New Documentary A Critical Introduction:

New Documentary Stella Bruzzi, 2000 Bruzzi relates contemporary cinema to the documentary tradition exploring questions of authorship spectatorship and truth in the context of issues of race gender and performance

Documentary Stella Bruzzi, 2006-09-27 Praise for New Documentary It's refreshing to find a book that cuts through the tired old debates that have surrounded documentary film and television It heralds a welcome new approach Sight and Sound Documentary practice changes so fast that books on the subject are often out of date before they are published Bruzzi's achievement is to have understood the genre as an activity based on performance rather than observation This is a fresh perspective which illuminates the fundamental shifts that will continue to take place in the genre as it enters its second century John Ellis Professor of Media Arts Royal Holloway University of London New Documentary provides a contemporary look at documentary and fresh and challenging ways of theorising the non-fiction film As engaging as the original this second edition features thorough updates to the existing chapters as well as a brand new chapter on contemporary cinema release documentaries This new edition includes Contemporary films such as Capturing the Friedmans tre et avoir Fahrenheit 9 11 The Fog of War and Touching the Void as well as more canonical texts such as Hoop Dreams and Shoah Additional interviews with influential practitioners such as director Michael Apted and producer Stephen Lambert A comprehensively revised discussion of modern observational documentary including docu-soaps reality television and formatted documentaries The work of documentary filmmakers such as Nicholas Barker Errol Morris Nick Broomfield Molly Dineen and Michael Moore and the work of Avant Garde filmmakers such as Chris Marker and Patrick Keiller Gender identity queer theory performance race and spectatorship Bruzzi shows how theories of documentary filmmaking can be applied to contemporary texts and genres and discusses the relationship between recent innovative examples of the genre and the more established canon of documentary

Reality TV Anita Biressi, Heather Nunn, 2005 Through detailed case studies this book breaks new ground by linking together two major themes the production of realism and its relationship to revelation It addresses truth telling confession and the production of knowledges about the self and its place in the world

Filming the Everyday Paul G. Pickowicz, Yingjin Zhang, 2016-12-15 This cutting edge book examines the rapidly developing scene of Chinese independent documentary arguably the most courageous player in contemporary Chinese visual culture The authors explore two areas that are of special interest to China studies and film studies respectively 1 filming the everyday in twenty first century China to foreground contestation and diversity and 2 exploring the aesthetic of remembering in an embodied documentary practice which turns the gaze on artists themselves and encourages the viewer's engagement with the filmed subjects and environment Highlighting documentary contestation in China the book traces its cacophony of expressions some of it featuring confrontations with domineering elites some of it highlighting negotiations among the independent filmmakers themselves Their goal is not a movement that seeks to establish and impose a single truth but rather a creative dynamic that fosters a community of tolerance and respects diverse forms of expression Independent documentary is quite literally a moving target that is witnessing ongoing and widening diversity and complexity when it comes to directors themes aesthetics human subjects audiences and impact The authors stress the enormous potential of cultural production that features non elites including amateurs and that dwells on the everyday the bottom up the grassroots the seemingly mundane and the apparently marginal The book s emphasis on contemporary issues and its discussion of aesthetic experiments will appeal to all readers interested in China s culture media politics and society

First Person Jewish Alisa Lebow,2008 Examining more than a dozen films from Jewish artists this book reveals how the postmodern impulse to turn the lens inward intersects provocatively with historical tropes and stereotypes of the Jew It focuses on Jewish filmmakers working on the margins and examines the work of Jonathan Caouette Chantal Akerman and many more

Irish cinema in the twenty-first century Ruth Barton,2019-03-25 An accessible comprehensive overview of contemporary Irish cinema this book is intended for use as a third level textbook and is designed to appeal to academics in the areas of film studies and Irish studies Responding to changes in the Irish production environment it includes chapters on new Irish genres such as creative documentary animation and horror It discusses shifting representations of the countryside and the city always with a strong concern for gender representations and looks at how Irish historical events from the Civil War to the Troubles and the treatment of the traumatic narrative of clerical sexual abuse have been portrayed in recent films It covers works by established auteurs such as Neil Jordan and Jim Sheridan as well as new arrivals including the Academy Award winning Lenny Abrahamson

