Readers and Reading Andrew Bennett, 2014-07-15 Much literary criticism focuses on literary producers and their products but an important part of such work considers the end user the reader It asks such questions as how far can the author condition the response of the reader and how much does the reader create the meaning of a text Dr Bennett s collection includes important essays from such writers and critics as Wolfgang Iser Mary Jacobus Roger Chartier Michel de Certeau Shoshana Felman Maurice Blanchot Paul de Man and Yves Bonnefoy It looks in turn at deconstructionist feminist new historicist and psychoanalytical response to the school The book then considers the act of reading itself discussing such issues as the uniqueness of any reading and the difficulties involved in its analysis The Film Cultures Reader Graeme Turner,2002 This companion reader to Film as Social Practice brings together key writings on contemporary cinema exploring film as a social and cultural phenomenon The New Historicism Harold Veaser,2013-12-19 Following Clifford Geertz and other cultural anthropologists the New Historicist critics have evolved a method for describing culture in action Their thick descriptions seize upon an event or anecdote colonist John Rolfe s conversation with Pocohontas s father a note found among Nietzsche s papers to the effect that I have lost my umbrella and re read it to reveal through the analysis of tiny particulars the motive forces controlling a whole society Contributors Stephen J Greenblatt Louis A Montrose Catherine Gallagher Elizabeth Fox Genovese Gerald Graff Jean Franco Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Frank Lentricchia Vincent Pecora Jane Marcus Jon Klancher Jonathan Arac Hayden White Stanley Fish Judith Newton Joel Fineman John Schaffer Richard Terdiman Donald Pease Brooks Thomas A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literary Theory Raman Selden,1993-06-08 Unsurpassed as a text for upper division and beginning graduate students Raman Selden s classic text is the liveliest most readable and most reliable guide to contemporary literary theory Includes applications of theory cross referenced to Selden s companion volume Practicing Theory and Reading Literature The Greenblatt Reader Stephen Greenblatt,2005-02-11 Stephen Greenblatt is one of the most influential practitioners of new historicism This Reader makes available in one volume Greenblatt s most important writings on culture Renaissance studies and Shakespeare It also features occasional pieces on subjects as diverse as story telling and miracles demonstrating the range of his cultural interests Taken together the texts collected here dispel the idea that new historicism is antithetical to literary and aesthetic value Double Reading Jeffrey T. Nealon,2019-05-15 Deconstruction it seems is dead Its death according to Jeffrey T Nealon is commonly attributed either to suicide a direct result of its own decline into a formalism it was supposed to remedy or to murder at the hands of the New Historicists Looking beyond its presumed demise Nealon sees its insights as continuing to figure importantly in postmodernist critical debates Reading Authority and Representing Rule in Early Modern England Kevin Sharpe,2013-06-06 Reading Authority and Representing Rule in Early Modern England explores the publication and reception of authority in early modern England Examples are drawn from a broad range of source including royal portraits architecture coins and medals and written texts This is a volume that presents the history of society and state as a cultural as well as an institutional or political history The author Kevin Sharpe was a leading scholar in interdisciplinary approaches to the study of early modern Britain He pioneered the application of methods and approaches from other disciplines such as literary criticism reception studies and visual culture to the study of the English Renaissance state This will be an important text for anyone studying early modern England as well as for those interested in the methods of cultural history and the explication of written and visual texts

Theophylact of Ochrid Margaret Mullett, 2016-12-05 Few works exist on Byzantine literature as literature and still fewer studies of individual texts This reading of the letter collection c 1090 c 1110 of Theophylact of Ochrid employs a variety of approaches to characterise a work which is both a literary artefact in a long Greek tradition and the only trace of a complex network of friends colleagues patrons and clients within Byzantine Bulgaria and also within the empire as a whole These letters are of great importance from the point of view of local economic or ecclesiastical history relations with the Slavs the arrival of the First Crusade but have not hitherto been studied as an example of Byzantine letter writing This was a genre taken seriously by Byzantines offering us unique insight into the mentality of the Byzantine elite but also into what the Byzantines regarded as literature This book is important as an attempt to raise the status of the study of Byzantine literature and of letters within that literature It is a first attempt to place an epistolary text in a succession of literary and historical contexts its aim too is to probe the reliability of any rhetorical text for straightforward biography especially at the time of the revival fiction in Byzantium At the heart of the book is an analysis of the personal network of Theophylact as presented in the collection with further methodological discussion of network analysis in medieval texts
