Social policy review 22 Greener, Ian, Holden, Chris,2010-07-13 Social Policy Review 22 presents a diverse review of the best in social policy scholarship It brings together specially commissioned reviews of key areas research examining important debates in the field and considers a range of issues including assessments of Labour's social policy after three terms in office service user involvement and the labour market impact of the economic crisis along with the winner of the SPA's best postgraduate paper award It is essential reading for academics and students in the field but more generally for anyone interested in contemporary social policy The Stage Works of Philip Glass Robert F. Waters,2022-08-04 The Stage Works of Philip Glass is the first publication to exclusively examine Glass's stage works from 1976 to the present day Glass who is regularly acclaimed as the most popular living classical composer created stage works that have had a mesmerizing effect on younger generations Robert Waters analyses Glass and his music for the theatre in the context of other composers interested in so called minimalist features His discussion includes three introductory chapters that address the validity versus invalidity of terms such as minimalism post minimalism postmodernism and neo Romanticism together with a brief overview of Glass's life and works Waters examines the different types of theatre responsible for Glass's impact including Robert Wilson's Theater of Images He sheds light on Glass's philosophy regarding staging text and other theatrical components which includes a defiance of conventional narrative visual and aural dissociation as a theatrical technique and deconstructionist concepts

Towards a Comparative Political Economy of Unfree Labour Dr Tom Brass, Tom Brass,2015-12-22 Many works about agrarian change in the Third World assume that unfree relations are to be eliminated in the course of capitalist development This text argues that the incidence of bonded labour is greater than supposed and that in certain situations rural employers prefer an unfree workforce Evelyn & William De Morgan Margaretta S. Frederick,2022-09-13 A lively and multi faceted account of Evelyn and William De Morgan exploring a unique artistic partnership that spanned several cultural circles including the Pre Raphaelites and Arts and Crafts movement With a partnership spanning two centuries the Pre Raphaelite painter Evelyn 1855 1919 and Arts and Crafts potter and author William De Morgan 1839 1917 influenced several significant art movements in nineteenth century Britain Despite this their impact has been relatively overlooked in comparison with their better known contemporaries Evelyn William De Morgan is the first major publication devoted to the work of either artist and their unique relationship It draws out each artist's individuality while providing a comprehensive view of the expanded cultural milieu in which they functioned not least with regard to new attitudes towards Victorian marriage as a working partnership The fully illustrated publication features numerous contributions which explore the reach of the De Morgans partnership their political and spiritual interests and their immersion within several influential cultural circles of the day including Pre Raphaelite Arts and Crafts and Aesthetic Movement groups The book presents a lively and multifaceted account of the De Morgans and their creative partnership Published in association with Delaware Art Museum Exhibition Schedule Delaware Art Museum Wilmington October 22 2022 January 29 2023 Crocker Art Museum Sacramento CA September 17 2023 January 7 2024 Museum of Fine Arts St Petersburg FL January 27 2024 May 2024 Sharing Child Care in Early Parenthood Malcolm Hill, 2023-02-13 Originally published in 1987 Malcolm Hill examines the different ways in which parents share responsibility for looking after their pre school children with other people whether members of their social networks formal groups or paid carers He also looks at the reasons parents give for choosing and changing their particular arrangements In this way he provides insights into a range of ideas which ordinary members of the public have about children s needs the rights and responsibilities of mothers and fathers and how children think and feel Marked differences are described in the social relationships of families and in notions about who is acceptable as a substitute carer for children in what circumstances and for what purpose Several of these contrasts are linked to attitudes and life conditions which are affected by social class The book identifies possible consequences for individual children s social adaptability resulting from these patterns of care It suggests that people working with the under fives could profit from adapting their activities and services to children s previous experiences of shared care and families differing expectations about groups for children Monthly Labor Review ,1949 Monthly Labor Review United States. Bureau of Labor Statistics, 2005-04 Publishes in depth articles on labor subjects current labor statistics information about current labor contracts and book reviews Tourism and Gentrification in Contemporary Metropolises Maria Gravari-Barbas, Sandra Guinand, 2017-06-14 Tourism gentrification is a critical shaping force of socio economic and contemporary urban landscapes This book aims to be the first substantive text on this subject explaining the multiple and complex relationships between tourism and gentrification and their outcomes and manifestations in contemporary metropolises This is achieved by drawing on in depth case analyses addressing the different issues at stake Part I deals with the manifestations of tourism gentrification and the ways it affects urban landscapes through heritagization and urban regeneration strategies Part II looks at the correlations between tourism gentrification and culture Finally the last two parts aim to identify and examine forms and expressions of tourism gentrification distinguishing among the actors beneficiaries and victims of the phenomenon while looking at its implications for intra metropolitan territories and metropolitan governance The book approaches these issues in an innovative way by looking at a variety of metropolises in a diverse range of countries and by dealing with the different relations and management issues generated by gentrification in relation to tourism Through interdisciplinary approaches this groundbreaking text sheds light on the role tourism plays in contemporary metropolises furthering knowledge of urban tourism For these reasons it will be of particular interest to scholars and students of tourism urban studies geography