Philosophy and Film Christina Rawls, Diana Neiva, Steven S. Gouveia, 2019-04-25 This volume collects twenty original essays on the philosophy of film It uniquely brings together scholars working across a range of philosophical traditions and academic disciplines to broaden and advance debates on film and philosophy The book includes contributions from a number of prominent philosophers of film including No 1 Carroll Chris Falzon Deborah Knight Paisley Livingston Robert Sinnerbrink Malcolm Turvey and Thomas Wartenberg While the topics explored by the contributors are diverse there are a number of thematic threads that connect them Overall the book seeks to bridge analytic and continental approaches to philosophy of film in fruitful ways Moving to the individual essays the first two sections offer novel takes on the philosophical value and the nature of film The next section focuses on the film as philosophy debate Section IV covers cinematic experience while Section V includes interpretations of individual films that touch on questions of artificial intelligence race and film and cinema s biopolitical potential Finally the last section proposes new avenues for future research on the moving image beyond film This book will appeal to a broad range of scholars working in film studies theory and philosophy

Telecinematic Stylistics Christian Hoffmann, Monika Kirner-Ludwig, 2020-05-14 Over the last two decades the study of discourse in film and television has become one of the most promising research avenues in stylistics and pragmatics due to the dazzling variety of source material and the huge pragmatic range within it Meanwhile with the advent of streaming and the box set film and television themselves are becoming separated by an increasingly blurred line This volume closes a long standing gap in stylistics research bringing together a book level pragmaty stylistic showcase It presents current developments from the field from two complementary perspectives looking stylistically at the discourse in film and the discourse of and around film This latter phrase comes to mean the approaches which try to account for the pragmatic effects induced by cinematography This might be the camera work or the lighting or the mise en scene or montage The volume takes a multimodal approach looking at word movement and gesture in keeping with modern stylistics The volume shows how pragmatic themes and methods are adapted and applied to films including speech acts im politeness implicature and context In this way it provides systematic insights into how meanings are displayed enhanced suppressed and negotiated in both film and televisual arts

Hypermodern Cinematic Audiovisuality Jarmo Valkola, 2025-06-23 The hypermodern sense of audiovisuality relates to the proliferation of new media technologies in ordering ideas and orchestrating a plurality of media devices particularly for educational purposes We are dealing with the emergence of an increased sensibility towards hypermodern intentions in the sectors of cinema media and arts Offering the concept of media literacy we can approach the educational challenges that are brought within This book calls for a new patterned focus of our intentions in the middle of a wide variety of choices and new calculated devices that are brought in to increase our capability to control the rise of new media Among these discourses and efforts that paved the way to illustrate and control our historical and cultural visions in the poignancy of our hypermodern times we can open historicise and expand our views towards the necessary proliferation of a sense of audiovisuality The approach adopted is broad and extensive covering and ranging from psychology cognitive and phenomenological studies to neuroscience as well as to art film media and cultural studies Hypermodern perspectives constitute and comprise a problematic reiterative field for academic and intellectual forward thinking There is no single definition of hypermodern and its several standpoints may have semantic and other overlaps Dialogues between Media Paul Ferstl,2021-01-18 Comparative Literature is changing fast with methodologies topics and research interests emerging and remerging The fifth volume of ICLA 2016 proceedings Dialogues between Media focuses on the current interest in inter arts studies as well as papers on comics studies further testimony to the fact that comics have truly arrived in mainstream academic discourse Adaptation is a key term for the studies presented in this volume various articles discuss the adaptation of literary source texts in different target media cinematic versions comics adaptations TV series theatre and opera Essays on the interplay of media beyond adaptation further show many of the strands that are woven into dialogues between media and thus the expanding range of comparative literature Movie Minorities Hye Seung Chung,David Scott Diffrient,2021-08-13 Rights advocacy has become a prominent facet of South Korea s increasingly transnational motion picture output especially following the 1998 presidential inauguration of Kim Dae jung a former political prisoner and victim of human rights abuses who received the Nobel Peace Prize in 2000 Today it is not unusual to see a big budget production about the pursuit of social justice or the protection of civil liberties contending for the top spot at the box office With that cultural shift has come a diversification of film subjects which range from undocumented workers rights to the sexual harassment experienced by women to high school bullying to the struggles among people with disabilities to gain inclusion within a society that has transformed significantly since winning democratic freedoms three decades ago Combining in depth textual analyses of films such as Bleak Night Okja Planet of Snail Repatriation and Silenced with broader historical contextualization Movie Minorities offers the first English language study of South Korean cinema s role in helping to galvanize activist social movements across several identity based categories Essays on the Essay Film Nora M. Alter,Timothy Corrigan,2017-03-14 The essay with its emphasis on the provisional and explorative rather than on definitive statements has evolved from its literary beginnings and is now found in all mediums including film Today the essay film is arguably one of the most widely acclaimed and critically discussed forms of filmmaking around the world with practitioners such as Chris Marker Hito Steyerl Errol Morris Trinh T Minh ha and Rithy Panh Characteristics of the essay film include the blending of fact and fiction the mixing of art and documentary film styles the foregrounding of subjective points of view a concentration on public life a tension between acoustic and visual discourses and a dialogic encounter with audiences This anthology of fundamental statements on the essay film offers a range of crucial historical and philosophical perspectives It provides early critical articulations of the essay film as it evolved through the 1950s and 1960s key contemporary scholarly essays and a selection of writings by essay filmmakers It features texts on the foundations of the essay film by writers such as Hans Richter and Andr Bazin contemporary positions by among others Phillip Lopate and Michael Renov and original essays by filmmakers themselves including Laura Mulvey and Isaac Julien

