New Hooked On A Berkley Medallion:

Battle of the Books Lee Burrell, 1989 Examines increasing censorship in public schools describes the objections that lead to censorship and discusses several case studies      The Case for Critical Literacy Alice S. Horning, 2024-08-15 The Case for Critical Literacy explores the history of reading within writing studies and lays the foundation for understanding the impact of this critical yet often untaught skill Every measure of students reading comprehension whether digital or analog demonstrates that between 50 and 80 percent of students are unable to capture the substance of a full discussion or evaluate material for authority accuracy currency relevancy appropriateness and bias This book examines how college level instruction reached this point and provides pedagogical strategies that writing instructors and teachers can use to address the problem Alice Horning makes the case for the importance of critical reading in the teaching of writing with intentionality and imagination while sharing glimpses of her own personal history with reading and writing Horning provides the context for understanding what college faculty face in their classrooms and offers a history of critical literacy that explains why to date it has mostly neglected or ignored the diverse statuses of students reading challenges The Case for Critical Literacy explores actionable options to better meet students literacy needs College and university faculty especially writing instructors will benefit from an understanding of what has happened in the field and what needs to change

Monographic Series Library of Congress, 1977      Job Corps Education Program Guide United States. Employment and Training Administration. Office of Youth Programs, 1979      Literature as Exploration Louise M. Rosenblatt, 2014-08-01 Louise Rosenblatt s Literature as Exploration has influenced literary theorists and teachers of literature at all levels This attractive trade paperback edition features a new foreword by Wayne Booth a new preface and retrospective chapter by the author and an updated list of suggested readings In Literature as Exploration Rosenblatt presents her unique theory of literature and focuses on the immense often untapped potential for the study and teaching of literature in a democratic society The author s philosophy of literature is frequently cited as the first presentation of reader response theory but she differs from her successors in emphasizing both the reader and the text Her transactional theory of literature examines the reciprocal nature of the literary experience and explains why meaning is neither in the text nor in the reader Each reading is a particular event involving a particular reader and a particular text under particular circumstances And teachers of literature Rosenblatt argues play a pivotal role in influencing how students perform in response to a text      Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1978      Language and Learning James Britton, 1993 Language and Learning is a rich and moving account of how children learn to talk and the role of speech in cognitive development      The New Hooked on Books Daniel N. Fader, 1976      Final Report on Project Challenge National Committee for Children and Youth, 1968      Choosing Books for Young People: 1976-1984 John R. T. Ettlinger, Diana L. Spirt, 1982      The Affective Dimension of Reading Darryl J. Strickler, 1977      Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1977      The Reading Teacher , 1973

Language Arts and Literacy in the Middle Grades Margaret J. Finders, Susan Hynds, 2007 From two prominent scholars in the field of literacy comes a middle school teacher preparation text that offers important innovations not usually found in traditional secondary methods texts The book is rife with concrete examples of teaching literacy and language arts in middle school contexts but is relevant to preservice and practicing teachers at middle and high school levels This edition includes a stronger focus on culturally relevant pedagogy and the needs of English Language Learners as well as a Standards in Practice feature which helps teachers incorporate state and national standards in teaching and planning The book is based on a teacher as inquirer model A fieldwork component provides tools for classroom inquiry and reflection in each chapter The book is timely and relevant with classroom cases written by experienced and new middle school language arts teachers

The Influence of Pornography on Behaviour Maurice Yaffé, Edward C. Nelson, 1982      Research for School Media Specialists Kent L. Gustafson, 1982      Questions English Teachers Ask Robert Baird Shuman, 1977      Teaching Reading in Secondary School Content Subjects Carl Bernard Smith, Sharon L. Smith, Larry Mikulecky, 1978      Literacy Lessons Margaret J. Finders, Susan Hynds, 2003 For Language Arts English and Middle School methods courses graduate level literacy courses With its sights clearly set on middle school teachers and the middle school teaching experience this new text expands the definition of literacy to encompass today's popular electronic and audiovisual media Research driven coverage offers a thorough presentation of the theory of middle school teaching plus a wealth of real stories from real classrooms that demonstrate strategies in actual practice The authors address the current emphasis on standards discussing their advantages and disadvantages and integrating them throughout They also embrace the notion of inclusion by offering numerous suggestions for teaching special needs students in the regular classroom and explore the social and cultural complexities and the joys and challenges of teaching today's adolescents      Language and Poverty Frederick Williams, 1970
