about social responsibility s Amato focuses on the challenges faced by American poets in creating a poetry that speaks to a public engineered into complacency by those industrial technologies practices and patterns of thought that we cannot seem to do without he brings readers face to face with the conflicting realities of U S intellectual academic and poetic culture Formally adventurous and rhetorically lively Industrial Poetics is best compared with the intellectually exploratory speculative risky polemical work of other contemporary poet critics including Kathleen Fraser Joan Retallack Bruce Andrews Susan Howe and Allen Grossman Amato uses an exhilarating range of structural and rhetorical strategies conventionally developed argument abruptly juxtaposed aphorisms personal narrative manifesto like polemic and documentary reportage With a critic s sharply analytical mind a poet s verve and a working class intellectual s sense of social justice Amato addresses the many nonliterary institutions and environments in which poetry is inextricably embedded By connecting poetry to industry in a lively demonstration against the platitudes and habitudes of the twentieth century Amato argues for a

reenergized and socially forceful poetics an industrial poetics rough edges and all Jed Rasula writes I can't say I pay much attention to talk radio but this is what I imagine it might be like if the deejay were really smart enviably well read yet somehow retained the snarling moxie of the am format

The Resilient City Lawrence J. Vale, Thomas J.

Campanella, 2005-01-20 In 1871 the city of Chicago was almost entirely destroyed by what became known as The Great Fire Thirty five years later San Francisco lay in smoldering ruins after the catastrophic earthquake of 1906 Or consider the case of the Jerusalem the greatest site of physical destruction and renewal in history which over three millennia has suffered wars earthquakes fires twenty sieges eighteen reconstructions and at least eleven transitions from one religious faith to another Yet this ancient city has regenerated itself time and again and still endures Throughout history cities have been sacked burned torched bombed flooded besieged and leveled And yet they almost always rise from the ashes to rebuild Viewing a wide array of urban disasters in global historical perspective The Resilient City traces the aftermath of such cataclysms as the British invasion of Washington in 1814 the devastation wrought on Berlin Warsaw and Tokyo during World War II the late 20th century earthquakes that shattered Mexico City and the Chinese city of Tangshan Los Angeles after the 1992 riots the Oklahoma City bombing the destruction of the World Trade Center Revealing how traumatized city dwellers consistently develop narratives of resilience and how the pragmatic process of urban recovery is always fueled by highly symbolic actions The Resilient City offers a deeply informative and unsentimental tribute to the dogged persistence of the city and indeed of the human spirit

Insurgent Imaginations Auritro Majumder, 2020-10-22 This book argues that contemporary world literature is defined by peripheral internationalism Over the twentieth and twenty first centuries a range of aesthetic forms beyond the metropolitan West fiction memoir cinema theater came to resist cultural nationalism and promote the struggles of subaltern groups Peripheral internationalism pitted intellectuals and writers not only against the ex imperial West but also against their burgeoning national elites In a sense these writers marginalized the West and placed the non Western peripheries in a new center Through a grounded yet sweeping survey of Bengali English and other texts the book connects India to the Soviet Union China Vietnam Latin America and the United States Chapters focus on Rabindranath Tagore M N Roy Mrinal Sen Mahasweta Devi Arundhati Roy and Aravind Adiga Unlike the Anglo American emphasis on a post national globalization Insurgent Imaginations argues for humanism and revolutionary internationalism as the determinate bases of world literature

Crisis Cultures Brian S. Whitener, 2019-03-15 Drawing on a mix of political economic literary and filmic texts Crisis Cultures challenges current cultural histories of the neoliberal period by arguing that financialization and not just neoliberalism has been at the center of the dramatic transformations in Latin American societies in the last thirty years Starting from political economic figures such as crisis hyperinflation credit and circulation and exemplary cultural texts Whitener traces the interactions between culture finance surplus populations and racialized state violence after 1982 in Mexico and Brazil Crisis Cultures makes sense of the emergence of new forms of exploitation and terrifying police and militarized violence by tracking the cultural and discursive forms including real abstraction and the favela and immaterial cadavers and voided collectivities that have emerged in the complicated aftermath of the long downturn and global turn to finance

State Building in Putin's Russia Brian D. Taylor, 2011-02-21 This book argues that Putin's strategy for rebuilding the state was fundamentally flawed Taylor demonstrates that a disregard for the way state officials behave toward citizens state quality had a negative impact on what the state could do state capacity Focusing on those organizations that control state coercion what Russians call the power ministries Taylor shows that many of the weaknesses of the Russian state that existed under Boris Yeltsin persisted under Putin Drawing on extensive field research and interviews as well as a wide range of comparative data the book reveals the practices and norms that guide the behavior of Russian power ministry officials the so called siloviki especially law enforcement personnel By examining siloviki behavior from the Kremlin down to the street level State Building in Putin's Russia uncovers the who where and how of Russian state building after communism

The Global Politics of the Iraq Crisis and India's Options Hari S. Vasudevan, Shri Prakash, Mujib Alam, 2004 Presents essays that deal with the international context of the Iraqi crisis of 2003 and the options that India has faced in dealing with that crisis

Global Rules James E. Cronin, 2014-10-28 Questions long perceived views of post World War II America and its position in the world especially after Vietnam The author details the challenges the economic transition of the 1970s and 1980s engendered as the US and Great Britain together actively pursued their shared ideal of an international assemblage of market based democratic states

Surveillance After September 11 David Lyon, 2003-09-26 This timely work examines the issues around surveillance which have gathered in importance since the events of September 11th