Beyond observation Paul Henley, 2020-01-20 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Beyond Observation is structured by the argument that the ethnographicness of a film should not be determined by the fact that it is about an exotic culture the popular view nor because it has apparently not been authored a long standing academic view but rather because it adheres to the norms of ethnographic practice more generally On these grounds the book covers a large number of films made in a broad range of styles across a 120 year period from the Arctic to Africa from the cities of China to rural Vermont Paul Henley discusses films made within reportage exotic melodrama and travelogue genres in the period before the Second World War as well as more conventionally ethnographic films made for academic or state funded educational purposes The book explores the work of film makers such as John Marshall Asen Balikci Ian Dunlop and Timothy Asch in the post war period considering ideas about authorship developed by Jean Rouch Robert Gardner and Colin Young It also discusses films authored by indigenous subjects themselves using the new video technology of the 1970s and the ethnographic films that flourished on British television until the 1990s In the final part of the book Henley examines the recent work of David and Judith MacDougall and the Harvard Sensory Ethnography Lab before concluding with an assessment of a range of films authored in a participatory manner as possible future models

Stanley Kwan's Center Stage Mette Hjort, 2006-04-01 Hjort argues that Stanley Kwan's contribution in Center Stage is to develop an approach to nonfiction filmmaking that is realist without being naïve The value of the film's reflexive dimension Hjort shows has nothing to do with poststructuralist skepticism but with the compelling manifestation of a communicative model that serves as an alternative to hierarchical and authoritarian modes of social organization

Trans Narratives Ana Horvat, Orly Lael Netzer, Sarah McRae, Julie Rak, 2021-09-30 Recently trans has taken on a number of important theoretical and critical meanings inside and outside the academy As a prefix trans can attach itself to other words to express or describe movement and change as it does in the terms transnational or transmedia Trans is also an adjective when it is part of a word that signifies an identity or expression Trans has worked as an adjective to destabilize established ideas about gender as it makes new senses of what gender can mean for trans people Much of the study of life writing is about the study of identity and the possibilities for lives that stories of identity make possible In that spirit Trans Narratives trans transmedia transnational represents an opportunity for critical work about life writing by trans people to be featured as it seeks to interrogate the idea of trans in multiple registers bringing a prefix to the center of the current field of life writing studies It aims to understand through life writing and its theory what trans means when we talk about identities and bodies and to understand better what the critical terms transmedia and transnational can mean for the field of life writing The Chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of a b Auto Biography Studies Dramatising Disaster Christine Cornea,Rhys Owain Thomas,2013-02-14 The imagining of disaster has intensified across a wide range of media entertainment formats and genres in recent years and themes of disaster are regularly deployed in fictional films television drama series drama documentaries comic books and video games This being the case it is therefore vital that film and media scholars pay attention to the ways in which disaster is presented to us to the figurative strategies employed to the representational history of disaster in media to the metaphorical resonances of disaster themes and even to the ways in which entertainment media texts might be understood as part of a broader discourse of disaster within certain historical and cultural contexts Dramatising Disaster presents new and innovative research from both early career and more established academics Some of the chapters in this edited collection are based upon papers originally presented at a highly successful conference study day held by the School of Film Television and Media at the University of East Anglia in 2011 while others are specifically solicited contributions Distinct from previous more particularised film and media studies in this area this edited collection is focused not upon a specific disaster or specific disaster context but upon the wider topic of disaster in popular culture