World Literature Klaudia Hiu Yen Lee, Eli Park Sorensen, 2025-07-22 World Literature Approaches Practices and Pedagogy combines theoretical explorations and pedagogy to explore approaches to teaching some of the key concepts issues and topics in world literary studies Recognising the evolving and at times contested meanings of world literature this book treats world literature as a mode of reading and one that provides opportunities to create a space for critical discussions and reflections on understanding unpacking and at times challenging some of the assumptions and practices in world literary studies

Contributors discuss a wide array of topics including the role of translation and literary marketplace in global circulation of texts the function and problematics of paratexts questions of co authorship in transnational contexts debates on major minor in world literature cosmopolitanism and the impact of English as a lingua franca on the development of the field Accompanied by reading questions individual and group exercises as well as suggested further readings this collection offers a practical resource for instructors and an accessible guide to advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students taking world literature courses in different parts of the world

Amass, 2002 Postcolonial Studies Benita Parry, 2004-07-31 This powerful selection of essays proposes practices of reading and criticism to make the field of postcolonial studies more fully attentive to historical circumstances and socio material conditions Benita Parry points to directions and dead ends in the discipline she has helped to shape with a first series of essays vigorously challenging colonial discourse theory and postcolonialism as we have known them She then turns to literature with a series of detailed readings that not only demonstrate her theoretical position at work but also give new dimensions to widely studied texts by Rudyard Kipling Joseph Conrad H G Wells and E M Forster Parry argues throughout that the material impulses of colonialism its appropriation of physical resources exploitation of human labour and institutional repression have too long been allowed to recede from view

Foreign Policy Analysis Chris Alden, Amnon Arran, 2016-10-04 Building on the success of the first edition this revised volume re invigorates the conversation between foreign policy analysis and international relations It opens up the discussion situating existing debates in foreign policy in relation to contemporary concerns in international relations and provides a concise and accessible account of key areas in foreign policy analysis that are often ignored Focusing on how foreign policy decision making affects the conduct of states in the international system and analysing the relationship between policy agency and actors the volume examines foreign policy and bureaucracies domestic sources of foreign policy foreign policy and the state foreign policy and globalization foreign policy and change Features of the second edition include a wider range of contemporary case studies and examples from around the globe analysis of new directions in foreign policy analysis including foreign policy implementation and the changing media landscape fully updated material across all chapters to reflect the evolving research agenda in the area This second edition builds on and expands the theoretical canvas of foreign policy analysis shaping its ongoing dialogue with international relations and offering an important introduction to the field It is essential reading for all students of foreign policy and international relations East Asian Pop Culture Beng Huat

Chua, Koichi Iwabuchi, 2008-02-01 The contributors analyse the subject of Asian pop culture arranged under three headings Television Industry in East Asia Transnational Crosscultural Receptions of TV Dramas and Nationalistic reactions

Contemporary Latin American Cinema Deborah Shaw, 2007-04-09 This engaging book explores some of the most significant films to emerge from Latin America since 2000 an extraordinary period of international recognition for the region s cinema Each chapter assesses an individual film with some contributors considering the reasons for the unprecedented commercial and critical successes of movies such as City of God The Motorcycle Diaries Y tu mamá también and Nine Queens while others examine why equally important films failed to break out on the international circuit Written by leading specialists the chapters not only offer textual analysis but also trace the films social context and production conditions as well as critical national and transnational issues Their well rounded analyses provide a rich picture of the state of contemporary filmmaking in a range of Latin American countries Nuanced and thought provoking the readings in this book will provide invaluable interpretations for students and scholars of Latin American film Contributions by Sarah Barrow Nuala Finnegan David William Foster Miraim Haddu Geoffrey Kantaris Deborah Shaw Lisa Shaw Rob Stone Else R P Vieira and Claire Williams Changing anarchism Jonathan Purkis, James Bowen, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The massive protests against globalisation in recent years have re awoken interest in anarchism Changing anarchism sets out to reposition anarchist theory and practice by documenting contemporary anarchist practice and providing a viable analytical framework for understanding it The contributions here from both academics and activists raise challenging and sometimes provocative questions about the complex nature of power and resistance to it The areas covered include sexuality and identity psychological dependency on technology libertarian education religion and spirituality protest tactics mental health and artistic expression and the ongoing metaphorical wars against drugs and terror This collection epitomises the rich diversity that exists within contemporary anarchism as well as demonstrating its ongoing relevance as a sociological tool The Transatlantic Dialogue on Higher Education Ulla Kriebner, 2011 Comparing apples and oranges frequently this is what we do when we talk about similarities and differences regarding higher education in the United States and Europe Based on the assumption that higher education policy texts are cultural texts to be interpreted this book deconstructs four US American cultural narratives within higher education co opetition the frontier myth McDonaldization and the narrative of security and compares these to discourses prevailing in Europe Disputing the prevalent claim that both the recent European higher education transformation initiative the Bologna Process and the establishment of the European Higher Education Area EHEA have had absolutely no impact on US institutions of higher learning this study proves that cultural narratives in the last decade have strongly determined political and structural developments in higher education on both sides of the Atlantic This book therefore adds another facet to the transatlantic dialogue on higher education by providing a cultural critical perspective including the Foucauldian theory of governmentality as well as aspects of postcolonial theory Dark Times, Dire Decisions Jonathan Frankel, 2005-05-19 The newest volume of the annual Studies in Contemporary Jewry series features essays on the varied and often controversial ways Communism and Jewish history interacted during the 20th century The volume s contents examine the relationship between Jews and the Communist movement in Poland Russia America Britain France the Islamic world and Germany
